

Check Your April Cough.
Thawing frost and April rains chill you to the very marrow, you catch cold, head and lungs stuffed; you are feverish, cough continually and feel miserable. You need Dr. King's New Discovery. It soothes inflamed and irritated throat and lungs, stops cough, your head clears up, fever leaves, and you feel fine. Mr. J. T. Davis, of Stickney Corner, Me., writes "Was cured of a dreadful cough after doctor's treatment and all other remedies failed. Relief or money back. Pleasant. Children like it. Get a bottle today. 50c and $1.00 at your Druggist. Bucklen's Arnica Salve for all sores."

Strengthens Weak and Tired Women
"I was under a great strain nursing a relative through three months' sickness," writes Mrs. J. C. Van DeSande, of Kirkland, Ill., and "Electric Bitters kept me from breaking down." No appetite and food won't digest? It isn't the spring weather. You need Electric Bitters. Start a month's treatment today; nothing better for stomach, liver and kidneys. The great spring tonic. Relief or money back. 50c and $1.00 at your Druggist.

Daily and Sunday Oregonian and Twice-a-Week Outlook, special combination, 1 year, $5.00.

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Christian Science services will be held in their hall in the I. O. O. F. building Sunday at 11 o'clock. Subject, Doctrine of Atonement. The public is cordially invited.

The new store building at Linne-man is now occupied by C. M. Cogswell and wife and has been opened as a grocery and confectionery store. This is believed to be a good location and will accommodate a great many families in that locality. Mr. Cogswell is an enterprising young man and will have everything first-class.

President Lewis, of the fair association had a lot of maple trees set out on the fair grounds this week. A lot of plants, flowers and borders will follow in a short time, so as to make the grounds more attractive for the big fair next September.

Mrs. F. B. Bayne is preparing for a trip to Central Oregon next week. She will probably remain away several months in quest of better health.

Mrs. Clarence Cathey spent the day yesterday with Mrs. E. C. Lindsey and daughter, Mrs. Oscar Erickson.

N. L. Smith was the victim of an apoplectic stroke a few days ago and is not out of danger yet, although he is reported somewhat better today. His age will make a complete recovery slow, but as it was the first stroke he may overcome it as the warm weather comes on. He has the full sympathy of his numerous friends in Gresham and vicinity.

Plumbing work on the fine residences along the Sandy road west of Fairview is being done by T. J. Stillions. The three houses in course of construction there belong to the Fitzgerald brothers, William Tegart and F. Ledbury. They will each cost nearly $3,000 when completed.

County surveyors have been engaged during the past few days running levels through the streets of Gresham which it is proposed to improve by hard surfacing. Main street, Powell street and south Roberts avenue are receiving attention. The survey work is only preliminary to determine the amount of grading and filling.

Henry E. Wemme is preparing to grade the auto road from Sandy river to the toll gate and has been granted the use of a grader by the commissioners of Multnomah county. One of the graders from this road section will be used.

Ray Palmquist and Floyd Metzger, who came home for the weekend from Corvallis, visited the high school on Monday.

The lucky winners of the prize numbers in connection with W. R. Burke's sale of photographic supplies for March were H. H. Gentry of Cascade Locks, Jackson Jones and William Fritz.

Oscar Thoren, of Newport, Oregon, is here for a few days this week attending to business affairs. Mr. Thoren moved to Newport several months ago and has been doing carpenter work. He says Gresham shows considerable improvement within the past few months.

Owing to the absence of the pastor Rev. F. H. Freund, there will be no service at Zion Evangelical church next Sunday. The pastor goes to northern Idaho on church matters and will be at home for the following Sunday.

B. F. Bauer went out to Cherryville early this week to visit his ranch. He found everything favorable and indicative of the advancing spring.

Next Sunday morning at 11 the service at the Free Methodist church will be in charge of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society. Mrs. Hight will take charge and speak on the progress of the foreign work. Others will present other topics. The pastor will speak in the evening at the usual hour.

President Fletcher Homan, of Willamette University will preach at the Methodist Episcopal church at 11 a. m. Sunday. Preaching at 7:30 by Rev. Melville T. Wire. Mrs. Earl Thompson will render a solo at the morning service. Sunday school at 10 a. m., Junior League at 3:30 p. m., Epworth League at 6:45 p. m. You are cordially invited to these services.

