One way to help oneself to keep cool is not to try to tell anybody else how to do so.

Some people have their troubles so much that they take them along on a vacation trip.

Also, at this time of year youngish people fall in love easily, usually to slide out later.

Any honorably successful man is entitled to respect, but none more so than the intelligent, progressive farmer.

"Huerta regime near a crisis," says a headline, "Crisis!" Why, no Mexican regime knows anything else but crises.

Some people are happily so constituted that they can enjoy a vacation and improve themselves at the same time.

Now the new republic of China has several rebellions on its hands, the end of which nobody can intelligently predict.

That the parcel post limit will likely not remain at 20 pounds, but will finally get up to 100, is the prediction of the Salem Statesman.

Referring distinctly to Baker county, the Baker Democrat says there is little excuse for any man idling his time, for there is plenty of work to do on the farm and in the timber.

The strenuousness of the haymaking life in the Willamette valley is shown in the fact that a Sunday school picnic dated for July 16 at Sodalville was postponed "to some early in August."

Winston Churchill is evidently not only a novelist of prominence, but a man of great discernment as well. When he wanted to learn the delights of trout fishing he came to Eugene and went up the McKenzie.—Eugene Register.

Sandy

SANDY, July 2.—At a special meeting of Sandy school district it was proposed to vote a two mill tax for the purpose of maintaining the ninth and tenth grades in the Sandy high school. When the ballot was finally taken on the proposition it was found that the vote stood twenty for and twenty against. Repeated ballots failed to change the situation and a motion to adjourn was carried and the proposition was defeated. A movement will be started to form a union high school joining the Sandy districts with the adjoining districts for that purpose.

A. C. Baumback and family departed for the mountains last week, where they will spend the coming week resting and living close to nature.

Dr. Boyd of the First Presbyterian church, of Portland, passed through Sandy in his Ford machine, a gift from prominent members of the First church. The doctor with his family will spend the next six weeks at his ranch seven miles east of Sandy.

The Sandy ball grounds proved a lively place Sunday, when the Sandy team crossed bats with the Mt. Hood Creamery team. The Mt. Hood team was defeated by a score of 14 to 9.

W. V. Rogers said he had a glorious time climbing Mt. Hood and spending the week-end at Government Camp.

Mr. White, wife and children are enjoying camp life at their summer resort on the Bluff road, where the scenic panorama could scarcely be equalled elsewhere.

W. N. Neville, a civil engineer of Portland came out to Dover last week, to survey a tract of land recently purchased by Mr. Schminky of Sandy.

Mr. and Mrs. William and children left for the mountains last week where they will remain until fall.

The mill of the Firwood Lumber company was partly shut down the first of the week, due to the break in the dam.

Supervisor of the Oregon National Forest Reserve T. H. Sherwood, of Portland inspected various stations in the reserve near here.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Frey, of Portland, have opened their summer home camp Idlewild for the season.

H. Jackson and S. C. Gordon left Sandy Tuesday for Wild Cat to spend some time in the Forestry service.

Rev Paul Doltz and wife and little daughter Henrietta have arrived in Sandy and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Purrell. Mr. Doltz, after graduating from the theological seminary at Princeton, New Jersey, 10 years ago, departed for the Philippines where he has labored ever since as a missionary, having for his field the southern part of the island of Panay with headquarters at Iloilo, second largest city in the island.

At a special meeting of the council, the test and condition of the chemical engines was discussed, the councilmen were unanimous in their decision to reject the machines and the recorder was instructed to inform the company from whom they were purchased, of the action that had been taken.

Sandy had an exciting time Monday afternoon in the nature of a series of runaways. Two teams belonging to E. D. Rowe of Kelso, ran away and also a team belonging to John Bickford, ran away at the same time, making the Main street very lively for a time. No serious damage was done.

After all, "Old Glory" is good enough for most of us.
