GRESHAM WINS BASEBALL GAME

Today's ball game between the Gresham high school and the Troutdale nine resulted in a victory for Gresham by a score of nine to nothing.

Scenic

The meeting of the Scenic improvement club was well attended. Some of the patrons were unable to attend but sent a generous lot of geraniums and other flowers which was greatly appreciated. After the work was completed a social hour was spent. A very pleasant surprise was given the willing workers by Mrs. J. R. Duncan, who prepared and served a delicious cake and fruit punch. Another meeting will be held in the near future.

Miss Ellen DeHaven spent the week-end with home folks.

Mr. Hugh, of Portland, visited his little daughters Alice and Lois who are making their home at present with Mrs. Geo. Matteson.

Mrs. Zingshiem, of Portland, spent a few days with her sister, Mrs. J. R. Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur, of Portland, were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Jack.

Baptist Ladies' Aid society meets with Mrs. D. D. Jack Thursday.

Clarence Stephens visited his sister, Mrs. B. C. Altman, this week.

Geo. Bauder's cow, which disappeared from the pasture last Sunday night, was found in the woods south of Pleasant Home, and seems to be none the worse for having strayed away.

Cure for Stomach Disorders.

Disorders of the stomach may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many very remarkable cures have been effected by these tablets. Sold by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Lusted

Mrs. B. C. Altman conducted the eighth grade examinations in the school on last Thursday and Friday. Zena Neibauer was the only one to be examined. Having been in the school but a short time it was necessary for her to write the examinations. Two pupils, Glen and Earl Andre were passed without examination.

Mrs. John Sleret gave a tea at her home last Thursday in honor of Grandma Sleret of Gresham. Those present were Mrs. J. Robertson, Mrs. Sester, Mrs. Eilers and Miss Diana Weatherwax.

Mrs. P. Michel, Mrs. L. Osborn, Miss Maude Michel and Miss Bessie Osborn of Gresham were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Robertson last Sunday.

The five hundred card party met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Rauw last Saturday evening. A large crowd was present. Miss Marian Robertson won the highest score and Fred Carlton the lowest. Candy was served during the evening. All present had a good time.

Mrs. G. Lusted was doing business in Gresham last Monday.

The farmers should be on the lookout these days. There have been a good many poultry houses visited lately and some valuable chickens taken.

Mr. Robertson and son Guy loaded a car load of potatoes at Scenic this week for Mr. Swank of Portland.

N. W. Jackson, of the Scenic Park place, is making some more improvements in the way of a fine poultry house. He expects to handle principally the White Leghorns.

Mrs. Ed. Hamilton accompanied Miss Nellie Weatherwax to Portland last Monday. The latter is sewing this week for Mrs. Edith Whitesides, a sister of Ed. Hamilton.

Farmers and fruit growers of the state generally are organizing against the proposed eight hour law.

We hand you something new in the soap-maker's art

Christie MacDonald, the famous actress, says:

"Your Nyal's Face Cream Soap is perfect. It is one of the few soaps which I can use and think yours the equal of any of the imported $2 and $3 cakes which I have tried."

Yes—it's all too true. Nyal's Face Cream Soap is vastly superior to all other soaps. It cleanses and purifies the skin, keeping it clear, rosy, velvety and elastic.

It is fragrant and subtly sweet. No—it will not smart the most tender skin. Really—it's the pride of particular people—why don't you use it?

Of course, you value a beautiful, healthy skin, then—use Nyal's Face Cream Soap. It is the acme of the soap-maker's art because it gives a soft bubbly lather and is fragrant as the flowers.

It costs twenty-five cents the cake and well worth it. Nyal's Face Cream Soap will improve your complexion. Come to our store—get a cake today. This is the one soap you've been looking for.
