POWELL STREET

Appropriate Christmas Presents.
"Have you decided on your presents for the boys yet, my dear?" asked Mr. Hendricks after the lads had left the breakfast table for school.
"Not quite all. But I have decided, William, that they shall all be given something useful. There is no use in wasting money on useless toys for them to break. And, by the way, we need a new rug for the parlor and a dozen tumblers, William."
"Ah, well, why not get the rug for George and give the tumblers to John?"

An Owed to the Store.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, Dec. 15.—Friday evening as Arthur Ledbury was returning from work to the cabin where he and his brother Will live he noticed a man and woman come out of the house and start across the field and upon entering the house he found that several articles of clothing were missing so he at once went in pursuit of the culprits, catching them only a short distance from the house. The woman complained of being hungry so they were both given their supper, while the sheriff who had been summoned by telephone was on his way out. Upon being taken to Portland they gave their names as Mr. and Mrs. Grant and said they were hobnobbing it through the country.

On Sunday Mrs. Fred Crane received a telegram announcing the death of her brother Solomon Fisher at Sacramento, California. The deceased was 49 years of age and was born and raised on the old family homestead on the Sandy road, about three miles west of here. He leaves to mourn his loss three sisters and four brothers besides a host of friends.

The Sunday school workers met with Mrs. D. W. McKay on Friday afternoon when plans were discussed for the Christmas program which will be given at the church on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Axtell went to Newberg on Monday to spend several days with his mother, Mrs. E. Smith.

FAIRVIEW, Dec. 18.—Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Dunbar and Miss Lillian Heslin were the guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Heslin last Monday, the occasion being in honor of the 78th birthday of Mr. Heslin's father, J. P. Heslin.

The Ladies' Aid society met last Thursday with Mrs. D. W. McKay and spent the afternoon making and filling candy bags for the Sunday school.

A Christmas program will take the place of the usual morning services next Sunday. The children will receive gifts of candy at the close of the exercises.

Pleasant Home

Pleasant Home Baptist Church News

The pastor of the above church, Rev. A. J. Lucas will not be preaching next Sunday morning on the subjects as announced. Mr. Lucas began a series of sermons on special subjects last Sunday but on Sunday, December 21 at both services Cottrell 11 a. m., and Orient 7:30 p. m., the subject will be, "The Incarnate God" and should prove very interesting. A large attendance is earnestly desired at both services. The serial sermons will be announced for dates following Christmas Sunday, which are of a very important nature. A mid-week prayer service has been recently started and is conducted every Wednesday at 7:30 p. m., at the parsonage. Everybody is urgently requested if possible to attend.

Rev. A. J. Lucas, pastor of Pleasant Home Baptist church is now fully installed in the recently created Baptist parsonage which has been for a number of years the family residence of Mrs. J. A. Stephens, who is well known for her literary abilities and has gone to live in Portland, but still owns property here. The pastor feels very grateful to the many ladies of his congregation who so willingly and freely volunteered to get things fixed up for him. The residence is situated at the end of the side walk ending on Powell Valley road. R. F. D. 2, Box 86.

Santa Claus at Shinaman's.

Next Tuesday afternoon will be ladies' day at Shinaman's store at Pleasant Home, combined with a Christmas tree and Santa Claus. Refreshments served. All ladies and children invited.

After the devotional and business meeting Light refreshments were served and a social hour was spent by the members. Christian Endeavor topic for Sunday evening, December 21, will be "The Christmas Spirit, and how it may prevail," Isa. 9: 2-7, to be led by Miss Grace Kesterson.

Haley

In the notice of the organization a Parent-Teachers' association an error was made as to the secretary elected. Ed. Seifer was chosen to fill that office.

The sale at the Baptist church, December 12 was very successful. Although the crowd was not as large as was hoped the Aid society however, received $52.17 from the sale.

Rev. and Mrs. Johnson were happily surprised last Sunday by the members of the church. After the usual morning service Mr. Resare acting as Santa Claus presented Rev. Johnson with an envelope containing cash, as a token of esteem from members of the church. Mrs. Stone on behalf of the Ladies' Aid society likewise presented Mrs. Johnson with a beautiful palm and stand. Rev. and Mrs. Johnson thanked all present in a very fitting manner. Dinner was served and a short meeting was held in the afternoon.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.
