IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Every store building in Gresham but one is now occupied, not including the new Jacobson brick which is not yet finished, and it is not known that there is a vacant dwelling house in town.

W. R. Gould used up several days of valuable time and some lumber and nails in the job of wainscoting the front parlor of the Sanitary market. Made it look sort of home like.

L. C. Dooley has rented the place for several years past known as the Gresham Grill, and is about to open a pool and billiard parlor. His goods are here now and will be installed this week. Mr. Dooley is somewhat known in Gresham, having been one of the construction foremen of the Mount Hood road two years ago. He will live on Powell street opposite Kera's lumber yard.

The upper story of the old Regner building on Powell street has been rented by the Gresham Girls' Hose Team and is being fitted up as a gymnasium. Basket ball will be their principal amusement, but several other appliances known to girls' athletics will be installed. It is to be used by the hose team girls exclusively, but other girls may be admitted upon payment of a small fee.

Don't miss hearing Captain Chas. H. Stanley Thursday and Friday evenings.
