Fraternal societies are the expression of the neighborhood spirit of helpfulness. "And they helped each one his neighbor, and each one said to his neighbor, 'be of good cheer.'"

OLD MAIDS CHEAT IN POLK COUNTY

A correspondent in the Dalles Itemizer says: "St. Mary's hospital at Albany is so full of old maids that they are boldly offering themselves at six bits apiece, and I am quite sure that such as Frank Gilliam and F. M. Smith, who still retain most of their teeth, could get one apiece at cut rates. But Uncle Bill Williams, the Airline boss, would have to come in as a good third and take choice of what was left, and then he would be forced to pay first cost."

English Cheeses.

Seventeen varieties of cheese are produced in England, and even more varieties of rarebits.

Columbia grange met in regular session Saturday, January 3, and was very well attended considering the day being very stormy. The forenoon session was taken up with business, and after an excellent dinner the officers were installed by James Pounder assisted by Mrs. P. Anderson. Brother Crane, of Rockwood grange, was invited to act as installing officer but owing to the inclemency of the weather, he was prevented from coming. The officers installed for the ensuing year were master, R. P. Rasmussen; overseer, Geo. Klieriem; senior lecturer, Clara E. Smith; chaplain, Mrs. Geo. Klieriem; secretary, Mrs. J. Pounder; assistant steward, Roy Anderson; lady assistant steward, Helen Deaver; Ceres, Mrs. P. Anderson; Pomona, Mrs. J. T. Rea; Flora, Mrs. Geo. Gill; gatekeeper, Jas. Pounder. Seven candidates were initiated in first and second degrees and one obligated in third and fourth degrees. After which the lecturer presented the following program: New Year greeting, Mrs. Clara Smith; instrumental solo, Mrs. J. T. Rea; reading, "New Year Resolutions," Mrs. Geo. Klieriem; instrumental solo, Ethel Smith; vocal solo, Mrs. Rea, accompanied by Miss Smith; remarks, Fred Beaufield; vocal solo, Mrs. P. Anderson. The banquet given by Columbia grange New Year's eve was a very pleasant affair. Covers were laid for over a hundred and the tables fairly groaned under their load of tempting eatables. Excellent music was furnished by Professor Zilm and Mrs. Pierce of Portland and mirth and merriment reigned until a late hour when all departed expressing their appreciation of the grange hospitality.

Alf. A. Loeb made a trip into Eastern Oregon last week.

Lee Evans presented his wife with a Strobe piano on Christmas, a gift which was very much appreciated as Mrs. Evans is an ardent devotee of music.

Grand Master of Oregon, Taylor, of Pendleton was present and acted as installing officer. A supper followed the work of the evening.

How to Bankrupt the Doctors.

A prominent New York physician says, "If it were not for the thin stockings and thin soled shoes worn by women the doctors would probably be bankrupt." When you contract a cold do not wait for it to develop into pneumonia but treat it at once. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is intended especially for coughs and colds, and has won a wide reputation by its cures of these diseases. It is most effectual and is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.

His Stomach Troubles Over.

Mr. Dyspeptic, would you not like to feel that your stomach troubles were over, that you could eat any kind of food you desired without injury? That may seem so unlikely to you that you do not even hope for an ending of your trouble, but permit us to assure you that it is not altogether impossible. If others can be cured permanently, and thousands have been, why not you? John R. Barker, of Battle Creek, Mich., is one of them. He says, "I was troubled with heartburn, indigestion, and liver complaint until I used Chamberlain's Tablets, then my trouble was over." Sold by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.
