Columbia Heights

Mr. and Mrs. Russell, of Troutdale, but for more than 35 years lived in this vicinity, celebrated their golden wedding last Sunday. About 30 of their near relatives, including their own children, grand children and great grandchildren, gathered at the home and spent the day with the bride and groom, who at the age of 72 years don't look over 50. Mr. and Mrs. Russell are both enjoying splendid health, and are young of heart and have always been noted for their happy and pleasant dispositions, which no doubt has been a great factor in making them appear young in their advanced age.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell are the parents of twelve children, of whom four have died. All the rest of their children were present except two. The highly respected couple have many friends in this vicinity, who are wishing them many more celebrations in the future. The main feature of the day was an elaborate dinner served at noon.

It was a merry throng that gathered at our grange hall on Saturday night to take part in the masquerade and many costumes worthy of mention were seen. The four prizes offered were won by the following persons: Mrs. La Follette looked sweet and graceful in an old-fashioned colonial style dress and was awarded the first prize; C. Deverall in his gorgeous uniform as admiral captured the prize for the best dressed gent. Laurence Evans, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Evans of Hurlbert, was a little dandy looking George Washington, and considered the best looking character in the hall, his older brother, W. E. Evans, took the prize as the most comical looking person in the costume of a genuine rube.

How Is Your Boiler?

It has been stated that a man's stomach is his boiler, his body is his engine and his mouth the fire box. Is your boiler (stomach) in good working order or is it so weak that it will not stand a full load and not be able to supply the needed energy to your engine (body)? If you have any trouble with your stomach Chamberlain's Tablets will do you good. They strengthen and invigorate the stomach and enable it to do its work naturally. Many very remarkable cures of stomach trouble have been effected by them. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Methodist Minister Recommends Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Rev. James A. Lewis, Milaca, Minnesota, writes: "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been a needed and welcome guest in our home for a number of years. I highly recommend it to my fellows as being a medicine worthy of trial in cases of colds, coughs and croup." Give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a trial and we are confident you will find it very effectual and continue to use it as occasion requires for years to come, as many others have done.
