

REMEMBER
SHATTUCK'S
SATURDAY
SPECIALS

Do your shopping Tomorrow and avoid the rush of the day before Christmas.
Come Early! Come Early!
 THE BIG STORE ON MAIN STREET

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Miss C. H. Halle, the librarian here, gave an interesting talk to the student body of the Gresham high school, at assembly, Wednesday morning. She gave a brief history of the founding of libraries, and also explained the system of placing books in a systematic order on the shelves. The talk was greatly enjoyed by all the students.

The Christian Science society will hold services in their hall in the First State bank building, Sunday, at 11 o'clock. Subject, "God the Preserver of Man." The public is cordially invited.

The complaint reaches the Outlook that the new work done on the road south of Hogan and the heavy hauling to the Winch ranch, have served to put the road in almost impassable condition.

Those who held lucky numbers in W. R. Burke's kodak supply contest for purchases during the month of November were, Ralph Stanley, C. J. Lundquist, Robt. Hendricks, Irving Dodge and Mrs. Wm. Ekstrom.

Jas. Goodfellow, of Lents, was in Gresham on business yesterday.

Lee Carmen, an employee of the Outlook nearly three years ago, and since then the foreman of the Bottineau Courant, N. D., is taking a linotype course in Chicago. He left Oregon last March, after working as foreman on other papers here.

Roy Kern and children went to Portland Sunday to visit Mrs. Kern at the hospital. Mrs. Kern is slowly improving and expects to be home in a few days.

James Mathes, the young Scotchman who died Monday at the home of his uncle, W. C. Spence, was buried on Wednesday in the Rose City Park cemetery.

Three Christmas Eve dances—Gresham, Fairview and Eagle Creek, with other places to hear from. You pay your money and you take your choice.

Gresham Lodge A. F. & A. M., elected officers on Tuesday evening as follows: W. M., O. A. Eastman; senior warden, Maxwell Schneider; junior warden, L. L. Kidder; treasurer, James Elkington; secretary, H. J. Pulfer. The appointive officers will be named at the January meeting.

The junior class of the Gresham high have selected Friday evening, December 19, as the date for the presentation of "The Junior." The school orchestra will furnish music.

Master Harry Squires was very ill with bronchial pneumonia last week. He was improving rapidly at last reports.

Music for the "The Junior," a play to be staged by the junior class, will be furnished by the high school orchestra. The play will be given at the picture theater on the evening of the 19th.

Miss Rose Elwood of Portland, will be an over-night visitor with Miss Hester Thorpe, returning home tomorrow.

O. R. Kelly and family have moved out near Pleasant Home where he is engaged in clearing land for Ed. Williams.

The services at the Free Methodist church next Sunday will be at the usual hours. Sunday school will be at 10 and morning preaching at 11 o'clock, and evening preaching at 7:30. The pastor, Rev. Edwin W. Hight, extends a cordial invitation to all.

Professor C. E. Rice, of the Gresham High school has been obliged to relinquish his duties temporarily on account of illness. His place is being filled by Mrs. James Elkington. Mr. Rice will probably take a vacation until after the holidays.

Rev. S. F. Pitts and wife, who have been engaged in revival work in Eastern Oregon, returned home early this week, and report a good meeting. They were away nearly three weeks.

D. B. Welty's new house in Walula Heights addition is being painted by Thomas Bros.

Lents grange will meet in an all-day session tomorrow commencing at 10:30. A good program has been prepared and election of officers for the ensuing year will be held.

Frank Metzger expects to move his family into Lewis Metzger's house in the near future. Mr. Metzger has been farming Mrs. Wilson's farm at Damascus.

AUCTION SALE

J. B. Mitchell will hold an auction sale at his place three-quarters of a mile south of Gresham, on Tuesday, December 18. The list includes 4 horses, 5 cows, 2 wagons, 2 sets of harness, 2 mowers, 1 hay rake, 3 plows, 1 disk, 3 cultivators, 1 feed cutter, 1 cream separator, 1 milk cooler, 7 milk cans, 1 hay fork and track, 1 1/2 acre kale, 1 range and other household goods. Sale will take place rain or shine with a lunch at noon. W. E. Craswell will be auctioneer.

