Jack's Bean Stalk

The old story of our childhood, makes Jack's Bean Stalk the oldest in history—

Even if this famous vine really performed the wonderful feat—

The modern bean stalks are doing a bigger and better service to mankind than the one mentioned in the Fairy Tale.

The cultivated bean plant gives to the busy people of the world a food that is more nutritious than wheat.

The nitrogenous element carried in large quantities by the bean sustains the hardest mental and physical work.

AN EXCLUSIVE CHURCH.

An old darkey wanted to join a fashionable city church and the minister, knowing that it was hardly the thing to do, and not wanting to hurt his feelings, told him to go home and pray over it. In a few days the darkey came back.

"Didn't you promise, if we elected you, to get our county good roads?"

"Why, certainly, gentlemen."

"Do all of the workmen drop their tools the moment the whistle blows?" asked one of the commission.

"No, not at all," said the workman who was acting as guide; "the more orderly men have their tools all put away before that time."

"What's doing in the way of amusements?" asks the newcomer of the old inhabitants of Hades.

"Sure thing."

"By ginger! This place suits me. Baseball! Say, this can't be hell, them?"

"Yes, it is. The home team always loses."—Life.

"Sure I do," said the second tramp. "But he's growling too, and I don't know which end to believe."
