POSTOFFICE BLDG., GRESHAM

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Mrs. L. D. Creevy of Beaver, Tillamook county is here for an extended visit with her daughters Mrs. M. Vogel and Miss Margaret Creevy.

J. C. Peterson returned from Manzanita beach where he went recently to look after his property.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Clanahan will go this evening to hear the oratorio "Elijah," which will be given at Masonic Temple by a chorus of 50 voices. Their son Dr. J. E. Clanahan is one of the singers.

Among those who went to Portland last Sunday to hear Eugene W. Chaffin, the great prohibition orator, were Mr. and Mrs. George F. Honey, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Honey, J. N. Clanahan, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Carlson, Mrs. Clara Kane, Mrs. S. R. Bradford and Grandma Davis. Mr. Chaffin held his audience spellbound for nearly an hour and a half as they listened to his arguments and appeals.

Arrangements have been made for a republican rally in Commercial club hall on Thursday night this week at which Judge L. T. Harris of Eugene, candidate for supreme judge, and J. J. Johnson, candidate for attorney general, will be the principal speakers. H. A. Darnall, Ray Gill, Robert C. Wright, E. E. Southard, R. A. Willison and Everett Logan, candidates for the legislature, will also speak.

O. W. Tarr's announcement that he is about to sell his dairy herd at auction comes somewhat as a surprise, but he has an advertisement elsewhere that he is going out of the milk business for good after having secured 30 head of high grade cows and built up a Portland route. Read his announcement for particulars and date of sale.

Joseph Kronenberg has sold his farm between Gresham and Troutdale to an eastern man named Kneifel who will take possession tomorrow. There are 24 acres in the tract with a good dwelling and other improvements. The sale price was $5,500.

William Childers has leased the Elliott property on the Powell Valley road at the south end of Cleveland avenue and has taken possession. There are 20 acres in the tract all in cultivation, which Mr. Childers will take care of in addition to his duties as rural carrier on route No. 2.

Lumber is on the ground for an awning porch over the front of the Gresham Real Estate Co.'s office on Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Truitt entertained at dinner on Sunday, her sister Mrs. Harry Wood and son Geuarney, Mr. and Mrs. James McKinney and David Culy at their new home on Third and Elliott avenue.

Firemen! Don't forget the regular monthly business meeting of the department tomorrow (Wednesday) night at the fire hall. Meeting begins at 8 o'clock.

W. R. Burke's winnings numbers for kodak accessories for May are 1218, 1268, 1290, 1337, 1388. Special meetings will be held this week in the Free Methodist church led by Rev. M. L. Schooley. Mr. Schooley will preach every evening during the week and morning and evening next Sunday. He will also hold a Bible reading each afternoon except Saturday at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. E. M. Douglass has moved onto her place south of Troutdale where she will live this summer. Miss Irene will be with her mother after school closes. Mrs. Douglass reports considerable loss of produce from vandals while the place was unoccupied.

Last Friday's ball game between the Gresham high school boys and the Behnke-Walkers was a victory for the latter by a score of 11 to 9. Next Friday's game will be with the Portland academy's first team, on the Gresham grounds.

Word has been received here that E. G. Kardell has been appointed postmaster at Manzanita beach.

Smith Memorial church of Fairview, will observe Mother's Day next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Special music will be rendered.

What was perhaps meant for a practical joke, was perpetrated on Mrs. Vogel and Miss Creevy Monday morning. Someone hung a black cloth on their door knob in such a way as to look like crepe. The ladies were in Portland at the time where they had been called by the death of their aunt. They were highly indignant at the act, as it was not only a shock to them but to their friends.

The Ladies' Aid monthly business meeting and tea will be held tomorrow, May 6, at the home of Mrs. J. T. Stillions on Kenney avenue. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Miss Christine Burkholder visited with Gresham friends on Saturday.

Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, of Portland, visited over Sunday with relatives and friends in Gresham.

Mrs. Lillian Pullen and little daughter Addie have gone to McMinnville where they will remain for a few weeks with Mrs. Pullen's sister, Mrs. Violet Thornton.

