

Pleasant Home

The Women's Christian Temperance Union met last week Thursday evening in the Methodist church for special service, Mrs. Miller, the president of the society, presiding. A very nice program had been prepared by Mrs. Lovell, consisting of readings and recitations and an address by Rev. A. J. Lucas on the subject "Am I my brother's keeper." The gift of the lamp to the Orient church was not as stated by Nelson personally, but given mutually by both members of the firm Nelson & Johanson. Baptist church services for Sunday, January 24. Sunday school in Cottrell and Orient churches at 11 o'clock a. m. Morning service at 11 o'clock. Subject, "Holy Spirit." Last of serial sermons. Subject, "Death," third of evening sermons. Large attendance expected. These subjects are of great importance. All cordially welcome. Week service Wednesday 7:30 p. m. Rev. A. J. Lucas, pastor. James Hillyard has returned from Ireland where he has been on a business trip. Rev. A. J. Lucas, of Pleasant Home, returned today from Portland where he has been there two days on business. The Pleasant Home Baptist people are planning to build a new church in the future, else they would have selected lots in new Pleasant Home town. A devotional and business meeting was held Saturday afternoon at the Baptist parsonage. A good attendance was present. Various matters were discussed. W. E. Markell was in Portland today on business. Both Messrs. Collins and Miller, who have been living with us for some time, had a very cheerful time today entertaining Mr. Miller's mother from Lents, who came to spend the day with the boys.

Poultry Keepers' Dont's
"Don't use mongrel stock" is one of the first signs encountered on entering the Utility Poultry show held by the Poultry Department of the Oregon Agricultural College last week. Prof. James Dryden thus expressed his estimate of the value of mongrel fowls. He has resorted to limited and scientific use of cross-breeding in his work of developing new varieties, but only mongrels are different considerations. "Don't start too big," comes next. Amount of knowledge and enthusiasm can make up for lack of experience, and mistakes are sure to be made in the beginning. If the beginning is on a large scale, some of these mistakes will prove very serious. Therefore, they should be made with only a few fowls. When business has grown the mistakes should be avoided. "Don't's" will not conduct a profitable poultry business but the intelligent observation of these three steer the beginner clear of some of the most disastrous, though alluring, mistakes. "Don't use immature stock," is the next sign displayed at the show. Size and vitality are affected favorably by mating over young chickens. Vitality is an important factor in heavy egg-laying.

Pleasant Valley

Pleasant Valley young people's society in business meeting, held their annual election. Officers chosen being, president, Herbert Poppleton; vice president, G. M. Laughlin; secretary, Mrs. Poppleton; treasurer, George Butler. Young people's meeting Sunday evening January 25 at 6:30 p. m. will have for its topic, "The Perils that Threaten our Nation." Jer. 22: 1-5, 13-18. (Home Mission meeting.) Farmers are carrying potatoes to Sycamore station nearly every day despite the rain. Milton and Lester Robinson and lady friends of Portland were callers at Will Richey's Sunday. James Richey, a former resident of the Valley, at this writing is very low at his home in Portland. Children's story hour has been started at the library on Wednesday afternoons by the librarian, Mrs. Moore. Wednesday afternoon Miss Halle, of the Gresham library, and Mrs. Lehman, of our valley, assisted with the opening. Miss Halle very ably entertained the children with interesting stories. The children are invited to come again next Wednesday afternoon. The Ladies' Aid met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Snashall on Pleasant View avenue. Patrons of this school district met at the school Friday afternoon, January 16, and organized a Parent-Teacher circle by the aid of Mrs. Walker of Portland. Many good thoughts were suggested and the following officers elected, president, Mrs. Paul Bliss; vice president, G. M. Laughlin; secretary, Mrs. W. U. Moore; treasurer, Mrs. H. C. Restorf. It was decided to meet again in two weeks January 30 at the schoolhouse in the evening at 7:30 o'clock, and it is hoped all patrons will come out.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, Jan. 22.—Prof. A. R. Sweetser of the department of Botany of the University of Oregon, will give a lecture under the auspices of the grange in the city hall on Saturday evening, his subject being "Some Microscopic Friends and Foes," illustrated with stereoscopic views. Joe Andregg and Arnold Brugger, Oswego, have rented the Mrs. Eliza Stone ranch and are preparing to move their dairy on it. The Harridon ranch on the Barker road has been sold to a Portland capitalist for $17,200. The new owner will soon sub-divide it into small tracts. About five years ago Mr. Harridon bought the place from Jacob Butzer for $5000. Mr. Harridon has purchased the seven hundred acre farm near Yamhill known as the Sunnybrook farm and will at once put on fifty blooded cows. The place will be in charge of J. W. Hulbert. Mrs. M. Taylor, of Portland, is the guest of Mrs. C. Shepard. Miss Florence Honey, of Gresham will give a musical demonstration at the Presbyterian church on Friday afternoon which will be of interest to all lovers of music. Mr. and Mrs. R. Bretcher, (nee Laura Menzies) who formerly lived at Troutdale, but are now residents of Portland, are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a daughter on January 9.

