"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.

Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

A vote for the interstate bridge at Vancouver will help to make Eastern Multnomah prosperous.

Opposition to the working men's compensation law comes from the shyster lawyers and the ambulance chasers. If you believe that vote "yes."

Multnomah county has a district attorney all her own. Why shouldn't the other counties be allowed the same privilege? Vote "yes" and give them one.

Hood River county has 175 swine, 108 dogs and only 58 sheep and goats combined. But then Hood River county doesn't know anything but strawberries and apples.

The thoughtful person will not need urging to vote for the University appropriation. But it may be necessary to remind a few that the proper place for the X is in the "yes" blank.

The Eugene cannery has received an order from Chicago for three carloads of canned beans, which is very proper, as beans and culture naturally should go together. It's that way in Boston.

Oregon furnished 111 couples for the matrimonial knot at Vancouver during October. Complaint was made that the business was small and there are great hopes of a revival during November and December.

Gresham will be "dry" for twelve hours during election. The state law regulates that matter and there will be closed bars from 8 in the morning until 8 in the evening. The same condition will prevail in every wet town in the state.

The new election law keeps the polls open until 8 o'clock in the evening. It will not only give the voters an extra chance who have to work all day but will furnish many men an excuse to stay out late to see how the count is going.

Friday's issue of the Outlook, with its somewhat exhaustive review of the prohibition movement in Gresham, was so keenly appreciated by a large number of subscribers that it has received numerous words of praise and congratulation. Realizing that the paper might do more good before the election than it has already done it has been decided to get this issue out a few hours earlier than usual which will account for its delivery in the city of Gresham on Tuesday.

Oregon Wins Honors at Eastern Shows.

Oregon leads the world in dry farming products. One man, Tillman Reuter, of Madras, with an exhibit the staging of which cost but $750, went to the Dry Farming Congress at Tulsa, Oklahoma, and absolutely on the quality of the grains, grasses, vegetables and fruits produced by dry farming methods in Oregon, he won the grand sweepstakes prize over Canada's $50,000 exhibit, over South America, Australia and every other state in the Union. The Great Northern and Northern Pacific railways each contributed $250 towards the expenses of the exhibit.

At the Chicago National Dairy Show a yearling Jersey heifer, exhibited by Darrow Stump, 12-year-old son of J. B. Stump, of Monmouth, Oregon, carried off the sweepstakes prize over cattle from all parts of the United States. Oregon is going into the great Land show to be held in Chicago the latter part of this month and it is fully expected that her exhibit, which is probably the best ever assembled by the state, will land the third prize of the series.

Professor Lewis Will Remain in Oregon School.

The fruit men of Oregon, as well as students and faculties in the Oregon Agricultural College, will be greatly pleased to learn that Professor Claude I. Lewis will retain his present position as head of the Horticultural department, notwithstanding the fact that, the Pennsylvania College offered a higher salary than this institution can afford to pay. The offer of the Eastern institution was so attractive that Professor Lewis made a journey to Pennsylvania to investigate it and was strongly impressed with the many opportunities the position holds; but he considers the Oregon position the better.

Among the causes which prompted him to make the decision in favor of the Oregon College is his faith in the possibilities of the fruit industry of the West. Mighty efforts are now being put forth in the older portions of the United States to bring the fruit growing industry up to the high standard already reached on the Pacific coast. While it is true that some of these attempts are sure to succeed, success will come only after many years of trial. The industry in Oregon is already established, and a view to put it on a still higher plane, not to prove it a success.

Another factor in his decision to stay in Oregon is the interest taken in his case by President W. J. Kerr, who used all the powers at his command to induce him to retain his position. In this effort Mr. Kerr received the undivided co-operation of all the faculties and students. The determination to keep him was likewise backed by fruit growers throughout the state who were unwilling to lose the benefit of his services.

SANDY APPROPRIATES ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS

The Sandy Commercial club decided at its meeting Thursday night to give $1000 toward the improvement of the road along the bluff from Sandy to Pleasant Home, a distance of seven miles. E. H. Wemme, of Portland, sent the club a written offer to give $1000 toward the improvement of the road. It is proposed to macadamize it. A special tax will be levied in the district, which will realize about $2000. After that the county will be asked to provide funds sufficient to complete the road. Robert Jonsrud, of Kelso, offered to furnish rock for the road. W. A. Proctor, P. R. Meinig and Charles Hunter were appointed to confer with Mr. Wemme about the improvement of the road.

SUPREME COURT ON DELINQUENTS

The following is a synopsis of the U. S. supreme court decision regarding delinquent subscriptions and is published as a matter of information to newspapers:

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscription.
2. Subscribers ordering the discontinuance of their periodical the publisher may continue to send it until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodical from the post-office, they are responsible until they settle their bill and order their paper discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publisher and any papers are sent to the former address, subscribers are responsible.
5. Courts have decided that refusing periodicals from the office or moving and leaving the uncollected for is prima facie evidence of intention to defraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of time if they do not want to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice with payment is sent to the publisher.

LOST VALUABLES AND TRUNK FOUND

A large trunk, containing twenty pieces of quadruple silver plate, a number of rings, a large gold nugget and some table linen, lost overboard from the steamer La Center when it was rammed by the tow-boat Shaver last Friday, was turned over Saturday by Chief of Police Allen, of Saint Johns, to Ed. Villa, of Gresham, who identified the property. It had been brought to Saint Johns by launch after the local police had been notified of its being there by David and Reynold Gustafsen, of 27 West Sumner street, Portland.

The only clue to the ownership of the trunk had been the name, on a pasteboard box inside, of "Mrs. Villa, La Center, Wash." That person, Mrs. Ed. Villa, is dead, but Captain Moe of La Center, informed Chief Allen that the trunk belonged to Ed. Villa of Gresham. He was notified by means of communicating with his sister-in-law, Mrs. Erik J. Villa, 828 Longview avenue, Portland.

The remainder of Villa's property was sent to the Washington street dock, Portland, on another boat and was recovered by him yesterday.

Co-operation of country producers and city consumers, to the advantage of both, will be worked out ere long.

SLUMBER PARTY AT HOME OF H. E. DAVIS.

A slumber party, something unique in Hallowe'en gatherings, was given by Miss Laura Davis at her home on Friday night. The girl guests were invited, and to appease the vengeance of the sprites they were let into the house through the basement. Here the first surprise met them as festoons of asparagus lashed them in the face as they threaded their way through a maze of cordage stretched over the floor room post to post. All was total darkness save for the splutterings of two sticks of arc light carbon which a concealed "spirit" set off on proper occasions.

Refreshments were served at 10 o'clock after a hobgoblin seance and then the girls were surprised by a squad of boys. From then on they enjoyed their sports together. The girls present were Laura Davis, Echo Jones, Mabel and Laura Shipley, Margaret and Gladys Michel, Katherine Honey, Viola Dinger, Anna Brugger and Ava Thompson.

The boys were Frank Hamlin, Frank Rogers, Guy Jones, Kirk Thompson, Chase St. Clair, Leslie St. Clair, Frederick and John Honey.

Then the "slumber" part came. The girls stayed all night.
