

FEATURES OF CELEBRATION

The Women's celebration flower committee is anxious to get flowers for decorative purposes and requests that unlimited quantities be brought to the fair grounds by 10 o'clock tomorrow, Friday, morning. Wild flowers and ferns especially are wanted.

The machinery hall has been selected as the place for the flower show and will be decorated in evergreens and flowers. The Women's flower committee consists of Mrs. Charles Cleveland, Mrs. H. E. Davis, Mrs. Maxwell Schneider, Mrs. E. A. Leonard, Mrs. Geo. F. Honey, Mrs. Hattie Wostell, Mrs. R. R. Carlson, Mrs. J. H. Metzger and Miss Pearl Jones. They are requested to be on hand promptly at 10 o'clock Friday forenoon to assist in the decorations. Volunteer help from anyone, especially boys and girls, will be appreciated.

H. E. Davis will be marshal of the Day and is chairman of the Liberty car committee. Bert Metzger has been selected to act as chairman of the float committee. The program is under the supervision of J. E. Stubbs. Mrs. O. J. Brown is in charge of the music and singing.

The choir will use H. E. Davis' auto truck in the parade. A piano kindly furnished by R. R. Carlson will be used during the program and for the dancing in the pavilion during the afternoon and evening.

Aylsworth's orchestra will furnish the music for dancing, while the Pleasant Home band will lead the parade and enliven the day with patriotic airs.

REMAINS TO BE BURIED AT DAYTON, WASH.

The remains of Mrs. Catherine Vaughn were sent to Dayton, Wash., last week, where they were buried this afternoon from the Baptist church. Mrs. Vaughn was born July 15, 1839, her maiden name being Clingingsmith. Her children yet living are Mrs. Mary S. Shoemaker of Gresham; Peter McClung, of Pomeroy, Wash.; Mrs. Jane Buchanan, of Rickeral, Ore.; and Edgar McClung of Gresham. She was married twice, her wedding to Ed. Vaughn taking place about 28 years ago. They have been living here for over a year past. Mr. Vaughn, Mrs. Shoemaker, Ed. McClung and Miss Elizabeth Shoemaker from here accompanied the remains to Dayton last night. Brief services were held yesterday afternoon at the Shoemaker home by Rev. E. A. Leonard. Mrs. Inez Miller and Mrs. J. N. Clanahan sang several hymns.

OFF TO THE DALLES TOMORROW MORNING

The Gresham Girls' Hose Team is preparing to leave tomorrow morning for The Dalles to take part in the Fourth of July tournament and celebration to be held there.

They will leave Fairview on the morning train, arriving at The Dalles about noon. Mrs. C. Merrill will be their chaperon.

Postoffice hours on Saturday will be from 8 a. m. to 9 a. m. during which the general delivery and carriers' windows will be open. There will be no service on the rural routes.

Special Fence sale, 39 in. Field Fence at 27c per rod; 3 ft. Wire Gate $2.25. Metzger Bros.—Adv.

BUSINESS MEN WERE GENEROUS

The list of prizes donated by the business men of Gresham are an evidence of their generosity when it comes to promoting a worthy object. While the intrinsic value of the articles is not great they show a spirit of enterprise in helping along a laudable enterprise that may develop into something greater.

ORIENT PLANNING FOR HIGH SCHOOL

Plans will be sought and bids advertised for at once for the $2000 addition to Orient school for a high school to be in operation this fall, and at a meeting of 50 legal taxpayers of joint district No. 6 Monday afternoon at the schoolhouse a special tax of 3 mills for the building and three additional mills for maintaining the two schools was voted.

The report of a committee, consisting of A. F. Chase, I. N. L. Shriner and C. H. Johanson, appointed to measure the grounds and co-operate with the school board, was accepted and the committee was discharged. Plans decided upon subject to the approval of County Superintendent Armstrong, call for a two story building, 32 by 40 feet, with concrete basement, on the north side of the present building. Stairs will be erected between the two buildings and an additional exit in case of fire will be connecting doors between the addition and the old building.

The local school board, which will have charge of building plans, consists of J. S. Abel, chairman, K. Nasshahn and Victor Johnson.

TWENTY-SIX SESSIONS, MORNING CLASSES

Twenty-six big afternoon and evening programs, innumerable morning summer school classes, countless musical features including daily concerts by the well known Parson's orchestra and solos by Portland's leading musicians, headed by Mr. Stuart McGuire, daily baseball games and the annual fireworks display are some of the attractions to be staged at the coming session of the Willamette Valley Chautauqua to be held at Gladstone Park, July 7th to 19th, 1914.

This will be the 21st birthday of this pioneer institution and the directors have prepared a most elaborate program. Among the main auditorium attractions might be mentioned the famous Dixie Jubilee Singers, Plattenburg, lecturer; Ash Davis, cartoonist; Lochwitzky, a Russian exile; Dr. Thomas E. Green, lecturer of national fame; Samuel Hill, Oregon's Good Roads Evangelist; the Chicago Glee Club; Dr. L. G. Herbert, lecturer; famous Simpson College Songbirds, 40 voices; Lee Maynard Dagg, lecturer; Edna Eugenia Lowe, health expert and lecturer; Mattie Hardwicke Jones, reader; Dr. Frederick Vining Fisher; Dr. W. B. Hinson, and Ng. Poon Chew, eminent Chinese orator.

The daily baseball series will comprise five fast Clackamas county organizations, Oregon City, Clackamas Macksburg, Molalla and Estacada. Domestic science and art classes, physical culture and other features will make up the morning work. One season ticket $2.50, admits to everything. Daily admissions good for all three programs, 25c.

G. H. Chorus Attention! The assistance of every member of the Gresham High School chorus, who will be in Gresham on July 4, is desired at the exercises at the pavilion. All know the choruses of the songs. J. E. STUBBS, Principal G. H. S.

