KEEN RIVALRY IN DAIRYING

When O. W. Tarr and G. H. Dammeier started the dairy business, some two years ago, there was quite a rivalry between them as to who would excel both in modern equipment, sanitary arrangement and quality of herd. In many instances they tore down and rebuilt parts where they found something that excelled what they had already built. One particular instance was when Mr. Tarr put in several hundred feet of coil pipe for cooling water with ice and brine, did Mr. Dammeier tear out his entire refrigerator inside and adopt the coil system.

They could hardly wait till the barns and milk houses were completed before they had their herds started, housing them in sheds for the time being. Then the real strife began to see who would collect the finest herd. Mr. Tarr "slipped one over" on Mr. Dammeier when he went out to Geo. Beard's sale at Hillsboro and bought six of the best cows out of 28 head—part registered and part pure breeds. Mr. Dammeier was not there as he mistook the date of sale.

Then he had to get busy, and as they were both at Mr. Spillman's sale Mr. Dammeier would not let any one have a cow he had picked out. Mr. Tarr got in, for while Mr. Dammeier was looking at another cow Mr. Tarr secured Barzie of St. Lambert, registered, which they both picked up to buy, Mr. Cleveland taking Barzie's calf at $69. Harry West of Scappoose then came in on a late train and made Mr. Dammeier pay some fancy prices for some registered calves which Mr. West was desirous of securing. In one instance he forced him up to $187 for a fine registered calf. These two sales were all that were held that fall and the balance of the herds were picked up one or two at a time as they made trips through the Willamette valley in their automobiles.

Both men started milk routes in the city with auto delivery. Mr. Dammeier taking Irvington and Mr. Tarr delivering in the Nob Hill district. Just at the time Mr. Tarr was short of milk for his route not having cows enough to supply his trade, business called Mr. Dammeier away and he was forced to discontinue the dairy industry for the time being and he sold his entire herd of prize winners to Mr. Tarr. These are the cows Mr. Tarr will sell at auction Thursday, May 21st. The name adopted by Mr. Tarr "Vine Lodge Dairy," still lives, Mr. Hoover of Portland having paid Mr. Tarr a handsome price for the customers and reputation he has built up for a fine quality of milk in the Nob Hill district.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS FOR AUTOMOBILE CLUB

A. D. Norris, of the Portland Railway Light & Power company was here on Wednesday and was accompanied by B. O. Boswell on a business mission to the automobile club house at Sandy bridge.

The result of their trip will be the immediate extension of a high voltage line from Gresham to the club house and the lighting of the club buildings and grounds by electricity.

The line will run from the Gresham power station to the Twelve-Mile house thence out the Base Line road. Two prominent farmers, Emil Olsen and Sam Strebin will also take the service and others are becoming interested with the assurance that practically every farm house along the line will also have electric lights as soon as they can be installed.

The work will begin at once and completed as soon as possible.

To the Ladies.
Your attention is called to the splendid bargains in ladies' trimmed hats at $1.50 up, and untrimmed hats at 75 cents and up at the Gresham Millinery Store, Main street.

LEGAL FORMALITIES BEING DISPOSED OF

Articles of incorporation of the Gresham Fruitgrowers' association have been left at the office of Recorder Roberts where the five incorporators have been notified to call and sign them.

At the meeting to be held next Monday evening the matter of pushing subscriptions will be taken up in earnest, the new subscription blanks being ready for distribution.

Very little has been done during the week in that line, owing to the delay in getting the papers signed and sent away to the secretary of state and the county clerk. To make the matter legal the corporation commission at Salem will have to grant a permit to the incorporators to begin and all subscriptions before that time would necessarily be tentative in their character.

There is the same disposition to proceed with the enterprise and active operations will commence as soon as all legal formalities have been complied with.

SIDEWALK RIDERS BEWARE, BEWARE

The closed season for riding on the sidewalks, as provided for by a city ordinance, is upon the town, and there is grief and tribulation in store for the offender who is caught by the city marshal after this notice has been made public.

There has been some forbearance on the part of the authorities during the past two weeks as the habit of riding bicycles on the walks has been a hard one to overcome after a winter of mud and slush and other obstacles that the riders found in the streets, but the summer sun and north winds having made them passable and the street cleaning department having hauled away the objectionable features, there is going to be a rigid enforcement of the law until the open season comes again.

Marshal McKinney is making this notice the final one on this subject, and those who are caught will have to tell their troubles to Recorder Roberts and help finance the city treasury to the extent of a few shekels for every offense.

LIGHT VOTE CAST IN EVERY PRECINCT

Reports from several country precincts up to two o'clock indicate a light vote everywhere. In the two Gresham precincts there had been less than 150 votes cast at the noon closing hour but it was believed that the afternoon vote would be heavy.

In No. 308 the judges are James Lawrence, M. D. Kern and D. W. Metzger; clerks, Mrs. O. A. Eastman, Mrs. Rose Metzger and Ed. Ay's worth. The officers in 309 are, Judges, Martin Roberts, S. S. Thompson and James Sterling; clerks, Mrs. James Elkington, Miss Eva Anderson and Ray Todd.

