"The Linotype Way is the Way that Wins"

Official paper of the Town of Gresham, Oregon.

Official paper of the Town of Fairview, Oregon.

Entered as second-class matter March 3, 1911, at the Postoffice at Gresham, Oregon, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

CITY MEMBERS IN CONTROL.

An amazing feature of Pomona grange meeting last Wednesday, to the farmers of Eastern Multnomah was the opposition shown the proposal to appoint agricultural experts to assist in farm instruction.

It was turned down hard by city members of the grange many of them being retired farmers who have been successful and are, seemingly, opposed to allowing their less fortunate brethren any chance to have assistance.

The money has been appropriated by the state and county to carry on the work, hence would not increase taxes and the experiment could be tried here without cost, practically speaking.

Many other states have made the farm expert business profitable and it is believed that this state can do the same. The work is being carried on in some parts of Oregon now, and this section needs it as badly as any other.

The control of Pomona grange in this instance by the city members accentuates the complaint about the presence of city people in the grange, which is said to be a farmers' organization. In such matters the farmers should have all the say, and it is noticed that the subordinate granges are coming forward with petitions to have the appointments made in direct opposition to the edict of Pomona.

Better be defeated in an honest effort than to be discouraged and cease to make that effort. Up and at it should ever be the watchword of the man who feels that he has right on his side.

Clackamas county will build a steel bridge at Barton over the Clackamas river and install a rock crusher at Sandy.

All industries will be relieved in Oregon by the decision of Judge McGinn allowing semi-annual payment of taxes.

Twohy Bros., of Portland, will employ 400 men building the Echo-Coyote cutoff of twenty miles on the O. W. R. & N., to cost $800,000.

Oscar E. Heintz has contracted to build a five story block for the Blake-McFall Paper company of Portland 100x200 feet.

The five large shingle and lumber plants at Raymond have decided that the 1500 men employed by them shall work under open shop rules.

When you are in error never be ashamed to acknowledge it. It gives the other fellow no excuse for keeping up the argument.

If you want to know how people speak of you behind your back, listen to the reckless manner in which they pitch into others.

Drewsey in Harney county is to be the scene of an electrical development and an electric railroad.

The world delights in sunny people. The old hungering for love more than for bread.

Smithfield, Lane county, farmers are agitating a cannery.

TODAY.

Other suns will shine as golden, Other skies be just as blue, Other south winds blow as softly, Gently drinking up the dew; Other goldens and asters, With the sun and sky agree, These for other men and women— Just today for you and me.

Shall We Close Our Churches?

This question will be answered Sunday morning at the Baptist church 11 o'clock. Gresham has received a new revelation! All evangelical denominations have believed and taught in ages past that it was not "incredible that God should raise the dead." Acts 26: 8. But lo! A new light (?) has dawned! Prophets, Christ and apostles have told us that there will be a resurrection of the dead. But this new gospel tells they were mistaken. No resurrection of the body, only the spirit "stands up" or "is raised up from among the dead," when a person dies. This is what the word means. Not that there is an imparting of life. Not the living again of something that was dead. Job 14:14. But the emerging of that which was, now is, and always will be alive, out of form and going into something else. Wonderful resurrection! Listen what God says, "Thy dead men shall live again together with my dead body shall they arise." "Dead body shall arise." "And many of them that sleep in the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt." Dan. 12:2. "I will ransom them from the power of the grave, I will redeem them from death." Hos. 13:14.

"Of the hope and resurrection of the dead" Acts 23:6. "No place in the Bible that speaks of the resurrection of the dead."

"There shall be a resurrection of the dead both of the just and unjust." Acts 23:15.

Jesus says: "Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming in which all that are in the graves shall hear the voice of the Son of God and shall come forth they that have done good to the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil to the resurrection of damnation." John 5:28, 29. Notice, "They that are in the graves" Not spirit coming from dead bodies. Notice, there are two classes. Good, evil, one class raised to life everlasting, the other to everlasting contempt and damnation. This is not half. How can anyone who has any knowledge of God's word say that the Bible nowhere teaches "There will be resurrection of the dead?" But let us revert to the question. "Now, if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead. But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is not Christ risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain, * * and ye are yet in your sins. * * If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus what advantage me if the dead rise not?" 1 Cor. 15:12, 13, 14, 17, 32.

