Columbia Heights

Mr. Armstrong, of Portland, county school superintendent, presided at the meeting held at the new church in District No. 39 last Wednesday for the purpose of establishing a most needed high school in this locality. The meeting was well attended and the people showed marked interest in the movement through out the meeting. If twenty pupils can be obtained to start with, a sum of $800 will be forwarded by the county, and by estimating the combined valuation of the six nearest districts which are expected to unite with District 39, the funds required to maintain such an institution can very easily be obtained but what is needed more than gold is the good will of the parents, their sympathy and willingness to build a high school, to work together for an education for our children. The next meeting will take place on Wednesday, July 15, at the same place. Now patrons come out in full force. Let us all bring our sickles well sharpened so as to be able to cut away all obstacles and we shall have a high school to grace our community and the time will never come when we shall regret the steps we are taking now for the purpose of elevating the educational condition among the rising generation. Mr. Armstrong will be with us at our next meeting.

It seems like everybody was in Troutdale on the Fourth of July and everybody had a good jolly time. The parade was quite a success for a small city and the exercises came off very smoothly. The main feature of the day, no doubt, was the big picnic dinner, everywhere families and friends were seen spreading good things to eat and the best of order prevailed. The only dark cloud observed by the writer was the drunken men, nay beasts, lying along the wayside as early as 10 a. m. It is a pity to behold such a sight and any saloon keeper should be heavily fined for selling booze to such characters.

As many as fifty people from around here, went by boat to Multnomah Falls on Sunday and it looked like they all had enjoyed a merry trip when they returned.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Costner, of Portland, were guests on Sunday at Columbia View farm.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Ellis, of Portland, were with friends at Hurlburt Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Evans entertained several friends on Sunday who came to celebrate the Fourth.

James Pounder was in the metropolis on Saturday and Sunday.
