The fourth quarterly meeting of the conference year convenes in the Free Methodist church this evening and lasts over Sunday. Sunday services will be as follows: Sunday school at 9:30, lovefeast at 10:15. Morning sermon at 11. Evening service beginning at 8:00. Rev. M. L. Schooley will preach both morning and evening. He will also preach Friday and Saturday evenings. The public is invited to attend each and every service. Edwin W. Hight, pastor.

A. H. Gould is adding a sleeping porch to his house in Thompson addition.

Andrew Pullen left Thursday for Newberg, Ore., where he will spend a part of his vacation with relatives.

Rev. M. L. Schooley, who has conducted a series of Bible readings at the Free Methodist church and is now conducting the fourth quarterly conference, was one of a company of about fifty who gathered Wednesday evening at the home of Rev. W. H. Boddy, pastor of Central Free Methodist church in Portland and gave him a genuine surprise party. Rev. Mr. Boddy has preached his farewell sermon to his congregation, having reached the three year limit of time in which he may remain pastor of one church.

Frank Escobar, sexton of the Gresham cemetery, is taking up a collection for the purpose of improving and beautifying the tract. The work to be done will depend on the amount collected, which is quite liberal.

Miss LaVerne GivVaun, of Portland, late graduate of New York musical conservatory, is spending the week at the home of Mrs. C. A. Hoffman.

Christian Science services will be held in the hall in the L. O. O. F. building Sunday at 11 o'clock. Subject, Mortals and Immortals. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services.

D. F. Bremner and wife, of Chicago, returning from a trip to California, called on Mr. and Mrs. John Conley on Wednesday. Mr. Bremner is a cousin of Mrs. Conley and David Brooks. Their stay was brief, but they expressed themselves delighted with Oregon.

Mrs. Chas. Taylor, of Hillsview, was the guest at dinner today of Rev. and Mrs. Edw. W. Hight.

O. I. Neal is having his residence painted. Fred Todd is doing the work.

Next Sunday at the Baptist church the pastor, Rev. E. A. Leonard, will preach both morning and evening. At 11 a. m. the topic will be "The greatest thing in the world." At 8 p. m. the sermon will be on "Motive and method or is conscience a correct guide?"

Misses Ethel Calkins, Olive Towle, Anna Brugger and Margaret Burke attended the Greek play "Antigone" at Reed College, given by the student body. Eighteen girls sang in Greek while actors rendered their parts on the platform.

Gresham lodge No. 152 A. F. & A. M. will go in a body next Monday evening to Montavilla to visit East Gate lodge No. 155.

Walter Scott and family will move from Bull Run to Gresham next week. Mrs. Scott will assist Mrs. Squire in her dressmaking establishment.

Gus Purren, of Corbett, is here for a few days on his way to Alaska. He will start for the north on Monday.

John P. Freeman, assisted by Ernest Freeman is painting the former's dwelling house on Stanley avenue.

Mrs. Ed. Radcliff, of Sellwood, visited yesterday with Mrs. J. N. Mewhitzer and other Gresham friends.

W. J. Morris and family are moving today from Frank Heiney's bungalow on Third street to Sellwood where he will be nearer his work.

Rev. M. L. Schooley and Rev. Edwin W. Hight are planning to spend Saturday at Reed College in attendance at the conference in session there.

Miss Ethel Calkins has secured a position as teacher of the first and second grades in the school at Carlton, Oregon, for the coming year.

Miss Emma Langworthy, of Newberg, has returned to her home after a visit of a day or two with her aunt Mrs. C. M. Oliphant. Miss Langworthy was a delegate from Yamhill county to the prohibition nominating convention in Portland last week.

The Women's Home Missionary society held its annual mite box opening at the church on Wednesday afternoon. The offerings amounted to $20. Music was furnished by the ladies' chorus and Miss Echo Jones. Talks were given by Rev. Dr. Conkle and Rev. Melville T. Wire. Mrs. J. N. Clannahan read a report of the district convention recently held at Oregon City and also a communication from the state supply secretary informing her of her election as district supply secretary. Ice cream and cake were served after the program.

Health a Factor in Success.

The largest factor contributing to a man's success is undoubtedly health. It has been observed that a man is seldom sick when his bowels are regular—he is never well when they are constipated. For constipation you will find nothing quite so good as Chamberlain's Tablets. They not only move the bowels but improve the digestion. They are sold by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Miss Margaret Creecy and the members of her Sunday school class were entertained yesterday at the home of one of the members, Miss Letitia Pulfer. The afternoon was spent in playing games after which Mrs. Pulfer served ice cream and cake.