If the new (?) gospel is true and if there be no resurrection of the dead, Christ is not risen.

"But those that sleep in the graves shall hear the voice of the Son of God and shall come forth; they that have done good unto the resurrection of life, and they that have done evil unto the resurrection of damnation." John 5: 28, 29. Notice, "They that are in the graves", not "spirit coming out from among dead bodies." Notice, also there are two classes "they that have done good, and they that have done evil." But this is not half. But let us revert to the question: "Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead, then is not Christ risen, then is our preaching vain and ye are yet in your sins." "If after the manner of men I have fought with the beasts at Ephesus, what advantage me if the dead rise not?" 1 Cor. 15:12, 13, 14, 17, 32. Paul says, "Yes, close your churches," "if the new gospel is true and there is no resurrection Christ is not risen." all hope is taken from the church, preaching is vain, stop it. Your faith is vain, there is nothing in it. All hope is taken from the church. Preaching vain, stop it! Your faith vain; there is nothing in it. Have your conflicts, fightings, quit it, there is no profit.

But we will cling to the old gospel that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures, and that He was raised the third day according to the scriptures. His resurrection is a pledge of our resurrection and with the great apostle we can triumphantly exclaim: Death is swallowed up in victory. O Death where is thy sting. O grave where is thy victory? Thanks be unto God who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ."

E. A. LEONARD.

J. M. Eddy and associates have organized a company to operate a basalt rock quarry on Kentuck Inlet, North Bend.

The Oregon Power company will spend $10,000 on a new fuel plant at Eugene.

Albany city council has adopted resolutions looking to acquiring a municipal light and power plant for that city.

NOTED EDITOR SAYS THE PRESS RULES

Newspapers constitute the real governing force in Oregon; before long, they will govern the whole United States. This is the view of R. J. Hendricks, of Salem, publisher of the Salem Statesman, the Northwest Poultry Journal and the Pacific Homestead, who went to Eugene to speak before the State University's classes in journalism. Mr. Hendricks said the extreme development of popular government in Oregon had caused this taking over of the functions commonly supposed to be exercised by governors and legislatures. His talk contained an exhortation that the power of the newspapermen, thus greatly enhanced, be directed honestly and toward social and community betterment.

Mr. Hendricks, who even before he attended the University of Oregon 30 years ago, was in newspaper work and who has been at it ever since he left the University, still thinks it a good occupation. He thinks it also a remunerative one, provided, he says, the publisher is not afraid of 16 hours of toil daily.

Proposed laws menacing to industrial development in Oregon are the $1500 tax exemption and the taxation of properties of over $50,000 of decedents for a fund for the unemployed.

Lane county manufacturers adopted resolutions favoring the use of Oregon building stone and Oregon made steel on public structures.

Steel for the $800,000 Southern Pacific bridge across Coos Bay is being rushed to the scene of construction.

A large sand and gravel plant is being installed at Shady Point, near Sutherlin, with a spur from the Southern Pacific.

Geo. Glensendorfer, an experienced box manufacturer has started a large box factory at Bandon.

Barometers Indicate State of Mind.

If you're a business man—watch the barometer.

If you want to sell a big bill of goods—watch the barometer. Such is the advice of Dr. Colin A. Scott, professor of psychology in the Boston normal school.

The barometer, he says, is as sure an indicator of persons' minds as it is of the weather. You'll find them active and up and doing with the barometer high; gloomy and irritable with the barometer low.—Boston Post.

Got His Reward.

Years ago a tradesman whose name is now a household word was employed in a modest capacity in a west end shop in London. While exhibiting some delicate ware to the very first customer he served he let it fall and break. The customer, a doctor, good naturedly took the blame and paid for the broken article. Years later the salesman, now a wealthy man, called on the doctor, reminded him of the incident and settled on him $5,000 a year for life.—London Express.

USES OF MONEY.

I desire money because I think I know the use of it. It commands labor, it gives leisure, and to give leisure to those who will employ it in the forwarding of truth is the noblest present an individual can make to the whole.—Shelley.
