Additional Gresham Locals

J. B. Lent, principal of the Fairview school, was a Gresham visitor today and a welcome caller at the Outlook.

Work was begun this morning on the Gresham-Damascus road. A crew of about a dozen teams and men are at work in front of the M. Winch experimental farm, cutting down two hills and making a big fill. The old bridge near C. E. Cleveland's place will be torn down and a fill made in its place.

Mr. Kennedy, of Lents, an experienced railroad grader, has been appointed by the county court to take charge of the work.

A fine bunch of sweet peas, grown from the Outlook contest seed, was brought in one day this week by Misses Ida and Wilma Chase. Our young friends seem to have enjoyed their flowers and are kindly sharing them with us.

Rev. Melville T. Wire returned today from a month's vacation at Lake View, Oregon. He reports a delightful time visiting with old friends, hunting, fishing and painting. He will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church next Sunday at the usual hours.

Mrs. M. E. Shultz is enjoying a visit from her daughter Mrs. Isabel Davis of Hurburt.

Mrs. M. Patch, Mrs. H. H. Ott and little son and Miss Mina Gilbert have returned from Welches where they have been for several weeks.

The Industrious Girls' club will resume their work under the direction of the librarian Miss C. H. Halle. They will meet next Thursday at 3:30 at the library.

Attention is called to the article on page 2, giving subject for juvenile essay in a contest for the very valuable cash prizes offered by the First State Bank. The picture is at the library. The time is short. Some one will win the $10. cash. Who will it be?

E. L. Thorpe and O. A. Eastman were taken on a joy ride today by Frank McCrillis to Portland where they dined with the Realty Board, and assisted by County Commissioner Holman, boosted for the Fair.

Dairymen and farmers are reminded of the important meeting tomorrow (Saturday), at 2 p. m., at the Commercial club hall.

Mrs. Vesta Raney, the Misses Ethel Wilkinson and Christena Burkholder, Wilbur Thompson and Will Raney returned from a two weeks' camping trip to Government Camp last Saturday.

To The Ladies.

Before buying your fall and winter suits you are invited to call and examine my samples of suiting material at the Gresham Millinery store, and have you suit made to order at the price of a ready made suit. Better material and better workmanship guaranteed. Gresham Millinery Store, Main street, Mrs. M. Vogel, Prop.

Diarrhoea Quickly Cured.

"I was taken with diarrhoea and Mr. Yorke, the merchant here, persuaded me to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. After taking one does of it I was cured. It also cured others that I gave it to," writes M. E. Gebhart, Oriole, Pa. That is not at all unusual. An ordinary attack of diarrhoea can almost invariably be cured by one or two doses of this remedy. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

An independent telephone line has been run from Central to the secretary's office on the fair grounds, where Secretary Kardell will have his office next week. The number will be 841. Mr. Kardell is expected to be home from Manzanita Beach next Sunday, and will remain here until after the business of the fair has been settled.

The Outlook was treated recently to some fine specimens of Columbia plums by Theodore Brugger. They are unusually good for eating raw.

Benj. Mathews is laying the walk along his property on Main street.

Carl Dahl is improving slowly.

Mrs. Hup, of Boring, is attending him.

GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Miss Ethel Wilkinson and Miss Helen Hoss will take up their duties as teachers at Cottrell next Monday, the former as principal and the latter as assistant.

B. C. Altman was in town Wednesday having about recovered from a recent sickness which kept him in bed for nearly ten days. He is much pleased with the new stocksheds on the fair grounds and thinks they will be filled to overflowing at the coming fair.

Born, to the wife of Frank Christenson, Saturday evening, August 30, a nine-pound boy.

Gresham lodge No. 152, A. F. & A. M., will work in the M. M. Degree next Tuesday evening, Sept. 9. Visiting members welcome.

Rockwood grange decided at its Saturday meeting last month to have an exhibit at the county fair. At the meeting on Wednesday night the reports of the committees were very favorable and there is every indication that the display will be one of the best shown.

There will be a call meeting of the W. C. T. U. to be held in the public library September 9 at 2:30 p. m. All officers and superintendents are urged to be present.

Services as usual at the Free Methodist church next Sunday. Sunday school at 10 a. m., superintended by Rev. D. M. Cathey. Morning sermon at 11. Evening meeting beginning with a song service at 8 o'clock. Everybody welcome to all of these services, especially are the children invited to attend the Sunday school. Edwin W. Hight, pastor.

Alex. Gullickson has quit the dray business and Henry Gullickson is now on the wagon.

