

Melrose

Miss Hortense Ingalls, of Portland, spent the week-end with Mr. Wiles and family.

Mrs. Siegelman, of the Portland Auto club, has been called to Seattle where her sister is ill.

Cecil Duke has recovered from his measles time and expects to return to school the coming week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Wood have left for Springwater to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayden are guests of Mr. Woods.

Mr. Tallman has gone to Clarks, Clackamas county, on business.

One of the most delightful affairs of the season was a party given by Miss Henrietta Wiles in honor of the birthdays of Lesley Wiles and Frank Siegelman. A great number of young people attended and the evening passed rapidly for all. At eleven a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Wiles and Mrs. Siegelman. The feature of the evening was the big surprised cake, which was most beautiful in its dress of candles. Among those present were, Messrs Guy Jones, of Gresham, John Strebbin, Bob Strebbin, Leslie Wiles, Will Fritz, Mr. Goshe, George Jones, Harry Cooley, Chester Stafford, Frank Siegelman, Augustus Pollock, of Portland, Cecil Dukes, Lester Conrad, Percy Conrad, Ora Conrad, Howard Wood, Misses Henrietta Wiles, Fern Randall, Mabel Wood, Echo Jones of Gresham, Hortense Ingalls of Portland, Mrs. Goshe, Laura Jones, Lena Cooley, Ethel Stafford, Mae Stafford, Jennie Strebbin, Ethel Wood, Caroline Tallman.

An Industrial commission was looking over a mill. While the investigators were busy the whistle blew. The workmen put up their tools and vanished as if by magic.

"Do all of the workmen drop their tools the moment the whistle blows?" asked one of the commission.

"No, not at all," said the workman who was acting as guide; "the more orderly men have their tools all put away before that time."

From the book written by Fenimore Cooper.

This is a two reel production depicting the life of the early settlers of America and their troubles with the Indians. This picture is a wonderful production not only the fact of the story being written by Cooper, but the Vitagraph company deserve much credit in the production. The comedy "Cinderella and the Boob."

Friday and Saturday the "Diamond Mystery", a very sensational two reel society Vitagraph will be the feature, with a good split reel comedy.

The sixth part of "What Happened to Mary" will be shown Wednesday and Thursday with a two reel comedy.

THE MODERN MAUDE MILLER.

Maude Muller, on the Summer's day, Was not in the meadow raking hay, Such rustic sport she could scarce pursue In a hobble skirt and a peek-a-boo.

But, although the weather was scorching hot, She was trying the steps of the turkey trot.

When the Judge came by was he shocked to see Through that X-ray gown to a jeweled knee?

Did he catch his breath or his shoulders shrug When she changed her steps to the bunny-hug?

Well, he might have done in the days gone by, When rustic maidens were mostly shy.

But this Judge and Maude just made a pair In a turkey-trot and a grizzly-bear. They plighted their troth; were married in June, And their wedding march was a rag-time tune.

Uncle John: My goodness, Tommy, you eat an awful lot for such a little fellow. Tommy: I s'pect I aren't so little as I looks from the outside.
