"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.
Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the act of March 3, 1879.

TOO MANY LAWYERS.

With the supreme court of the state about a year or more behind in its work and appeal cases growing greater every month, there is a problem for the seven supreme judges to debate. If the present rate of appealed litigation keeps on it will only lengthen out the arrears and pretty soon there will be so many cases that the court never can catch up.

Lawyers and legislators are casting about for a remedy, but none is in sight. Something will have to be done. Perhaps the idea will permeate a few dense brains that there are too many lawyers. The constitution will not admit of any more supreme judges, but every new batch of young lawyers turned out breeds more litigation. How would it do to curtail the output of attorneys for awhile, just as an experiment.

There doesn't seem to be any danger that the United States will ever build enough battleship to use up the 50 names of the states that will have to be given them.

Gresham is going to be busy this week, and with good weather there will be more people here than the place ever saw before. There is a holiday spirit in the air and it is being felt, not only here but all over the county, Portland included.

This issue of the Outlook and the coming issue next Friday might properly be called fair editions. We didn't have to make the announcement ahead as everyone expects us to tell them all about it.

Vancouver's tri-county fair was held last week. It was great for exhibits and horse racing but it "went in the hole." There is great hope that Gresham's fair will be a success but we'll have to wait until the bills come in before we know. Canby is coming along next week and the states fair the week following. May they both be successful.

Representative Lafferty did two important things last week. He sent out a big stack of that "thrilling treatise on farming called the 'Year Book,' and flopped back into the republican party. What the Bull Moosers are saying is of no importance—it is what the republicans will say that will scorch the atmosphere.

There will be a little old county fair at Gresham this week that will remind people along in years of the cattle shows and 'pumpkin' shows of their youth.—Sunday Oregonian.

One would hardly think that the great Oregonian would thus belittle its some county fair after lavishing several columns of "good stuff" on some others further away and in other states; nor would one expect it to unbottle its sarcasm after having been allowed $125 for advertising space. The Oregonian editor is invited to come out and see the cattle and "pumpkins";—but then may be someone forgot to send him a free pass.

Oregon Represented in Logs.
Oregon is to have a log building to house its exhibits at the Panama-Pacific exposition. The design for the building has been selected by the Oregon Commissioners for the Oregon building which will be part of the fair at San Francisco in 1915.

Tentative plans prepared by the architects show a huge log building of novel design, the building being so constructed in accordance with the wishes of the Commission and in keeping with a pronounced popular demand. Inasmuch as the exposition itself will not give space to a separate forestry display, it is believed that Oregon can attract much attention in this novel and striking manner to one of its chief industries. This log house will be characteristic and a truly magnificent structure such as could be obtained with no other native material.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, Sept. 16.—Died, September 15, at the home of his parents near Bairdsdale station, Morris Harvey, age 17 years. He was born in Denver, Colorado, and the family have resided here for the past year. He leaves to mourn his loss his father and mother, A. L. Harvey and wife, two brothers and one sister and his aged grandparents, A. J. Angell and wife. Interment will take place at the Douglass cemetery on Wednesday afternoon.

J. Downs and sister, Mrs. Bradley, of New York City, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Cathrine Kelley.

Mrs. John Moeller and children have returned home after spending several days with Mrs. Robert Robertson at Camas, Wash.

Mrs. J. P. Province and son have gone to Hood River to visit her parents.

Edwin and George Burlingame have gone up near Bend, Ore., to visit their sister, Mrs. E. T. Green.

A. C. Simon, of White Salmon, Wash., is spending several days with his wife here.

E. G. Jones and family and Chas. Camp have returned from the Pendleton round-up.

Lewis Burlingame and Amos Osterlander, of The Dalles, are the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Ira Brooks.

Oregon to Have Exhibit.

Oregon will be represented at the Chicago Land show which will be held in that city this year from November 320 to December 8, with a complete exhibit displaying all of the industries and agricultural resources of Oregon. Arrangements have been made for a space of 400 square feet for a booth with lecture privileges, where lectures will be given daily. The exhibit will be in charge of the State Immigration agent. The work of gathering exhibits to send to the land show is already under way, and communities desiring to exhibit their products are urged to communicate with the State Immigration agent at once, in order that arrangements can be made to assemble the display in advance of the opening of the show. That this will be a great advertising medium for such communities, is evident through the number of inquiries that have been received from land show exhibits as have been exhibited before. Such products as grains, grasses and diversified crops always prove to be an attraction at such shows.

"Farmer" was given in answer to the question of her occupation, when registering as a voter, by Miss Helen Crawford, recently instructor at Oregon Agricultural College. And farmer she has unquestionably proved herself to be by leading her section of the state in the production of peaches on a commercial scale. Her success demonstrates the efficiency of scientific agriculture directed by a capable woman.

Additional Gresham Locals

Miss Minnie Shriner has returned to her work in the telephone exchange after a vacation spent at her home near Pleasant Home.

Henry Gilmore, of Portland, and Mrs. Emma Shultz of Gresham were married in Vancouver, Wash., last Friday, Sept. 12. They will make their home in Gresham. The bride is a well known resident and property owner here, and the Outlook joins with her many friends in best wishes.

The Gresham library is keeping open house this week. It is not making any exhibit at the fair, as the new building is an exhibit of itself and all are invited to call for an inspection.

Mrs. A. H. Shumate, who lives on south Roberts avenue, has some lens that appreciate her faithful care and show the fact by laying not only many ordinary sized eggs but some whoppers. The contest is still on. The latest record is an egg that measures 7x8¼ inches, and was laid Sunday. She is saving them up and will soon have a nest full.

Not By My Vote!

Men will have strong drink, and men will sell liquor, but—not by MY Vote!

Saloons may go on like the brook, forever, and men may die by the thousand in them, but—not by MY Vote!

Truth may be wrecked and character dismantled, homes may be destroyed and women and children beggared, but—not by MY Vote!

Children may be caught in the saloon snare, the victims of alcohol fill our jails, alms-houses and insane asylums, but—not by MY Vote!

The saloon may impoverish and degrade the people; produce idleness, disease and pauperism. It may breed anarchy and crime, but—not by MY Vote!

The government may license the drink traffic and for a consideration take "a reward against the innocent" and bargain away the public health and the public morals, but—not by MY Vote!

The liquor traffic may corrupt the social and political life of the nation; it may worm its way into all business and even into the sacred precincts of the home and the church, but—not by MY Vote!

The bells may toll the death knell of a human slain by Rum every five minutes of the day, but—not by MY Vote!—The Union Signal.

Caught a Bad Cold.

"Last winter my son caught a very bad cold and the way he coughed was something dreadful," writes Mrs. Sarah E. Duncan, of Tipton, Iowa. "We thought sure he was going into consumption. We bought just one bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and that one bottle stopped his cough and cured his cold completely." For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

The Best Light

AT THE LOWEST COST

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications, therefore, it is not surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