Mrs. Grace Quick and daughters, Miss Helen and Baby Margaret arrived in Gresham from Seaside. Miss Helen will be a high school student in the Gresham schools this winter.

Miss Elsa von Wintzengerode, who will continue her work as teacher in the high school, was the guest for a few days this week of Mrs. J. N. Faris.

Frank Gibbs and family, Luther Stockton and family and Mrs. A. M. Wilkinson went last week to the hop yards near Independence.

The Ladies' Aid society met last Wednesday at the home of Mrs. M. E. Shultz and elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mrs. O. A. Eastman; vice president, Mrs. L. Osborne; secretary, Miss A. Hoagland; treasurer, Mrs. C. E. Rusher. Mrs. Shultz and Mrs. C. M. Oliphant served a dainty lunch.

D. A. Coffman, of Seaside, was the guest last night of his father-in-law J. N. Mewhirter and wife. He is making arrangements to move his family to Portland.

The services at the Baptist church next Sunday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 o'clock, morning preaching at 11 o'clock. Subject, "All things work together for good." The subject of the sermon at 8 o'clock will be "Prejudice and its antidote." Text "Come and see." All are cordially invited to attend all the services of the church. Rev. E. A. Leonard is the acting pastor.

Mrs. John Metzger and sons have returned from Seaside where they have spent several weeks.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Morris early this morning, a 6 1/2 pound girl. The mother is at a hospital in east Portland.

John and Fred Fieldhouse have returned from Manzanita Beach. The latter has been there all summer building himself a house. John Fieldhouse went down a short time ago to assist in the work.

Harry Jones, of Kelso, Washington, is visiting his aunt, Mrs. Crow.

Gresham grange will meet in regular session Saturday, September 13. It will be a day meeting and a good attendance is expected.

Mrs. Ettel Jones has recovered from the shock occasioned by the fire and she and her husband have taken rooms at the Congdon for the present.

J. H. Metzger, treasurer, and the chairman of the Commercial club entertainment committee made the rounds yesterday settling up all the costs of the recent banquet. After all bills had been paid they reported $2.90 remaining out of the banquet fund which was returned to the club treasury.

R. F. Robinson, of Portland, was in town today.

Lecture at Pleasant Valley.

"Ten Nights in a Barroom" will be given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of Pleasant Valley in the grange hall there next Saturday evening. It will be illustrated with the aid of a picture machine and the story will be interestingly told by Rev. Jack Frost who has an established reputation as a lecturer. There will be an admission fee of 15 cents for children and 25 cents for adults.

Want ads. will bring you anything except lost opportunities.

Phone your orders in for Butter Wrappers to the Gresham Outlook. Try one.

Recall Meeting at Gresham.

There will be a meeting for the purpose of arousing interest in the recall of Tom Word, in Gresham, Wednesday evening, September 10, under the auspices of the Word Recall committee.

Some of the best speakers in the county will tell why Mr. Word should be recalled. This committee has nothing to do with the Socialists or I. W. W., but is made up of Republicans, Democrats, Progressives and Independents.

SCHOOL NUMBER NEXT TUESDAY

The Outlook's School Number will be issued next Tuesday, September 9. Besides the usual news of this section, and correspondence from many localities, it will contain several special articles on educational subjects, announcement of school openings, with names of teachers, school boards, and plans for the school year as far as possible for us to obtain the information. School officers and teachers are asked to phone or write the Outlook office any information regarding school matters which it is desired to make public.

The Outlook desires to make this number of special help to school officers and patrons. We shall try to get an announcement in regard to each school in eastern Multnomah and adjoining districts in northern Clackamas county. To do this we need the assistance of school directors, teachers and correspondents. Phone us at our expense, Gresham 701.

The Gresham Athletics will play St. John's ball team on the new diamond next Sunday at 2:30 p. m. The new grounds are located on Chas. Cleveland's property, on Main street, north of the Mt. Hood tracks. The grounds will be in good shape and this will be the first game. Batteries for Gresham Frank Hamlin and Harry Young. A small admission will be charged. The Athletic club has made arrangement with A. Leland for the use of the upstairs of the old barn on Powell street, which will be remodeled and fitted up for a gymnasium.

Masonic Hall Opening.

The new Masonic hall at Troutdale will be formally opened next Saturday evening by Latourelle's orchestra with a grand ball. Louis Kummer will have charge of the floor. Tickets will be $1.00; supper at the restaurants. The public is cordially invited to attend as a good time is assured.