Cottrell

Mr. Clarke from the Jacob's company, Portland, was visiting Sunday at his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewees, of Cottrell. Mrs. R. A. Hutchinson and baby were the guests of Mrs. Hutchinson's sister, Mrs. Truelove, of Portland Saturday and Sunday. Grandpa Beers has returned to his place at Medford after a short visit with his son Frank Beers of this place. Freddie Wagner and Burleigh Spiers returned Sunday from Bonneville where they have been in the employ of the Western Union Telegraph company. The Baptist Aid society met with Mrs. George Lusted Thursday, January 22. A ten cent dinner was served.

Columbia Heights

Mrs. J. Ross and Mrs. G. Knieriem are both at present in Portland, the guest of Mrs. Knieriem's daughter, Mrs. Bellreeth. J. Udy has charge of our telephone exchange at Corbett. Mr. and Mrs. P. Rasmussen and daughter Alice were in the metropolis Saturday on business. Miss Annie Benfield, our librarian, and R. Benfield, are visiting with relatives in Portland and plan to hear the concert by the Symphony orchestra. Miss Dorris Tricky and Miss Ada Woodward took the eighth grade examinations at the Heights school last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. Taylor, of Portland, were out here last week looking after their interest on their ranch. W. Ross was given a surprise party by his friends one evening last week. T. Knieriem is the owner of a nice new team of horses. It has been with much interest that we have been reading the articles in the Journal in regard to dancing in the public schools and considered it a wise move of the board to stop it, as the schoolhouse is not the place for that kind of exercises. However, dancing is just what people make it. It is as innocent and inspiring an amusement when conducted in the proper style as any sport or game we know of, but it becomes sinful when otherwise dealt with, and so it is with all kinds of amusement. I am satisfied that young folks that are clean of heart, showing tact and good behavior, conduct themselves in proper manner, whether in a dance hall or other public place, are most highly respected, and better people nearer the Kingdom of heaven than a vast majority of society folks, that are regular members or merely attend church because it is a custom, or because they must show off their fine raiment, people that have a liking for a cranking for doing the wrong thing make all kinds of pleasure a failure. They are lacking self control to resist the evil temptation, and hence their downfall. Dancing is an art in itself, and it is beautiful to watch a couple of graceful dancers that understand how to carry their color and to take the right steps after good music. But it becomes hideous and ridiculous when it comes to ragging, turkey trot, twisting of the body and swinging right and left, with the feet in an effort to run some one down, then it is a disgraceful exercise and not dancing, and it should not be tolerated anywhere. MRS. P. ANDERSON.

