Powell Valley

Carl Anderson has gone to Alaska for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Conant and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. C. Lewis and children, of Portland, spent the 4th of July at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindgren.

The Ladies' society of the Swedish Lutheran church will meet at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thorwald Anderson's at 2 o'clock on Wednesday afternoon, July 9. Everybody is cordially invited.

Miss Ellen Nordling, who is attending school at Pasadena, Calif., has returned home and has spent a week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Swards, and has also been visiting friends in Powell Valley.

A surprise party was given to Mrs. Sward on July 4, it being her birthday. A good time was spent after which luncheon was served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Conant and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis and children, Mrs. P. Salquist and daughters, Ernest Nickolson, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Johnson and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Lindgren and daughter, Mrs. C. Nelson and children, Miss Mildred Young, Mr. and Mrs. Carlstedt and son, Miss Ellen Nordling, Mrs. Christensen and Mr. Markelson.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Pleasant Home

Pleasant Home's baseball team will play next Sunday afternoon with the Stiletos of Portland.

The game at Sandy on the Fourth with the Sandy club resulted in a score of 24 to 0 in favor of the Pleasant Home club. It was one-sided but interesting. The Pleasant Home pitcher struck out 20 men, allowing but two hits.

Last Sunday's game with the Montavilla team stood 18 to 4 in favor of Pleasant Home, a feature of the game being a home run by Heitzman.

The Pleasant Home Tigers will give a benefit dance for the team in Orient hall next Saturday night, music by Byers' orchestra. Usual prices and good time promised.

Martin Lennartz and wife, who removed to Sandy, were callers on friends here Sunday evening. They were on their way home from a visit to Hillsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Quicksall are entertaining their two sisters from Joliet, Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Erickson, of Portland, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bankus Saturday and Sunday.

The Ladies' Aid society will give a tea at the home of Mrs. Fred Wagner on Wednesday afternoon. Most of the people of our vicinity celebrated the 4th at either Gresham or Sandy, others going to Portland.

Dr. Inglis in Gresham.

Dr. Geo. Inglis will be in Gresham office every day (except Sunday) from 1 to 6 p. m., at Troutdale in the forenoon. Does general practice, and gives special attention to fitting of glasses. As it takes a good deal of time to fit glasses properly, it will often save waiting to make appointment by telephone.

Gillis

Among the visitors at the home of Mrs. J. M. Hillyard last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wood and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Duke of Meirose, a Mrs. Wilson and Rev. Cottrell of Montavilla who called on Mr. Luelling, who is suffering from paralysis.

Miss M. A. Hillyard has returned to her work at McCloud, Calif., after a short visit with her parents and friends here.

The attendance at the church was very large last Sunday night to hear Rev. Geo. Harrison. Services are held regularly every Sunday at 8 o'clock in the evening.

Mrs. R. R. Stoner, of Gresham, is caring for Mr. Luelling.

Jas. Hillyard, who is attending Behnke-Walker Business college, was at home over Sunday.

If you are a housewife you cannot reasonably hope to be healthy or beautiful by washing dishes, sweeping and doing housework all day, and crawling into bed dead tired at night. You must get out into the open air and sunlight. If you do this every day and keep your stomach and bowels in good order by taking Chamberlain's Tablets when needed, you should become both healthy and beautiful. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Cottrell

Mrs. Clara Kane, of Gresham, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Goger.

Miss Hilda Byers and Miss Irene Erz, of Seaside, were also guests at the Goger home Sunday.

Mrs. B. Manary and Ross Manary, of Silverton, Wallis Manary, of Clifton, and Miss Maud Manary, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. Manary of this place.

About eighteen cars of wood are loaded at the Cottrell station every week.

Mrs. Brower, of Orient, was the guest of Mrs. W. Craswell last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Johnson, of Corbett, and Mr. and Mrs. Sig. Knighton, of Gresham, visited Mrs. Ella Schneider and family Sunday.

Miss Ellen Caldo was a Portland visitor Monday. Irvin Hood, of Albany, spent Saturday and Sunday with relatives at the place.

Dysentery is always serious and often a dangerous disease, but it can be cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured it even when malignant and epidemic. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and Dealers everywhere.

Gage

Mrs. Ruth Wheeler, of Hood River, and children are visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lucas.

Miss Helen Walker, of Portland, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Crowston.

Mrs. Oliv Johnson and children of Kenton, and Grover Preston, of Hubbard, are spending a few days with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Preston.

Mrs. Anna Bates, of Gresham, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. W. W. Northway, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas are visiting in Spokane for a few days. Grant Preston and Sidney Woods took the boat at Corbett for Eastern Oregon.

Frank Bell had a break down with his auto Thursday evening.

The barbecue and picnic at the school grounds on the Fourth was brought to a sudden stop by a very bad accident at the close of the horse race. The horse ridden by Elmer Mitchell became unmanageable and ran into the crowd and knocked Mrs. Bert Chamberlain down, hurting her quite badly. Dr. Bittner was called and had to take three stitches in the back of her scalp.

W. W. Northway and J. C. Vanzant have new signs painted, the work being done by Jack Zilm.

Mrs. C. Christensen and children are spending a few days with her parents at Canby, Ore.

Lois Bates while crawling, cut his ankle with a hatchet.

Lewis Nelson spent the Fourth at home.