Efforts to forecast the result are useless. There is very little enthusiasm for any candidate, all of them seeming to have their partisan friends. It is probably the same all over the county except in a few Portland precincts where the strife runs high between certain candidates.

As the polls will not close before 8 o'clock there will be very little known concerning the result until tomorrow afternoon.

With the close of the campaign for primary nominations the newspapers have ceased to be the illustrated journals they were up to this morning. It is somewhat of a relief to be able to give the news once more, although there are many who think political news is the best.

The Reed college educational conference began today and will continue until Sunday afternoon with an educational program three times daily. It will be an important gathering of all the co-operating organizations of the state.

The De Luse Mining and Dredging company has bought a large orchard at Gold Hill and will work the ground for placer gold.

A new company has been formed at Newport to put a modern halibut fishing schooner on the banks north of that place.

PRIVATE HOSPITAL AND SANITARIUM

There is a good prospect that Gresham will have a hospital and sanitarium sometime in the near future.

Negotiations are under way for the purchase of the twenty acres owned by Ralph Miller at the corner of Division street and Wallula avenue. Mr. Miller and a representative of an existing sanitarium in Portland were out here last Sunday looking over the ground, but the result of their conference has not been made public.

The property is ideal for the purpose intended. It lies high and slightly with a gentle slope to the north and east and is flanked on two sides by well improved streets. Its acquisition by Gresham would be of great importance, as it is understood that the institution is one of the most prominent of its kind in the city and is only seeking a larger area for the work it has to do.

At noon a picnic dinner will be furnished by the women. All are looking forward to a happy, profitable time. A special invitation is extended to all, both to work and eat.

MRS. JOHN BLISS WINS CHINA SET

Troutdale route one seems to have the lucky women when it comes to winning china dinner sets at the store of the Pulifer Mercantile company. At the second drawing, last Wednesday the number hidden under the seal was 20,987. The lucky holder of the nearest number produced was Mrs. John Bliss. Her ticket registered 20,061, which was the nearest number of the several hundred at hand, and she was declared the winner.

The next drawing will be held on Wednesday afternoon, and all tickets should be kept as they are all good until the end of the series. Only those actually in the store at 3 o'clock will have any chance.

HOWITT'S MARKET LEASED BY BROWN

A. J. W. Brown has leased the Howitt proprietor. Mr. Howitt's extensive business in Portland demands all his time and attention and he has left the management of the market to Mr. Brown for more than a year past.

In becoming the actual proprietor, Mr. Brown will continue along the same lines as formerly and but for the fact that he is now the owner instead of the manager, no one would notice the difference.

The quality of meats will be maintained at their usual standard direct from Howitt's refrigerator plant in Portland and prices for meats will be as low as is consistent with fair profits.

The farmers around Burns have let a contract for erection of a co-operative meat packing plant.

The port of Coos Bay commission will issue $300,000 bonds to complete harbor improvements.

The Presbyterian church of Eugene, will be rebuilt of white pressed brick—Oregon made.

The Geo. Moore Lumber Co. has secured 150,000,000 feet of timber on the Coquille river.

The Progressives in Oregon rank below the socialists in registration numbers.

OPEN HIGHWAY IS PROPOSED

Mention was made last week of the proposed full opening and improving of the county road leading westward from the Gresham gravel pit.

When William Sales fenced up one half of the highway in front of his property the others interested got busy with a petition to the county commissioners asking for its full improvement. The petition was signed by a large number who make frequent use of the road and the prospects are good that the opening full width will be ordered.

At present only the south half has been open for travel but as the road, as originally laid out is 60 feet in width, the 30 feet in use is sufficient for present needs. The great increase in travel demands that it be opened soon to its full width, besides it is the principal outlet of several families and is growing in favor as a road leading from the lower Base Line to Gresham as it has no heavy grades such as is to be found on the Base Line below the Twelve Mile corner and on Wallula and Stanley avenues and the Section Line.

The county commissioners have promised to have the road surveyed and all artificial obstructions removed. The matter of improving it has been taken under advisement awaiting a report from the superintendent.

ANNUAL SESSION OF OREGON STATE GRANGE

The forty-first annual session of the Oregon state grange will convene at Monmouth next Tuesday, and will continue four days. Delegates from Multnomah county who will attend are C. M. Lake and wife of Multnomah grange, John Richmond and wife of Rockwood grange, John Welbes and wife of Russelville grange.

Committee assignments include five of the delegation from this county, as follows: Finance, C. M. Lake, chairman; elections, John Richmond, chairman; assessment and taxation, Mrs. John Richmond; co-operation, John Welbes; by-laws, Mrs. John Welbes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Littlepage, well known here but now residents of Wasco county, are also delegates, both having committee assignments. Several prominent members of the grange from this section will attend the session for a day or two, the opportunity being a good one for renewing old acquaintances.

A Challenge.

On account of the impertinent challenges from our auto friends on the Base Line road and the offers of assistance to help increase our speed, we hereby offer a challenge to any and all autos to a trial of speed from Montavilla to the 12-Mile house for $1000 a side, on the distinct understanding that the said auto carry as heavy a load as is carried by the truck
