FAIRVIEW, July 18—The road which Osborn Bros., of Portland, have had put through Osburn Park has been completed. D. W. Mcay was overseeing the work.

On Tuesday evening as S. A. Arata accompanied by J. Loser and Peter Erickson were returning from Troutdale in Mr. Arata's new seven passenger car, he failed to make the turn at the intersection of the Sandy and Fairview roads with the result that they stopped against a telephone pole and the bank, throwing the men over into Mrs. Clark's yard. They received only a few scratches but the car was quite badly damaged. The city marshal, R. Hunter, watched it the rest of the night and it was taken to Portland on Wednesday for repairs.

The Aid society met at the Presbyterian church on Thursday afternoon. Quilt piecing was the occupation for the afternoon.