Mrs. L. Osborne received a telegram this morning announcing the death of her brother P. T. Stevens at Montfort, Wisconsin, where he passed away early this morning. Mr. Stevens was 65 years old. He was engaged in the banking business. No particulars as to the cause of his death have been received, though Mrs. Osborne received a telegram announcing his serious illness two days ago.

Rev. Melville T. Wire was the guest at dinner today of Mr. and Mrs. James Sterling.

Mrs. M. E. Ordway, of Portland, visited over Monday night with Mrs. V. A. Ammerman.

Mrs. Edw. W. Hight will entertain two of the intermediate classes of the Sunday school at the Free Methodist parsonage tomorrow afternoon. She will be assisted by the teachers, Mrs. Gust Larson and Miss Rena Rugg.

A special service will be held at the Free Methodist church next Sunday morning under the direction of the local Women's Foreign Missionary society. Miss Stella Rugg will read a paper on Japan and Mrs. Edw. W. Hight will give an address on the world's awakening in foreign lands. There will be special music. All are cordially invited.

Miss Beulah Caplinger entertained today her grandmother Mrs. Jack and aunt Miss Sue Jack of Cottrell.

Mrs. Geo. Parker, who was operated on at St. Vincent's hospital last week, is reported to be making a satisfactory recovery.

S. J. Landon and daughters, Misses Alta and Zella of Lents, are spending a day or two with Mr. Landon's mother-in-law Mrs. Clara Kane. They walked from Lents yesterday just for the novelty of the trip.

Our greenhouse man, Mr. Wedell, is offering the citizens of this locality some good things in flowering and garden plants. The time is nearly gone by for carnation and chrysanthemum plants but good ones will be sold this week and next. Many have gotten these plants and found them large and they are easily transplanted and bloom right away. Give your assistance to a local enterprise if you can use these plants.

Miss Ruth Farut, of Park River, N. D., is visiting at the home of Geo. F. Honey for a few days. She spent the winter in California and is on her way home.

Mrs. N. Gullickson and daughter Iris, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reed and Mrs. Cecil Metzger went to Bull Run yesterday, returning in the evening.

Florence Eleanor, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Reed, died this morning at the hospital in Portland where she had been taken for special care. She was three weeks and two days old. Funeral services will be held tomorrow from the home of Mrs. N. Gullickson at 1:30 o'clock. Dr. A. Thompson will officiate.

The sophomore class will entertain the other high school classes this evening at the high school building. Sure; go to church.

FRIENDSHIP DEFINED.
"Define the word 'friend,'" was the last question in the language test. After much consideration, freckle-faced John handed in the following: "A friend's a feller that knows all about you, and yet likes you."

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Ingils.

USE GOOD PAINT

Heath & Milligan Mfg. Co.

HEATH AND MILLIGAN PAINT is known the world over as the STANDARD OF QUALITY.

When you use a first-class paint you avoid the necessity of painting so often. There are numerous buildings in this vicinity painted with H. and M. paint that have not been repainted for years.

This is the best of proof that HEATH and MILLIGAN PAINT is the most economical paint to use.

Costs no more than other paints. LET'S TALK PAINT.

General Lee's grandson and another student who were top-notchers in football at the West Point Military academy were dismissed for being deficient in their studies. It didn't happen that way with General Lee—but then football was not included in his curriculum.

Do you believe in churches? Of course you do. Then back up your belief by attendance on some church, not only on "Go to church Sunday" but on every Sunday when you possibly can do so.

It will do you good to make a special effort to go to church Sunday. It will strengthen your moral muscle and make it easier to keep it up for the rest of the year.

When called upon to state how they succeeded so well

Generally tell us in a couple of dozen words the formula, that will turn the magic trick.

Other men, in a few words and flourishes pretend to say how the finances of the nation should be settled, but their own grocery bills go unpaid.

All of this sort of stuff is generally far from the point.

There is no royal road to fortune—the man or woman who diligently apply themselves each day to the problems of that day and

Hold the outgo inside of the income are making headway that counts.

The practice of Economy in the household does not go hand in hand with the matter of PRICE.

Goods that have only the PRICE to recommend them are generally DEAR, AT ANY PRICE.

QUALITY GOODS go further, last longer and are always more satisfactory, than goods having only the PRICE to support them.

The housewife, in self protection, should learn the practice of BUYING BY BRAND all the table foods she uses.

LOOK FOR LOWERED COST OF LIVING

A great many of the necessities of life bid fair to be cheapened—we hope without any corresponding reduction in the reward for honest effort, the difference being taken rather from the profits of that class of speculators and middlemen who perform no real service for society.
