Columbia Heights

The social at the grange hall was a decided success on last Saturday night. Everybody came and had a jolly time. The affair was managed by the suffragettes and they did all possible to make everyone feel at home. The young folks declared that they had the time of their lives.

The grain harvest is now at hand, and all of the grain looks very good. All that we are now wishing for is lots of sunshine and all will be happy and contented. The blight has not done any damage here on the Heights and the rain of last week did hundreds of dollars worth of good to the late potatoes. The ranchers are now looking forward to a fair crop, and a good price this season.

The Columbia Ladies' Aid had another chance to show that they have not chosen the name of their society in vain. When news reached us of the triplets born to Mr. and Mrs. Jones at Rooster Rock a week ago. The ladies got busy at once and the consequence was a very good sized wardrobe for the babies. The writers made a call last week at the Jones home, and found the mother with all of her babies, one girl and two boys doing very nicely.

Mrs. P. Anderson entertained the Ladies' Aid on last Thursday, which was well attended. Mrs. Wilson, of Hurlburt, entertained with music during the afternoon. Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. J. Ross at the Heights on Thursday, the 28th. Everybody is invited.

Norton Evans, has returned home from the sanitarium where he has been for a short time. His condition is not very hopeful, as he is suffering from tuberculosis.

The members of the Rooster Rock Water company, were in the city on last Thursday to sign the incorporation papers of that company.

Mrs. Bertelsen, of Washington, is spending a few days here at the Heights with her friend, Mrs. J. Deaver.

Miss Druell, who has spent several weeks with her sister, Mrs. B. Knieriem, left for her home last Saturday.

Mrs. W. Hicks attended the family reunion in Portland last week.
