Columbia Heights

By this time potato digging is almost finished, and we notice a fairly good crop everywhere. Several cars left the track this week for San Francisco at one cent a pound. However most of the ranchers are keeping their potatoes until next spring, as they anticipate a better price. The cabbage is nearly all cut by now and went as high as $20 a ton, most of it went south.

Mrs. Henderson, the hostess at Chantecleer, is at present in Portland, where she is taking a rest, after a very strenuous summer. Chantecleer is shut up for the winter.

Mrs. F. Knieriem entertained the Ladies' Aid on Thursday. The day was beautiful and the ladies came in a goodly number. The next meeting at the Heights will be on Thursday after Thanksgiving at Columbia View farm, when arrangements for our bazaar will be made. Everybody is invited to come and will be made welcome.

Mrs. J. T. Rea made a short trip to The Dalles last week.

The bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. C. Illidge is almost finished and is a very cozy and modern structure.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson spent a few days at McMinnville, where they went to locate a new home.

W. Deaver, who is a mail clerk on the Portland and Ashland route, spent a couple of days at his home here last week.

Mrs. A. Tricky has as her guest, Mrs. Howard and two little children who are from Iowa, to spend the winter.

David Benfield was in the metropolis on business a couple of days last week.

Mr. Willes, the depot agent at Corbett, has been quite sick for some time, and had to submit to an operation for appendicitis. We are glad to hear he is improving.

The Outlook has on hand a large quantity of school report cards on good quality of bristol, also printed envelopes; samples free, to any school clerk or teacher. Price 2½c each; over 100, 2c each. Postage additional, 5c for 25 cards.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, Nov. 17—The old time concert given by the Ladies' Aid society on Friday evening was well attended and the audience seemed to thoroughly enjoy hearing the old songs and viewing the styles that were worn fifty years ago. Two of the most interesting features of the evening were a recitation by Mrs. M. B. Spears, of Oregon City, who is 80 years of age, and a Swiss yodle song by Miss Lillie and Master Jack Luscher. The proceeds of the evening amounted to about $30.

Mrs. John Heslin entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of her son Claude's twelfth birthday. The afternoon was passed in games after which refreshments were served, the hostess being assisted by Mrs. Lee Evans and Mrs. C. E. Cree. Those present were Opal and Fay Davis, Annabelle Cowles, Esther Shaw, Ada Cree, Cecelia McMain, Lucile Hurst, Lois and Collin Cree, Errol Ide, Ernest Albrecht, Edward Heslin, Converce, Clifford and Glenn Burlingame, Myrl Hurst and Arthur Harvey.

Mrs. E. E. Heslin was tendered a surprise on Saturday evening in honor of her birthday. The evening was passed in music and games after which refreshments were served. Those present besides Mr. and Mrs. Heslin and family were, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Province, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Burlingame, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Dunbar, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hurst, Mrs. J. W. Benecke, Mrs. A. C. Simons, Misses Louise Loser, Dorothy Benecke, and Edna, Converce, Clifford and Glenn Burlingame, William Benecke and Harold Province.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Heitsman who for the past six months have been conducting the White Corner hotel, left Friday for Tillamook, Oregon, where they will go into the hotel business.

Lee Shaw, of Endicott, Wash., has been the guest of his brothers, Grant and George Shaw and families.

Mrs. C. E. Cree will entertain the Ladies' Aid society on Thursday afternoon.

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

The Best Light

AT THE LOWEST COST

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications, therefore, it is surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
