"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon. Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

COMPLIMENTS APPRECIATED

The Outlook appreciates appreciation and is vain enough to enjoy compliments from any source. Most especially does it appreciate the fact that by some of the big dailies its local news columns are considered the best of any paper in the state of Oregon.

Which, we would rise to remark, is the compliment the Outlook receives from the Portland Journal. It is a compliment that didn't come by wireless or by wire; nor by grapevine route. It comes from the printed page—in fact several of them—about twice each week.

Those who read both papers, of course know that the Outlook prints all the local news first, the Journal afterward. We cannot do the Alphonse and Gaston stunt by giving the Journal first service, and after we have given the news publicity it is public property. To the fact that it is public property after the Outlook is in the mail is due the other fact that the Journal copies everything with a Gresham date-line, which makes the Journal look like our second edition.

We are highly pleased to have the Journal find the Outlook such a magnificent source of news wealth, but if it really wants to please us better it might condescend to give the Outlook credit occasionally for something it seems to appreciate so highly.

They have been trying to capture Ralph Lopez, the Colorado murderer by filling a mine with smoke. On the theory, probably, that smoked meat keeps the best.

Governor West and Governor Lister will meet at Tacoma on the 15th. Wonder what the governor of Washington will say to the governor of Oregon?

F. M. Ghormley, who found a want ad. wife at Spokane, is suing for a divorce from his present wife so that he can marry the other. Wise guy, to provide for the future before time of need.

Assessor Reed finds the value of Multnomah county property to be $341,573,119.76. That amount is over six millions gain since last year's tax levy was made.

An ad. in the local newspaper is a good investment that all merchants can afford to make.

We advised early shopping several times but we take it all back. Do it when you get ready.

Lydia Bramhall visited with friends at Gresham Monday and Tuesday of last week.

Columbia Heights

This locality was all excitement Wednesday of last week when the news spread of a murdered man who was found in an empty house near the wood camp on the Corbett estate. The sheriff and coroner were notified and came out immediately. But it was found the man had killed himself. He had been drinking lately, and acted very queer. The dead man was a native of Norway, and single.

James Luau, the old Kanaky, who has made his home here on the old Painter's place, was well remembered at Thanksgiving. A few of the Heights ladies sent him a substantial dinner basket. There is joy in giving and making others happy.

The Ladies Aid is hard at work getting things in shape for the first bazaar, December 13. Many useful and hand made articles suitable for Christmas presents, will be on sale. A good program will be the feature of the evening. Mrs. C. Hildge will have charge of the candy and popcorn booth.

Ruby Rasmussen, who is a student at Monmouth, came home to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen.

A number of people at Hurlburt have been ill with chicken pox. However, no fear is entertained of an epidemic.

F. Shoults and two sons, Rodney and Larkin, took dinner Thursday at Grandma Russell's at Troutdale.

A few friends were entertained at Columbia View farm Thursday evening. Five hundred and whist made the time pass quickly.

Miss Mary Oaks spent the week at home here on the Heights with her folks. She is attending school in the metropolis.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard have once more opened their home and hearth for one poor homeless and friendless lad. The words of the Lord "What ye do unto one of these, ye have also done unto me," have been manifested by the kind acts of Mr. and Mrs. Howard several times. They will surely receive their reward.

The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday at Mrs. P. Anderson's. Everybody is invited. Come and bring your friends.

Woods' Orchestral Trio composed of violin, cello and piano rendered a program of monologues, vocal and instrumental music, which proved a rare treat to the large audience which had come from far and near, to hear these talented young women Music from the old classics as well as from the brightest popular music of the day proved a delight to the music loving people of Sandy. In addition to all the variety which came through the readings, songs, violin and piano solos, the cello solos proved a delightful and novel feature of the evening. The strength of this company lies in its trio work which runs the gamut of musical composition, pleasing all from critic to the novice. Every one of the ladies proved an artist and for two hours there was good solid enjoyment and pleasure.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. California Woman Seriously Alarmed

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal.
