

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Mrs. Lillian Pullen entertained the members of her Sunday school class at her home last Wednesday afternoon at a frolic and an ice cream treat.

The committee on music for the Fourth of July celebration requests the assistance of all singers in Gresham and vicinity. A meeting has been called for next Monday night at the Methodist Episcopal church when they request the presence of all adult singers and singers from the high school. Bring books with patriotic songs. If you have such books and cannot possibly come to this meeting, send the books.

Mrs. Clarence Cathey and her mother Mrs. Spain, of Portland, visited one day this week with the latter's brother E. F. Andre of Cottrell.

Margaret and William McTaggart, of Seattle, grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson, are visiting at the Johnson home on Wallula Heights.

Christian Science service will be held in their hall in the I. O. O. F. building Sunday at 11 o'clock. Subject, Christian Science. The public is cordially invited to attend the church services.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Wright attended the nurses' graduation exercises and banquet of the Multnomah hospital in Portland last evening. Their daughter, Miss Beulah, was on of the graduates.

Taberculin tests of dairy cows are being made in the Columbia slough this week. While the most of the herds are escaping with slight loss the big herd on the Barker farm, owned by a dairyman by the name of Wahl, has lost 28 head. The tests are very rigid.

Bids for the new bridge across the Sandy were opened by the county commissioners and found unsatisfactory. They were ordered to be advertised again and to be opened July 16. It is intended to have the bridge finished by December 1.

Invitations have been issued to a vocal and piano recital to be given by the pupils of Catherine Cobach-Fredrich at the auditorium of the Lincoln High school in Portland next Tuesday evening. On that occasion Mrs. Emil Oswald will sing, "I Think", D'Hardelet and "The Wood Pigeon" (The Bird Songs) by Lehmann.

High Standard PAINT

and you have
AN INVESTMENT

WHETHER your painting is an investment or an expense depends on what paint you buy. Don't buy paint that has to be prepared by hand. In that case you pay extra for painter's time in mixing. Don't buy cheap paints, even though ready mixed. You get just what you pay for—an inferior paint and inferior results.

Low Brothers
"High Standard" Liquid Paint

Gives Best Results. Costs a trifle more by the gallon but very much less for the job because it is thoroughly machine-made and has skill, experience and a reputation behind it, and therefore does more work.
