"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins."

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

APPRECIATED.

The Outlook appreciates the many favorable expressions received upon the appearance and quality of the holiday number, issued last Tuesday.

Incidentally it might be said that the paper was mostly written, set up and printed in three days, as we issued the previous number on Friday of last week.

The photos for the cuts of Gresham dwellings which appeared in the Christmas number were taken by Ed Metzger who has gained a good reputation for amateur work.

The Outlook has received a copy of the proposal made by Walter W. Pollock to the county of Multnomah relative to the adoption of the Somers Unit system for determining realty values.

The system has many good features and is probably valuable in preparing or making up valuations, but the owners want $25,000 for imparting some of their information and then $1000 a year for several years.

The report of the committee should be adopted, as it would seem to meet with the approbation of the taxpayers.

Governor West refuses to call an extra session of the legislature to correct the registration muddle, and suggests that all present state officers will hold over until a new election which cannot be held until the law is set right.

The theory that woman is crowding man out of the educational field is denied by Mrs. Ella Plagg Young, superintendent of Chicago's schools.

Many men could do good—to others and themselves, too—by giving needy people work. This applies to farmers even more than city people.

With a bad cold and the women suffragists after him, the president will feel thankful for the Christmas holidays.

They're going fast—the holiday Outlook. Five cents will send one of them, we pay the freight.

CHRISTMAS.

Bernard Mulrine, Hark, the Christmas tide has come; Ring out the news in chimes of peace; Sing, thou Herald Angels, sing; Let not the good to mankind cease.

GAME LAW REVISION.

The action of Pomona grange, on Wednesday, in voting down the resolution submitted by the Masters' and Lecturers' association, asking for a change in the game laws, was somewhat amazing to the farmers of this end of the county.

The fact that no kind of game may be sold in the public markets may be agreeable to those who live in the city, and if so the farmers are mistaken in their idea. It was noticed that the speeches and most of the votes against the resolution came from the west end of the county.

While there is every desire to protect the game of the state, there is also the idea that 90 per cent of the people never get a taste of any. The city sportsmen who have a monopoly on shooting and who have no regard for others, are naturally opposed to any change, but it was supposed that the grangers would look upon their self-prepared laws as a menace and that they would take a different stand.

That there are some radical changes needed in the game laws is asserted by the farmers who are the goats and victims of the law and the city sports. But they failed to defend their rights and there will remain the same conditions that now prevail.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION ENDORSES EX-CHIEF

The general association of Ministers, which meets once monthly at the Y. M. C. A., recently indorsed unanimously the following resolutions:

"Whereas, there has recently been an alleged investigation into police affairs, ostensibly in the interests of good morals, and

"Whereas, the name of Captain Slover, formerly chief of police, has been associated with charges of guilty knowledge concerning gambling, and interest in a certain newspaper, and persecuting keepers of houses of ill fame, and of having been found asleep in his office during hours of duty; and

"Whereas, Captain Slover has not been asked to be present at this so-called investigation, and has not given testimony at its meetings; and

"Whereas, we understand that the testimony against Captain Slover comes largely from disaffected members of the force, some of whom have had to be disciplined, and some of whom also gambled while on the force knowing it to be against the rules, and in part also from women admittedly of the underworld, and whose word has none but a financial value; and

"Whereas, also he was constantly under the supervision of a board of police commissioners; and

"Whereas, we consider this whole affair an attempt to discredit an honest effort at clean government; therefore, be it

"Resolved, that this association has entire confidence in the moral character of the said Captain Slover, and express it as their conviction that this alleged investigation is nothing more than malicious persecution upon the part of his political enemies in an attempt to get even with the captain by making him the scapegoat for the corruption which he tried to eradicate during his administration and for the delinquencies of the present regime. Be it further

EXPECTANT.

A man slightly under the influence strolled into the art gallery, wandered about aimlessly for a while and stationed himself in front of a painting of several mermaids half submerged in water. He regarded this picture intently for perhaps a half hour. Then he walked over to an attendant, and said:

"Shay, ole fellow, what time doesh tide go out, anyway?"

You seldom see a successful business man who boasts of being a thoroughbred.

You generally notice that the man who walls that "corporations have no souls" is almost invariably the man who is terribly busy looking out of the window when the conductor is

Kelso

Mr. James, the school supervisor, made a brief visit to our school Friday.