PARTIAL PROGRAM AND PREMIUM LIST OF FLOWER SHOW

A feature of the Fourth of July celebration will be a float on which will be seated 48 girls from Gresham and the surrounding communities. They will represent all the states of the union. Mrs. H. E. Davis will be in charge of this feature. The Goddess of Liberty will be Miss Mae Dougherty.

A pleasing feature of the parade will be the Crusaders, an organization composed of children under 14 years of age. They are to be in charge of George F. Honey, and all children from Gresham or any of the surrounding communities may find a place by applying to him or meeting with the organization at the schoolhouse before 9 o'clock. Mr. Honey has equipment to accommodate 100 and would be pleased to have that many in line.

The celebration will begin with the parade at 9:30 a. m. It will start from the schoolhouse, proceed to Main street, thence to Division street. From there it will return on Roberts avenue to Fourth street to Main and disband.

BASEBALL—10:00 A. M.

The Pleasant Home band will then escort the baseball teams and spectators to the ball grounds where the Gresham Athletics will play the Damascus team. Both teams have defeated some of the fast Portland teams and a good game is expected. A purse of $20 will be awarded the winners.

PATRIOTIC PROGRAM 11:30 A. M.

Pat McArthur will give an address suitable to the occasion at the Fair Grounds. A fine musical program will follow. Music by the Pleasant Home band.

LUNCH AT NOON.

Tables will be arranged in the park to accommodate the people. Free lemonade will be served to accompany basket lunches.

NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS

The efforts of the Women's club to provide an attractive flower show should meet with a ready response from everyone who has a bunch of posies. If it is a big success this time the way is opened for other and more successful exhibitions in the near future.

MILWAUKIE REJECTS FREE SCHOOL BOOKS

MILWAUKIE, Or., June 30.—(Special)—A well attended and harmonious meeting of the taxpayers of Milwaukie district was held in the schoolhouse last night, when it was decided to build an annex to the present schoolhouse, to take care of the high school, and the meeting voted down the free school book proposition. J. W. Gracie, school director, made a talk in favor of harmonious action. The committee appointed to investigate the proposition to purchase a site and erect a branch school house in Minthorne reported adversely. This committee recommended that a portable room be built on the main school grounds to take care of any overcrowding and provide the high school quarters in the main building. By erecting an annex, said the report, a room in the main building will be released for the use of the high school, and this was adopted. Mrs. Amelia Snow, former principal, opposed the free text book proposition in her address. The janitor was employed for the entire year at $60 per month.

MRS. NINA B. ECKER CHANGES LOCATION

Mrs. Nina B. Ecker, for the past year the editor of the Estacada Progress, has gone to Independence where she is associated with her son in the publication of the Monitor. The last issue of that paper makes the following announcement:

"The Monitor takes pleasure in announcing an addition to its editorial staff in the person of Mrs. Nina B. Ecker, mother of the editor, who will be associated with him in the editing and managing of the Monitor.

"Mrs. Ecker has been a gifted newspaper writer for many years and will contribute her valuable services in the making of the Monitor.

"Our business has steadily increased and just as fast as the business justifies, the paper becomes better. The Monitor is the best advertisement that Independence has today and is the chief factor in the upbuilding and development of the city.

"The next change in the Monitor will be the addition of the latest model typesetting machine."

EVANGELICAL CONVENTIONS

PORTLAND, July 1—(Special)—Bishop W. M. Bell, of Los Angeles, California, and Professor P. Billhorn, of Chicago, will be invited to come to Portland this fall and hold a series of evangelical meetings during the month of November. These meetings will probably be held in Centenary Methodist church, although that part has not been definitely settled. East Side pastors of the United Evangelical, Evangelical Association, United Brethren, Centenary and other churches, including Revs. C. C. Poling, Rev. John D. Eisewonder, Rev. D. H. Trimble, Rev. E. D. Hornschuch, who met Monday and decided to arrange for the meetings. Another conference of ministers will be held next week at which time it is expected to have ten East Side churches represented. Both Bishop Bell and Professor Billhorn stated they will come this fall if the churches will arrange for the meetings. Professor Billhorn is a musician of national reputation.

A missionary convention of the church of the Nazarene from the Portland and Willamette district was held Thursday and Friday in the Brentwood Nazarene church, on the Mount Scott railway, ten minutes walk from the Tremont station. Rev. C. Howard Davis was in charge. Papers and addresses were given on missionary subjects. Rev. J. S. Bingeald, pastor of the Norwegian Nazarene church, delivered the missionary sermon Thursday night. Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Eaton, returned missionaries from Calcutta, India, attended the convention both days. The two little widow girls, whom they brought back with them to be educated in this country, were at the convention and delivered addresses.

Another public market will be opened on the Base Line road, at East Seventy-sixth street, in Montavilla, next Tuesday under the charge of the Montavilla Parent-Teachers' association. Permission was secured from the city commissioners to erect booths for this market. It will be convenient to the country. In North Albina a public market will be opened next Saturday under the auspices of the North Portland Commercial club and the Women's Auxiliary, on Killingsworth avenue and Borthwick street. The market conducted by the Vernon Women's Improvement association is a growing success. Yesterday, Tuesday, there were fifteen wagons loaded with produce. This market will be opened Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday. Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday next the East Side Business Men's club opens its public market on East Sixth street between East Alder and East Stark streets.

The funeral services of Mrs. Lucinda C. Bush, wife of the late Colonel D. B. Bush, was held Wednesday morning at her home 12 East 14th street. She was 87 years of age. She had been a resident of Portland since 1978, and Colonel Bush was a prominent insurance man. He died a year ago. Colonel Bush had a distinguished war record. The couple recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. L. H. WELLS.