METZGER BROS.

Special Clean-up Sale

HUNT'S CANNED FRUITS

PEACHES, per can 12 1/2c; doz. $1.35
 APRICOTS, per can 12 1/2c; doz. $1.35
 PEARS, per can 12 1/2c; doz. $1.35
 STRAWBERRYS, 10c; doz. $1.10

NEW LINE OF GRANITE WARE JUST UNPACKED
 BLUE, WHITE and GREY WARE
 Special Sale Price

Prompt Delivery PHONE 661 Powell St.

COMING!
 Saturday - Sunday
 5 People
 Special Scenery

SATURDAY
WESTERN JUSTICE
 A Western Comedy-Drama
 Three Reels Pictures
 Two Acts of Vaudeville

SUNDAY
Retribution
 A Dramatic Production that as yet has never been out done in this town with a plot similar to the famous "Paid in Full."

Pictures start at 7:30
 Play starts at 8:30
 ADMISSION 10c and 15c

Anderson

M. H. Wheeler, road supervisor, was looking over his roads last week and making repairs in the weak spots with a fresh load of gravel or what was needed to make the roads in good shape for winter.

S. W. Morrison has shipped nearly 1000 cords of wood from this vicinity the past summer and fall, and now has fourteen men cutting for his next summer's shipping.

Olive Fancher is looking after H. A. Gist's place this winter and will do some land clearing at the same time.

H. L. Ball has moved onto his farm here again after an absence of a few months.

Mrs. K. Coss and her son Cecil, visited with her sister and parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Carpenter one day last week at the home of C. M. Lake. They made the trip from Portland in forty minutes in their auto.

Lekberg Bros. are erecting a poultry house for Mr. Hoover, two stories high, 12x48 feet.

Every house and building in this locality is being filled up this winter by wood cutters, some are even living in tents.

EVENING STAR GRANGE ELECTS NEW OFFICERS.

At the recent meeting of Evening Star grange, the election of officers for the next year resulted as follows: Master, J. J. Johnson; overseer, J. G. Kelly; lecturer, S. F. Ball; steward, E. J. Spooner; assistant steward, L. L. Cook; chaplain, Mrs. E. A. Kelly; treasurer, S. C. Smith; secretary, Jennie C. Smith; gate keeper, Mrs. Julia Stevens; Ceres, Mrs. E. A. Niblin; Pomona, Miss Clara Oglive; Flora, Miss Nellie Fancett; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Lela Elliott; Ex. Com., E. N. Emery, S. H. Covell; pianists, Mrs. Ada Kelly, Miss Clara Smith.

A committee was appointed to revise the Juvenile grange and arrange for a matron, etc., to care for the children.

IMPROVEMENT CLUB INDORSES POMONA.

In line with the proposed resolution to be discussed at Pomona grange next Wednesday the Mount Scott Improvement club Tuesday night went on record as being opposed to the present method of fixing the school levy. It was proposed that the club take the lead in a movement to change the system, advocating some plan whereby it could be determined whether persons taking part are legally qualified.

Mrs. S. C. Jones entertained at dinner last Sunday W. G. Cathey, Rev. D. M. and Mrs. Cathey and daughter Mary. The occasion was in honor of the 8th birthday of Master Hallie Jones.

Word has been received from C. W. Albertson, who moved to Idaho about a year ago, that he has sold his interest in the farm which he purchased at that time, and is now running a grocery store in Parma, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Albertson are having a dwelling erected, one feature of which will be a large music room.

Miss Echo Jones has accepted a permanent position with the C. C. Store, which was made vacant by the going away of Miss Hazel Wirtz.

Twelve teams are busy hauling gravel for the road between the Brugger and Annie Hevel places. The work is nearly completed.

Miss Cora Glese and Miss Ethel Calkins were recent guests at the home of Mrs. S. C. Jones.

The old English Christmas entertainment which was planned for the library as announced in the last Outlook, has been given up.

