Kelso

Talking about fairs it would be interesting for each school to have its exhibits in separate booths. Each school could then see what the others were doing and be stimulated to greater endeavor and a higher standard of excellence.

School is progressing nicely. The enrollment at the end of the first month numbers 55. Some very nice looking and much needed bookshelves have been added in each room. With the improvements that are being made from time to time our school is steadily forging ahead to the front ranks. Watch Kelso climb.

Don't forget that the Neighborhood club meets Saturday evening, October 11, at 8 o'clock, in the schoolhouse. All are wanted to attend whether belonging to the club or not. Current events will be discussed and a literary program will be rendered. Some other very interesting and important matters will be brought up at this meeting.

Chas. L. Hunter recently purchased twelve head of Jersey cows from E. H. Bauer. This herd formerly belonged to B. C. Altman and is of the best breeding. Mr. Hunter will build a modern dairy barn and join the Jersey ranks in earnest.

Master Harry Hagan and sister, Miss Thelma of Bull Run visited their grandmother, Mrs. Bacon, on Sunday.

The Lusted school was closed this week, Thursday and Friday, owing to the illness of the teacher Miss Robertson. She has tonsillitis. She expects to be on duty Monday.

Chronic Dyspepsia.
The following unsolicited testimonial should certainly be sufficient to give hope and courage to persons afflicted with chronic dyspepsia: "I have been a chronic dyspeptic for years, and of all medicine I have taken, Chamberlain's Tablets have done me more good than anything else," says W. G. Mattison, No. 7, Sherman street, Hornellsville, N. Y. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.

An ad. in the local newspaper is a good investment that all merchants can afford to make.

Fairview

"Jupe Pluvius" reminds some of us that our winter's wood pile is conspicuous for its absence.

Don't forget to speak a good word for the great interstate-bridge that means so much for the whole northwest country.

A Marvelous Escape.
"My little boy had a marvelous escape," writes P. F. Bastians of Prince Albert, Cape of Good Hope. "It occurred in the middle of the night. He got a very severe attack of croup. As luck would have it, I had a large bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house. After following the directions for an hour and twenty minutes he was through all danger." Sold by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

The Outlook has on hand a large quantity of school report cards on good quality of Bristol, also printed envelopes; samples free, to any school clerk or teacher. Price 2 1/2c each; over 100, 2c each. Postage additional, 5c for 25 cards.

Avoid Sedative Cough Medicines.
If you want to contribute directly to the occurrence of capillary bronchitis and pneumonia use cough medicines that contain codeine, morphine, heroin and other sedatives when you have a cough or cold. An expectorant like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is what is needed. That cleans out the culture beds or breeding places for the germs of pneumonia and other germ diseases. That is why pneumonia never results from a cold when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used. It has a world wide reputation for its cures. It contains no morphine or other sedatives. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

The Best Light

AT THE LOWEST COST

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications, therefore, it is not surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
