

GRESHAM AND VICINITY

One of the big shade trees north of Shattuck's store was blown down last night. The trunk was broken off about five feet above the ground, the tree falling into the street.

J. G. Thomas was brought here yesterday from Sacramento by his brother Ezra in a somewhat precarious condition as the result of a severe illness. He is resting comfortably and will probably regain his accustomed health in a short time.

Joe Ross and Ernest Thom returned this morning from a trip to Alaska. They had been gone about two months on a hunting and pleasure trip.

K. Yido, a Japanese, was arrested and taken before Justice Rollins for killing Chinese pheasants before the season opened. Two birds were found in his house on Tuesday last. He was fined $25.

Mrs. Lillian Pullen and family have moved from Montavilla to Gresham and now occupying one of the houses of Mrs. Pullen's father A. H. Gould in Thompson's addition.

Rev. and Mrs. Young, of Port Orford, Ore., are the guests this week of Mrs. Ella Aton.

Mrs. Carl Norris and young son, of Pendleton, are guests of Mrs. Norris' aunt, Mrs. M. D. Kern.

Fred Stroupe, who has spent most of the summer here with his aunt, Mrs. B. W. Emery, has gone to Astoria where he is now employed in a large sawmill.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Gilliland, of Portland, were Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Thorpe.

The Gresham girls' hose team has announced a dance at the Commercial club hall for Saturday evening, October 18.

A regular meeting of the board of directors of the Multnomah county fair association will be held tomorrow at which time it is expected that nearly all the business of the last fair will be cleaned up and some idea given of how it came out financially.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kenney returned Saturday from Seaside where they have spent the past month. They report one of the pleasantest outings ever enjoyed at the beach. Fish, clams and crabs were had in abundance.

Miss Madeline McDonald was a Sunday visitor at the home of Hester Thorpe. The McDonald family lived at Terry two years ago, moving from there to California. Later they came back to Oregon where Mr. McDonald was engaged as superintendent of the Bonaday stock farm near Roseburg. After a week at the Salem fair they came to Portland for a short stay but expect to return to California before winter.

J. T. Stillions and family, of Eureka Springs, Ark., arrived Tuesday and will stay for the winter with his daughter Mrs. E. A. Easley and family. Mr. Stillions is a brother of our fellow townsman J. T. Stillions.

The Ladies' Aid will hold a bake sale at the Novelty store, next Saturday afternoon, October 11. All members are requested to donate home cooking for the sale.

The W. C. T. U. will meet in the committee room of the library on Thursday at 2:30 p. m. The topic is the Art of Home Making, led by Mrs. S. S. Thompson. All ladies are cordially invited.

F. L. Everson, our genial city attorney, was here calling on old neighbors and friends Saturday. He is now associated with former city attorney Grant in his Portland office in the Broadway building.

Foster Cooley and wife started today for South Bend, Wash., where Mr. Cooley will start a five and ten cent store. We are sorry to say good bye to them, but hope they will return some day to their home here.

An unfortunate error in the last Outlook transposed the descriptions of one-piece dresses and men's raincoats in Bert Lindsey's advertisement. The prices as announced were right, however. Today's announcement reads better. Look it up for bargains in those two useful articles of apparel.

Have your switches made of your own hair. Miss Ava Thompson will do it for you, also your hair dressing, facial scalp treatments and manicuring. Gresham phone 61.

Some women worry about worries they might have had but didn't. The umbrella has its ups and downs, but its never kicks.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, Oct. 6.—There was a man killed, about a mile east of here, near Arata crossing on Sunday morning by an east bound train on the O.-W. R. & N. A letter found in his pocket showed his name to be Robert Jacobs. The coroner was called and his remains were taken to Portland. How the accident happened has not been determined yet as it was still morning and the man, who from indications was a hobo, was coming west and there was nothing to obstruct the view of the train. R. Hunter and C. Shepard, who were at the T. R. Howitt ranch were among the first to reach the scene of the accident, but from all indications he was killed instantly.

Rev. Williams, superintendent of the Presbyterian Sunday school for Oregon, Washington and Idaho spoke at the Presbyterian church on Sunday morning which was observed as rally day. The work of standardizing the Sunday school here has been begun and the cradle roll which is one of the points was unveiled with an enrollment of twenty babies all under three years of age. In the afternoon there was a meeting for the teachers when he delivered some very interesting suggestions.

Mrs. Eliza Stone entertained at dinner on Sunday, her guests being Mr. and Mrs. George Zimmerman, Mrs. Edith Menefee, Misses Olive, Mabel and Isabelle Zimmerman and Orin Beaty, of Moro, Oregon, who is the guest of Cedric Stone.

Mrs. Fanny Cree, of Salem, is spending a few days with her son, C. E. Cree and family before leaving for Pendleton to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Bartholomew.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bramhall, of Pleasant Home have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Davis.

There will be an all day meeting of the Aid society at the home of Mrs. J. N. Farris on next Wednesday.

On Sunday there were six large trucks sent out by the Meyer & Frank company to J. W. Townsend's farm where they were filled with 75 squashes, 75 pumpkins and 500 stalks of corn and some asparagus which they will use for decorating the first three floors of their large store. They also gathered one truck load of autumn leaves.

George Sleret is building another large silo for J. W. Townsend.

Melrose

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Conrad have had as guests this week Mr. and Mrs. Sutter, of Salem, Mr. Beer, of Sellwood and Miss Beer of Vancouver.

A party of surveyors was seen in this vicinity the first of the week, but the object of their visit is unknown.

Mr. Crozier, of Portland, visited Rev. Thos. Wiles and family one day last week.

Our school is progressing nicely.

Rev. L. F. Smith, our new pastor, preached a good sermon at 3 o'clock Sunday.

Pheasant and salmon are gracing our tables now.

Potatoes are not yielding as well as desired.

Did you notice thirty-four prizes were taken by Melrose at the fair at Gresham?

The young men have organized an athletic club called the Beaver Athletic club. Much interest is being taken.

Chas. Tallman brought over some more nice stock from his Clackamas county ranch.

Ralph Howe, of Portland, called at the home of Rev. Thos. Wiles recently.

FOR THAT Stubborn Cold Use
Rexall Cold Tablets
We recommend these tablets in the treatment of Coryza, Hay Fever, Rose Cold and Rhinitis, which are all practically due to the same general cause—germ irritation, leading to intense inflammation of the lining of nasal cavities.
In treating a cold which has, as is generally termed, "settled on the lungs," Rexall Cold tablets are advisable as an emergency remedy until competent advice may be obtained.
