The Man's Business Was Ruined By Prohibition.

The story is told by Dr. Jeffrey of Lincoln, Neb., that after an election in a certain town resulting in the voting out of the saloons a resident was heard to announce his determination to leave the town, as his business would be ruined by the change. When asked the nature of his employment he said his wife had been feeding the prisoners at the county jail; that before the saloons were voted out he and his wife had a monthly income of $120; after their extermination, it was reduced to $7, and he couldn't stand it.

For Cuts, Burns and Bruises. In every home there should be a box of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, ready to apply in every case of burns, cuts, wounds or scalds. J. H. Polanco, Delville, Tex., R. Alaska timber is coming to be a factor in the market, three hundred million feet having been contracted for and application having been made for an additional equal amount. This is for Sitka spruce which will be made into paper pulp. The latest estimates available show that there is a stand of approximately 28,000,000,000 feet on the Chugach national forest in Alaska.

To following letter has been received from the Coquille Commercial club: "Coquille wants some help in getting contractors to clear 1500 acres of willow bottom land directly across the river from the city. It is fine bottom land owned by Californians who offer $1 per acre for brushing and burning, and if the 1500 acres can be cleared, it will be put on the market at $150 per acre, which is cheap as land goes in this section."