The arrival of six new pictures has added greatly to the attractiveness of the school room. There are three for each room. The subjects are as follows: George Washington, Sir Galahad, The Horse Fair, The Coliseum, Readings from Homer, and a portrait of five American authors.

The school will give a Christmas entertainment and basket social at the schoolhouse Saturday evening, December 20. All are cordially invited to attend.

The next meeting of the Neighborhood club will be Saturday evening, January 3, 1914. When the following question will be debated, "Resolved that the Monroe Doctrine should be discontinued as part of our permanent foreign policy." On the same evening, the first edition of the club's paper of which Mr. Spooner is the editor, will be read. All are requested to send contributions for the paper to P. C. Spooner, Boring, Route 2.

R. E. Jarl has sold his place two miles west of Kelso to Fred Lamoreaux.

Gilbert Jonsrud is having four acres of land cleared.

John Jarl after a brief visit to the home folks, returned to his work in Seattle.

C. J. Sindall is having his orchard trimmed and put in fine shape. The work is being done by David Jarl.

The telephone men did some repair work here last week and installed a phone for F. W. Canning.

R. Jonsrud is having some fencing done.

The people of this community are looking forward joyfully to the proposed car line between Boring and Sandy which is expected to build in the spring.

Welches

"Billy" Welch gave a dance in the hotel Saturday night. A few of the Cherryville people attended and all report an enjoyable time.

Mr. and Mrs. George Odell and baby of Sandy, have been visiting the past week with Mr. and Mrs. George Williams and family.

We are having beautiful sunny weather and only a few days until Christmas.

Mrs. Wm. Welch has gone to Portland to visit friends and relatives.

Otto Aschoff of Marmot was in Welches last week digging rhododendrons for parties in Portland and Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shelley and daughter Hope were guests for dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Truman's home Sunday.

A farewell party was given at the home of W. J. Faubion in honor of C. Hon and Herman Wallace, forest rangers. Mr. Hon will return to his home at Cascade Locks, Oregon, and Mr. Wallace will spend a few months with his sister at Grants Pass.

Walter Creighton has gone to Portland to purchase a horse. Mr. Creighton intends doing the heavy work on the Mt. Hood road for Mr. Coleman.

W. S. Chapman, of Portland, and his sister, Mrs. Galbreth, of Seattle, spent Saturday and Sunday in Welches. Mrs. Galbreth has applied for a homestead adjoining H. S. Rowe's place, near Rhododendron Tavern.

B. F. Higley and a party of men left Portland at 9:25 Saturday night in his automobile stage reaching Welches at 12:30. Sunday morning at 11 o'clock they started for Government Camp. Two miles below the hotel they encountered twenty inches of soft snow, this making it impossible for them to proceed in the machine they decided to walk the remaining distance. Reaching the hotel at 1:30 and entering through a window they signed their names on the hotel register as follows: B. G. Higley, Fred Hinz, W. E. McElwee, M. C. Webster, Jr., Merwyn Jones, Wm. Hodecker, B. F. Finke. They returned to Portland Sunday evening all declaring they had the finest trip of the season and reporting the roads in good condition.

"When I started in life, young man," said the retired Oil Well Contractor, "I worked twelve hours a day."

"Yes," replied the son, "but in these rapid times anyone who took twelve hours to do a day's work would get fired."

California Woman Seriously Alarmed.

"A short time ago I contracted a severe cold which settled on my lungs and caused me a great deal of annoyance. I would have had coughing spells and my lungs were so sore and inflamed I began to be seriously alarmed. A friend recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, saying she had used it for years. I bought a bottle and it relieved my cough the first night, and in a week I was rid of the cold and soreness of my lungs," writes Miss Marie Gerber, Sawtelle, Cal. The Best Light

AT THE LOWEST COST

ELECTRIC LIGHT is the most suitable for homes, offices, shops and other places needing light.

ELECTRICITY can be used in any quantity, large or small, thereby furnishing any required amount of light. Furthermore,

ELECTRIC LAMPS can be located in any place, thus affording any desired distribution of light.

NO OTHER LAMPS possess these qualifications, therefore, it is surprising that

ELECTRIC LAMPS are rapidly replacing all others in modern establishments.
