Russellville

Russellville grange held its regular meeting Saturday the 13th. Not much business was transacted except that pertaining to the fair. No one seemed sanguine of getting first prize, but everyone was indeed earnest to try to get it.

Dee Lewis is subbing for John Jensma on the rural delivery route during Jensma's vacation.

Jimmie Rosenberg, Dee Speere and Dubby Speere have returned using causes; third—Remedial measles from the hop yards where they had

Mrs. Slim Cogan, of Hillsboro, is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Pollock. Her baby is growing very fast and the grandparents are very proud of it.

One hundred cords of wood for the Morning Side hospital are being side tracked, two cars at a time on the Russellville spur and Charley Wicklander is hauling it to the hospital.

Al Smith, formerly engineer for Lipman, Wolf & Co., who has been laid up for some time with stomach trouble is slowly recovering. It takes three men to do the work he used to do alone.

School opened the 15th, but quite a number of children, principally from Ventura Park, are still in the hop yards up the valley. Hop picking will soon be over and then the school will be larger.

A visit was made about two weeks ago by the entire membership of the Portland Floral society to the gladiola farm of W. L. Crissey, on the Mount Hood road. The purpose of the members is to visit every nursery and prominent farm in the vicinity of Portland to develop closer personal acquaintances and to become more familiar with the nursery and floral developments of this district.

Mother of Eighteen Children.

"I am the mother of eighteen children and have the praise of doing more work than any young woman I town," writes Mrs. C. J. Martin, Boone Mill, Va. "I suffered for five years with stomach trouble and could not eat as much as a biscuit without suffering. I have taken three bottles of Chamberlain's Tablets and am now a well woman and weigh 168 pounds. I can eat anything I want to, and as much as I want and feel better than I have at any time in ten years. I refer to any one in Boone Mill or vicinity and they will vouch for what I say." Chamberlain's Tablets are for sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

The Victory school began a week ago with Miss Smith as teacher.

Grant Sloop attended our church service Sunday afternoon.

Captain Branson and wife spent Sunday and Monday with Rev. J. J. Patton in St. Johns and E. B. Holcomb in Portland. The latter is an uncle of Mrs. Branson. Rev. Patton has been assigned to Fairbanks, Alaska, for the coming three years.

Many loads of pears are going to waste in the orchards.

The first race today at the fair grounds—the 2:30 trot—resulted as follows: Sargo, first; Katie Guy, second; Herosa, third; Going Some, fourth. Time, 2:25. Sargo won in three straight heats. Tom Howitt, owner.

MRS. WM. KAPUS DIES UNDER AUTO

By the overturning of an automobile on a steep mountain road in the eastern part of Multnomah county, Mrs. William M. Kapus, wife of a Portland business man and prominent in social and church circles, was killed instantly Sunday. Three others in the car escaped with minor injuries.

The accident occurred at the only point within many rods where an inevitable plunge of 1000 feet into the bed of the Sandy river would not have resulted. It happened that the only tree of any size within sight was in the path of the toppling automobile and brought it to a stop before it had plunged more than 20 feet.

The road leaving Corbett climbs a long, steep grade, gradually attaining a high elevation above the Sandy river. The trail is just wide enough for an automobile, and in places its outer edge is made ground. Striking one of these spots, the automobile suddenly lurched over the side and it was impossible to regain the solid ground.

Mrs. Kapus was on the upper side, but the vehicle toppled upside down and she was thrown under the car.

Mrs. Kellogg and Mr. Menefee, who were in the car, escaped with a severe shaking up and a few bruises, but Mrs. Crane, another occupant, was pinned under the car, almost suffocated. Her most serious injury was a badly strained arm.

Mrs. Kapus' head was crushed and one leg and both arms were fractured. Death was immediate.

CONRAD FAMILY IOWA REUNION

A. B. Conrad has furnished the Outlook with a copy of the Wayland, Iowa, News, containing an account of the reunion of the Conrad descendants. It was held August 28. There were just 400 people sat down to dinner, but twenty or more came after dinner so that the total number present was about 420. It was a regular old fashioned German picnic dinner.

Of the entire number present eight were from Ohio, four from Nebraska and four from Kansas, the remainder from Wayland and vicinity. Mr. Conrad of Gresham was unable to attend this year but hopes to be there at the next reunion.

After the program it was decided to organize as the Iowa branch of the great Conrad reunion and the following were elected officers:

President, F. J. Conrad, Wayland; vice president, F. G. Rich, Noble; Secretary, Miss Verna Miller, Olds; corresponding secretary, Miss Mamie Conrad, Noble; Chorister, John H. Wittrig, Noble; historian, Jake Roth, Wayland; treasurer, Peter Schantz, Noble.

It was decided that future reunions be held on the last Tuesday of August each year and the following executive committee were appointed: J. K. Leichty, E. J. Eicher and Jacob Eicher. A committee on resolutions was also appointed consisting of David Meyer, Mrs. Noah Leichty, Mrs. C. K. Schantz.

This organization is merely the Iowa branch of this family and in no way interferes with the Ohio reunion.

Pleasant Home

Mrs. M. D. Williams left for California on the 13th.

Mrs. Quay of St. Johns was the guest of her son Alfred several days last week.

Miss Laura Shipley and Miss M. Brower took tea with Mrs. W. E. Markell Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Newland spent the evening with Mrs. Cannon, the 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for their claim at Redmond, Oregon, to be absent about two weeks. Millard is housekeeping while they are away.

Mr. and Mrs. Spears, of Cottrell, were the guests of Grandpa Kennedy on Sunday.

A large excursion was here on Sunday. The visitors were greatly impressed with the fertile soil and fine appearance of the crops. It is reported that many lots changed hands.

F. Pick, who owns 40 acres south of the church, has contracted with a man from Portland to clear half of it at $100 an acre. A crew of men and teams will begin the work at once and will have the ground ready for crops in two months.

Mrs. McKenney of Cottage Grove, is a visitor at the home of her son Frank McKenney.

Mr. Newland has moved to his new house near the depot where he owns two acres of fine garden land.

The Juvenile fair was a great success in every way.
