IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Christian Science services will be held in their hall in the First State Bank building next Sunday at 11 o'clock. The public is invited. The subject will be, Sacramento.

At the meeting of the Women's Council held last Tuesday night, Miss C. H. Halle, Mrs. W. C. Belt and Mrs. Chan, Cleveland were appointed a committee to interest the children in the work of civic improvement, and to form a Junior League. As suggested in the last Outlook, plans were made for a series of flower shows to be held during the spring and summer, which will include wild as well as cultivated flowers. It is expected that clean up day will be observed this spring, though definite plans are not yet announced.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Lundquist entertained at an elaborate dinner last evening Mr. and Mrs. Emil Oswald, Miss Hope Anderson, Guy Fieldhouse, Miss Laura V. Bulkeley and Miss Emma B. Johnson. A very pleasant evening was spent with music and games.

Mrs. M. Nystrom of Powell Valley, has rented her 27 acre farm to L. Bates for one year. Mr. Bates is moving to the farm and Mrs. Nystrom and family will move to Gresham.

Ernest Peterson has rented Dr. Thompson's cottage on Maple avenue and will move his family into it in a few days.

The omission of a line in the article in last Tuesday's Outlook concerning the Methodist Sunday school officers, gave an entirely wrong account of the case. The omitted line stated that A. R. Lyman was elected superintendent. Mrs. L. C. St. Clair is assistant superintendent.

Dr. Benj. J. Freese will leave tomorrow for Chicago on a visit to his mother, who is ill. His practice here and in Portland will be in charge of Dr. J. A. Boemer, who will be found in either office on the dates announced by Dr. Freese.

P. J. Neururer has begun suit against P. M. Johnson for the sum of $2500, alleged damages on account of the lease of a dairy farm lately used by the plaintiff. Its alleged violation by Mr. Johnson is said to be the cause of the discontinuance by Mr. Neururer of his Gresham milk route.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson moved recently to Culver in central Oregon.

C. F. Cross of Boring was a business visitor here on Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Townsend and Mrs. George Shaw started today for Eastern Oregon to be gone about ten days. They will take part in a jack rabbit drive.

Ben Copeland, of Scappoose visited with F. C. Hodge and wife on Sunday last, bringing with him several wild ducks shot on the way. He also returned a flock of decoys he had been using.

J. F. Roberts was a proud fisherman a few days ago when he caught in the Sandy river a twelve-pound steel head.

Revival services will commence at the Baptist church Sunday morning and continue for two weeks. The pastor will be assisted by the pastors of Portland the first week and the second week by E. A. Smith of Oregon City. All Christians are invited to help make, by their progress and presence, the meeting a spiritual uplift to the people of Gresham. E. A. Leonard, pastor.

A. E. Kessler, who recently bought Sig. Knighton's barber shop, has moved here from Portland with his family and is occupying rooms connected with the shop. His wife will engage in dressmaking.

Services at the Free Methodist church next Sunday will be as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m., morning sermon at 11 o'clock. Rev. H. J. Elliott will preach in the absence of the pastor. You are all cordially invited to attend. No services in the evening.

John Brown, of Gresham, agent for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co., holds the coast records for first policy issued in 1914. He took an application at the breakfast table on January 1, and had every detail settled in two hours.

Dr. M. C. Wire, of Newberg, father of Melville T. Wire, had a serious operation at the Good Samaritan hospital yesterday. He is reported to be doing nicely.

Mrs. James Elkington is substituting this week in the school in the place of Mrs. Myrtle Myers, who is caring for her son, Loren, who is sick with measles.

W. E. Dabney, of Portland, was here one day this week looking after his interests.

Rev. H. J. Elliott of the Nazarene church will preach at the Free Methodist church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Emil Olson and family will start in a few days for Los Angeles. Mr. Olson has shipped his car and will spend about two months in southern California.

John Hastings Hodge is the name of the nine and a half pound son who arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hodge on December 23. The baby and his mother are both doing well.

The Junior Epworth League will meet at the home of Mrs. Ella Aton for a business meeting and frolic Saturday, January 10, at 2:30. This is the meeting for the election of officers and all members are requested to be present for business and a good time. Miss Aurilla Hoagland is the superintendent.

Word has been received of the birth of a son on January 4, to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Erickson, of Warren, Oregon. Mrs. Erickson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey.

At the Methodist Episcopal church Sunday at 11 o'clock, District Superintendent James Moore will preach. C. E. Risher will sing "The Holy City." The preaching service will be followed by a Love Feast service. At 7:30 o'clock Rev. Melville T. Wire will preach as usual. The subject being, "The Gospel in a Nutshell." Sunday school at 9:45. Junior League at 3:30. Epworth League at 6:30.

Best Cough Medicine for Children
"I am very glad to say a few words in praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy" writes Mrs. Lida Dewey, Milwaukee, Wis. "I have used it for years both for my children and myself and it never fails to relieve and cure a cough or cold. No family with children should be without it as it gives almost immediate relief in cases of croup." Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is pleasant and safe to take, which is of great importance when a medicine must be given to young children. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.