Miss Ruby Emery underwent a surgical operation at Good Samaritan hospital Friday. Her condition was critical but is now considered favorable.

Rev. Melville T. Wire was the guest at dinner Monday of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Caldo.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Telephone company, held last Friday evening, O. J. Brown resigned as a director. The vacancy will probably be filled at the next meeting of the board.

TWO MORE TEACHERS HAVE BEEN RE-ELECTED

Two other teachers of the Gresham school have been re-elected to their former positions. Miss Mabel Arthur will remain in charge of the eighth grade and Miss Mae Hughes as teacher of the primary grade.

Judge Cotton to Address Grange.

W. W. Cotton will be the principal speaker at the meeting of Gresham grange next Saturday. His subject will be "The Farmer as a Seller." Other features of the lecture hour, which is open to all, will be violin and cornet solos, songs by members of the grange, and a song by a ladies' chorus consisting of Mesdames James Elkington, L. C. St. Clair, Myrtle Myers, J. N. Clanahan and Miss Olive Towle.

The morning session will be devoted to routine business and work in the third and fourth degrees. The splendid dinner at noon will be followed by a social hour before the beginning of the program. All are invited to come out and have a good time.

Rheumatism Quickly Cured.

"My sister's husband had an attack of rheumatism in his arm," writes a well known resident of Newton, Iowa. "I gave him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment which he applied to his arm and on the next morning the rheumatism was gone." For chronic muscular rheumatism you will find nothing better than Chamberlain's Liniment. Sold by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Child Cross? Feverish? Sick?

A cross, peevish, listless child with coated tongue, pale, doesn't sleep; eats sometimes very little, then again ravenously; stomach sour; breath fetid; pains in stomach, with diarrheal grinds teeth while asleep, and starts up with terror—all suggest a Worm Killer—something that expels worms, and almost every child has them. Kickapoo Worm Killer is needed. Get a box today. Start at once. You won't have to coax, as Kickapoo Worm Killer is a candy confection. Expels the worms, the cause of your child's trouble. 25c at your Druggist.

INTERESTING PROGRAM AT FAIRVIEW GRANGE

At Fairview grange on Saturday last the lecturer's program covered a wide variety of subjects. H. A. Darnall spoke of the public market and urged farmers to take their produce to it. Talks were made by Mrs. J. C. Windle, J. Luscher, Rev. Thos. Robinson, Blaine Turner, D. S. Dunbar, Cedric Stone, Mrs. D. W. McKay, Mrs. J. W. Townsend and others. The subject discussed was "Are any of the Laws Unjust to the Farmer?" Mrs. Windle spoke on the eight-hour law. Also the $1500 exemption and tubercular test for cows were discussed.

We hand you something new in the soap-maker's art

Christie Mac Donald, the famous actress, says:

"Your Nyal's Face Cream Soap is perfect. It is one of the few soaps which I can use and think yours the equal of any of the imported $2 and $3 cakes which I have tried."

Yes—it's all too true. Nyal's Face Cream Soap is vastly superior to all other soaps. It cleanses and purifies the skin, keeping it clear, rosy, velvety and elastic.

It is fragrant and subtly sweet. No—it will not smart the most tender skin. Really—it's the pride of particular people—why don't you use it?

Of course, you value a beautiful, healthy skin, then—use Nyal's Face Cream Soap. It is the acme of the soap-maker's art because it gives a soft bubbly lather and is fragrant as the flowers.

It costs twenty-five cents the cake and well worth it. Nyal's Face Cream Soap will improve your complexion. Come to our store—get a cake today. This is the one soap you've been looking for.

Are You PATRONIZING the HOME BANK?

or are you entrusting your money to a bank somewhere else, with no more knowledge of that bank than can be obtained from its skeletonized financial statement?

Know the MEN You Are Banking With

Our officers and directors are known to you and your friends as responsible men.

They are accessible—"get-at-able"—when you wish to talk things over with them.

Character counts as much as capital. Why not bank where you are sure of both?

Wherever you bank it, your money will be used. Why not bank it where it will be used safely and for the upbuilding and improvement of the home town and community?
