OBITUARY

Moss J. Welty was born in Hardin county, Iowa, 24 years ago the 15th day of November. He was the son of J. S. and Mary C. Welty. He resided with his parents till three years ago, they lived at that time in Sawyer, N. D. Three years ago he came west to Montana and subsequently to Stanfield, Oregon, and then went into California, living at Oroville for two winters.

At the time of his death he was working on a construction crew at Wadsworth, Nevada. Death came by the hand of a fellow employee, suddenly unprovoked. He had extinguished the bunk light in ignorance of a rule which seemed to prevail. One S. C. Robinson, now in custody, first rebuked him then shot him. He was taken to Reno to a hospital where the faint spark of life lingered two days. He died on Wednesday, December 24.

The deceased was unmarried. He was a bright and industrious young man, with good prospects. Always cheerful and smiling, loyal and affectionate to his parents and friends. Beside his parents he leaves two brothers, N. D. Welty of North Dakota, and D. B. Welty, of Gresham, and two sisters, Mrs. P. T. Conklin, of Minot, North Dakota, and Mrs. S. H. Pitkins, of Velva, North Dakota.

His untimely demise made a sad Christmas for his parents, who are visiting their son at Gresham. It was his intention sometime this winter to come to see them, but death, "ferce spirit of the glass and scythe" stood suddenly at the door to claim his own. Mr. Welty died in the comfort and hope of God's grace.

HEROIC RESCUE OF DOROTHY WOOD

Word has been received here of an accident on December 27, to Dorothy, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wood, of North Bend, Oregon, formerly of Gresham, which nearly cost the little girl her life. Little Dorothy and a six-year-old companion, Esther Berglund, were strolling about a park, when they found a spring well. They obtained sticks and poked into the water to see how deep it was, when Dorothy, lost her balance and fell into the water. When she came up she was underneath the boards and could not get out. She went down again, but when she came up struggling for breath, little Esther, who was lying flat on the ground, pulled her from under the boards and succeeded in getting her out. Willing hands helped Dorothy home, and within a few hours she was playing around apparently none the worse for her experience.

Best Cough Medicine for Children
"I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy" writes Mrs. Lida Dewey, Milwaukee, Wis. "I have used it for years both for my children and myself and it never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.
