A Rattling Good Game -- Usual Prices

G. H. S. PREPARING FOR SUMMER SPORTS

The graders were at work yesterday smoothing up a portion of the new high school site, and putting it in shape for baseball. Prof. J. E. Stubbs will coach the baseball teams and some good fast games will be witnessed on the home diamond.

Miss Elsa von Wintzengerode will coach the tennis teams of the high school. A good tennis court has been started back of the schoolhouse.

The Gresham high school and the Gresham Athletic club will contest for honors in basketball again Friday night in the skating rink. The high school and the Athletic club each won a game and this game, which will be a deciding game, promises to be fast.

The boys of the high school had a paper chase on the butte today. After 12:30 the boys began to come straggling in and the home coming lasted till 2:30 this afternoon.

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Good advertising methods, such as Metzger Bros. have adopted, will always bring results. This is evidenced by their increasing success. With their new auto service they will further increase their business by early and prompt deliveries, but their advertising will continue to be original and effective.

Mrs. Ralph Shepard and little daughter visited yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Ross.

Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman had the misfortune to sprain her ankle severely last Sunday, and as a result was laid up for a few days.

Miss Emma Fuller came from Lebanon for an over-Sunday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Fuller.

Mrs. J. W. Shattuck, of Portland, attended Gresham grange last Saturday. Mrs. Shattuck is one of the earliest members and has been an enthusiast in the work of the order through all its history, and her visits are always welcome.

Miss Rose Dair, of Reardon, Washington, arrived in Gresham Monday and is now working in the First State Bank, having succeeded Miss Laura Bulkeley, who resigned her position last Saturday.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union will meet at the library next Thursday afternoon at 2:30. All members are expected to be present and all women interested in temperance and law enforcement will be welcomed.

Mrs. Ella Aton is caring for A. C. Whlon, who is quite ill at his home at Powell Valley.

Mrs. Mary Wood and little son Guerny have moved from Portland to her home on Third street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Truitt, of Montavilla, spent Sunday with the latter's sister, Mrs. Mary Wood.

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will meet tomorrow at the home of Mrs. O. A. Eastman. A large attendance is requested and ladies are asked to bring their thimbles.

A special meeting of the Gresham Rebekah lodge will be held Wednesday evening, March 18, at the hall. All members are urged to be present.

Henry Wolter was in Gresham today arranging for a sale of livestock and farm tools and supplies to be held on his place northeast of here on March 25. Mr. Wolter came here from North Dakota about three years ago, and while he is well pleased with the country, property interests make it necessary for him to return to his former home.

Joseph Pateneau has set the pace for the young unmarried men by securing a new Overland runabout from C. M. Zimmerman's agency. The new machine is all that one could expect and will be the source of much enjoyment to its new owner.

S. E. Palmquist has returned with his bride and is back at business again. He and his wife went to Newport on a brief wedding trip, and since their return have been the recipients of many congratulations from their numerous friends and acquaintances in Gresham and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Fuller were initiated into the grange last Saturday.

Mrs. M. Vogel, who has been in Portland for the past few weeks studying the spring styles in millinery and ordering stock, will be here Saturday. The new goods will be on display at her store on Main street the first of next week.

Will Hessel is the proud owner of a Maxwell automobile purchased yesterday from Latourelle & Son. Mr. Hessel will find the machine very useful in his business of selling farm machinery, but has been treating many of his friends to a ride today while getting familiar with its driving powers.

Mrs. Sarah Coy Lawrence, living three miles west of Gresham, died at the family home last Friday and was buried in Multnomah cemetery on Sunday. She was born in the state of Maine and was aged 72 years, 3 months and 7 days. Services were conducted from her late home and at the grave by a Christian Scientist from Portland.

The C. C. store, which has been closed for more than a week, is almost ready to be moved to Oregon City, where the stock will be placed in the C. C. store at that place. O. J. Trambly, former manager here, went to Hillsboro yesterday where he will be employed in another of the C. C. establishments.

Archie and Fred Stroup, of Ridgefield, Washington, were the guests on Sunday of their aunt, Mrs. B. W. Emery.

Don't fail to hear Prof. T. J. Newbill, of the Arleta school tonight at the library in his lecture on school gardening. Mr. Newbill is a recognized authority on the subject and will give interesting facts from his own experience. The lecture will be illustrated by a large number of slides.

YOUTHFUL HUNTERS LOST AND FOUND

Intense excitement and much anxiety was felt last night about six o'clock, when it was learned that Clair, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Burch and Arden, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Squire had not been seen by any of the neighbors since about 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

The boys are accustomed to play together and it was supposed in each home that they were at the other, until supper time came and the youngsters could not be found. Telephone messages and frantic searching throughout the whole neighborhood brought no news of the missing boys and a search along the banks of Johnson creek was commenced in the fear that they had wandered there and been drowned.

When M. B. Currie returned from his work at the brick yards at Hogan about seven o'clock, he reported that he had seen two small boys playing about the yard late in the afternoon, and from his description it became certain that they were the lost boys. The searchers at once turned their steps toward Hogan, and were soon rewarded by meeting a man from there who had taken the boys in and fed them, and was bringing them home. They were safely brought to their homes about 8 o'clock.

The youngsters had felt the lure of spring and had started out each armed with a toy gun to have a good time. They did not realize that they were lost or the anxiety that they were causing. They had walked up the railroad track to the brick yards and had played on lumber and on cars for several hours.