Mrs. I. McCall was exhibiting today a well developed rose of the Tea variety, which she picked from a bush on the northeast corner of her house. Thirty other buds were counted on the same bush, in spite of the wind that had whipped them for a week or more. Many others in and around Gresham have roses in bloom.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johnson and little daughter, of Wasco, Oregon, are spending a week or two visiting with Mrs. Johnson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Matthews and other relatives.

C. E. Rice, who is ill with measles, is being cared for at the home of Mrs. Ella Aton.

Jackson, Guy and Miss Echo Jones were the guests last Sunday of Leslie and Miss Henrietta Wiles.

A benefit entertainment has been announced for Mrs. Kathryn Naugle, to be given at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium in Portland Saturday evening, December 13. The program will consist of musical numbers and readings. Mrs. Naugle's many friends here will be glad to assist in any way possible. She is blind and ill and dependent almost entirely on her three young sons all of them in their teens. Mrs. Naugle's home is at University Park.

Mrs. D. M. Cathey recently had as guests Mrs. Gussie Weaver, of Douglas county and Mrs. Barrett, of Portland.

Mr. Burson, of Damascus, has rented the Archie Cornutt place for the coming year. Mr. Burson's father is with him and a sister keeps house.

Do Your Christmas Shopping in Gresham

You Have No Idea of the Variety of Useful Presents
 You Can Buy at Our Store
Come in, Inspect our Goods, note the Prices and make your selections.

It's Easy to Trade at our Store

Sterling & Kidder
 Main St. HARDWARE Gresham

Speak Quick, They're Going!

With all paid in advance new yearly subscriptions and renewals for the Outlook received up to December 31 next, we will give free a years' subscription to Poultry Life, a monthly 54-page poultry journal, published in Portland, devoted to progressive poultry culture in the Northwest.

We have bought 200 yearly subscriptions to this fine modern poultry magazine and have them to give away to our subscribers. The price of Poultry Life for one year is 50 cents.

Take advantage of this at once. You will be pleased with Poultry Life.

Be Informed
 Why not take a daily paper with the Outlook?
 We are agents for

DAILY OREGONIAN
 DAILY JOURNAL
 EVENING TELEGRAM
 WEEKLY OREGONIAN
 SEMI-WEEKLY JOURNAL

Subscriptions taken for any of these or in combination with Outlook.

Subscribe Today

Mr. and Mrs. William Thom, and little daughter, expect to spend Christmas with relatives in North Dakota.

It is reported that R. A. Weidman of Fairview, who has been in the

CASH RESERVES

in amounts large enough to meet any emergency are always kept in our vault and our assets are convertible with sufficient speed to double our patrons' financial protection in combating any crisis.

Eternal vigilance precludes any save gilt-edged investments of our funds.

We know and feel the responsibilities of the modern banker—we are conscious of our broadening field and alert to the problems ahead of the American bank.

Every transaction is considered from the standpoint of how much aid it will give the customer and how much strength it will add to the bank.

FIRST STATE BANK
 GRESHAM, ORE.
 THE FARMERS' BANK
 Oldest Bank in the county, outside the city of Portland.

Good Samaritan hospital for treatment for some time, is rapidly improving and will be home the latter part of the week.

The latest word concerning the case of the local option case affecting Gresham, was that it would come up in circuit court before Judge Kavanaugh tomorrow morning, at which time the points of law will be argued.

The Queen Esther circle will meet in business and social session tomorrow evening at the home of Miss Echo Jones. Automobiles will convey the crowd to the Jones home. Any young ladies wishing to go may report at the home of Miss Margaret Burke before 7:15.

The chicken pie supper and bazaar last evening were considered a success. The receipts were about seventy dollars.

A warning has been issued to housewives by the department of agriculture at Washington that many of the compounds sold as moth preventives are worthless.

Milk Route for Sale.
 Would like to dispose of my milk route at once. Horses, wagon, bottles and crates for sale.
 PETER NEURURER,
 Route 4, box 93, Gresham.
 Phone 3043.

HOLIDAY GOODS
 AT PRICES
Better than in Portland
 Come In and Look It Over
Gresham Drug Co.