Scenic

Mrs. Wm. Beyers and her daughter, Mrs. Linster, visited friends in Portland a few days this week. Dale Altman, who has been quite ill, is improving. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Miller attended the funeral Friday of Mrs. Miller's brother, Mr. Fenton, who was accidentally killed in Portland Tuesday. Mr. Beyers loaded a car of potatoes this week. Messrs. Hyde and Johnson are shingling and building a chimney in the residence of Geo. Matson. They will later occupy rooms in the building, Mr. Hyde having rented his home to a family who will build on property recently purchased at Seaside of Umbdenstock & Larson. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stephens, of Los Angeles, are visiting Mr. Stephens' sister, Mrs. Altman for a short time. Miss Alma Bauder was called to Portland for a week or a little more. After her return she will open kindergarten school at Seaside.

Lusted

Miss Ellen and Sarah Stone, Misses Trimble and Miss Anna McCarroll visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harris Hamilton last Sunday. Ralph Neibauer has been in the neighborhood a few days. He expects to move his family back on the ranch the middle of March. A complete surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Lusted last Friday evening. Games and music were the feature of the evening. About thirty were present. Refreshments were served during the evening, and all present had a very enjoyable time. Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Kelly and family, of Gresham, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clark, of Newberg, visited G. Lusted's family a couple of days last week. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns visited Mr. and Mrs. John Ickler last Sunday. Mrs. Mathew Rau visited in Powell Valley last Sunday.

Powell Valley

Mrs. C. J. Swanson and daughter, Mrs. Carl Johnson, of Portland, took dinner on Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad. Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gustafson and family returned Sunday evening to their home in Woodstock, Oregon, after spending several days visiting with Mrs. Gustafson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Palmblad and with her sisters. Paul Palmblad, of Portland, spent Sunday with the home folks. Other Sunday guests were L. Swanson, of Portland, Gust Anderson and Ben London.

How about Your Future?
A NEW YEAR lies before you—another twelve months of fresh opportunities. No matter what the old year brought for you, this year comes with fresh assurance of success—with new chances to "make good." But what you accomplish—how you use these opportunities—is entirely a matter for YOU yourself to determine. If you like your present work—you are probably in the right line. Stick to it—and train yourself for a job higher up. If you don't like your work—if it offers you no chance for advancement—it's a safe guess that you are in the wrong line. And you had better look about you—and find out what work you do like—where your natural ability lies—and then train yourself along that line. No matter how little progress you've made this year—whether you are in the right or the wrong line of work—if you will make up your mind to do it—with the help the International Correspondence Schools can give you—you can wring success from the next twelve months. For 22 years I. C. S. have been assisting men to get into lines of work for which they were best fitted—have been helping them to train and develop their natural ability—to qualify for better positions and bigger salaries. They can do the same for YOU, no matter where you live, what you do, how limited your education, or how little spare time you may have. Just mark on the coupon the position you would most like, and mail the coupon to the I. C. S. Without obligating you in the least they will show you how they can train you for this job in your own home during your spare time.

SUMMONS.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon in and for Multnomah County.
Margaret Langford, Plaintiff, vs. W. G. Langford, Defendant.
In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled suit and court on or before February 20th, 1914, that being the date fixed by the court for you to appear and answer herein, and being six weeks from the date of the first publication of the summons, and if you fail to answer within such time, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief prayed for in her complaint; for decree of this court dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, and for custody of the four minor children named in her complaint, on the grounds of gross, habitual drunkenness, and cruel and inhuman treatment and personal indignities rendering life burdensome, and for such other relief as to the court may seem just and equitable. This summons is published pursuant to an order of the Honorable T. J. Clouston, judge of the above entitled court, made on the 31st day of December, 1913, directing that the same be published once a week for six successive weeks in the Gresham Outlook, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published at Gresham, Multnomah county, Oregon. Dated and first published Jan. 2, 1914 Date of last publication Feb. 20, 1914 M. C. KING, Attorney for Plaintiff, First State Bank Building
