SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for the County of Multnomah.
Ida A. Stewart, Plaintiff, vs. Aaron A. Stewart, Defendant.
To Aaron A. Stewart, the above named defendant.
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit and court on or before December 12th, 1913, that being the date fixed by the court for you to appear and answer herein and being six weeks from the date of the first publication of the summons, and if you fail to answer within such time, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint; for a decree of this court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant; leave to the plaintiff to resume her name of Ida A. Hunter, on the grounds of gross habitual drunkenness, cruel and inhuman treatment and desertion, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem just and equitable in the premises.
This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Honorable T. J. Cleaton, judge of the above entitled court, made on October 29th, 1913, directing that the same be published once a week for six successive weeks in the Gresham Outlook, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published at Gresham, Multnomah county, Oregon.
Date of first publication Oct 31, 1913. Date of last publication Dec. 12, 1913.
