

WELLS TELLS BRIEF TALES OF EVENTS

PORTLAND, July 6.—(Special)—The annual district camp meeting and conventions of the Evangelical association of Oregon and Washington will be held at Riverview Grove, Jennings Lodge, between Milwaukie and Oregon City, July 28 to August 6, inclusive. Bishop William Horn will attend and deliver the convention sermon August 4 at 8 p. m. The camp meeting will open July 28. The conference quartet will sing. All ministers of the association are expected to attend. August 3 the convention of the Women's Missionary society will be held, and August 4 the convention of the Young People's Alliance will open to continue till August 6. It will be opened with an address by Rev. F. M. Fisher, the president. Bishop Horn will conduct Bible study on that day at 11 a. m. The speakers will be Charlotte Marvel, of Monmouth; Mrs. Grace Jackson, of Albany; Bishop William Horn; Mrs. J. W. Kanacke, Canby; Rev. T. R. Hornschuch, of Lents; C. W. Clark, of Lents.

August 5 the Sunday School League convention will be held, opened with an address by Rev. H. Schuknecht, of Portland. The sessions of this convention will continue through August 6, closing with an address by Bishop Horn and Rev. E. Maurer. All public meetings will be held in the tabernacle which stands in the center of the camp grounds.

Dr. Henry Adix, as mayor of Estacada, expelled several gypsies who had been telling fortunes on July 4th in that place. He probably would not have interfered with their operations, but learned that they had charged a young boy $5.00 for "telling his fortune," besides telling the boy a lot of stuff that caused him great alarm. Mayor Adix took the city marshal and brought the gypsies before him. They agreed to refund the money to the boy and to take the first train out of town, the alternative being arrest and trial before the city recorder. They were glad to get off as easily, and the orange-painted women boarded the train. Mayor Adix calmed the excited fears of the boy and assured him that the "fortune" told him by the gypsies was entirely faked and without foundation. The gypsies had filled the boy's mind with a story of adventure and disaster all of which he thought was gospel truth.

Rev. John D. Nisewander, chairman of the East Side ministerial committee, stated yesterday word is expected from Bishop W. M. Bell this week announcing the date when he will come to Portland to conduct evangelistic services, with Professor Billhorn, of Chicago. As soon as Bishop Bell is heard from the date and place of the meeting will be announced and a general meeting of all East Portland pastors will be called to make preparations. It is expected that the meetings will be held most of the time in Centenary Methodist church, which will accommodate 1600 persons and is central to the East Side. The evangelistic services will likely be held in October or about November 1.

Evening Star Grange, at the hall on the Section Line road, Saturday, listened to an address by Rev. R. Tibbs, pastor of the Kern Park Christian church, on "Practical Patriotism." He pointed out the patriotism is practical and everyday in its application to the affairs of the country. A basket lunch was served. The remainder of the program was made up with these numbers: Piano solo, Miss Kathryn Ball; patriotic readings, Miss Signe Lack and Mrs. A. E. Kelly; vocal solo, Miss Eva Robinson; piano solo, Miss Katherine Ball; duet, Miss Ball and Miss Lois Brady; piano solo, Miss Hazel Hardy, and the singing of "America" by the grange.

A meeting of the new George H. Snell Circle of the Ladies of the G. A. R., was held in the Milwaukie grange hall yesterday afternoon. Several new members were initiated at this meeting. The circle was named in honor of Mrs. V. G. Benvie, the president. Officers of the new circle are: president, Mrs. V. G. Benvie; senior vice president, Miss Harriett Williams; junior vice, Miss Minnie Young; secretary, Mrs. Sarah Blackman; treasurer, Mrs. Mary Graf; chaplain, Mrs. Lillian Riley; patriotic instructor, Mrs. C. Christian; conductress, Mrs. Ida Bedford; guard, Mrs. Lydia Mills. L. H. WELLS.

AGAIN IN JOURNALISM ON SALEM STATESMAN

C. M. Cogswell, who has been conducting a merchandise store at Linnemann Junction has again followed the lure of the fourth estate and is in the newspaper harness once more. He has accepted the position of circulation manager on the Salem Statesman and left here yesterday for his new home at the state capitol. His wife has gone to Newport for a few weeks at the beach and will rejoin him at Salem.

J. V. Cogswell, his father, who is station agent at Linnemann, has taken over the store and will continue the business. He will be assisted by another son, Leslie Cogswell, who returned home on Sunday from a trip to Chicago.

TROUTDALE LOSES CONTRACTOR'S SUIT

A jury in circuit Judge McGinn's court returned a verdict in full in favor of C. E. Cree, a contractor, against the town of Troutdale yesterday for $345. The plaintiff constructed a small public building at Troutdale on a $1845 contract. Payment of $1500 was made and the remaining $345 was refused because of alleged poor work.

Surprising Cure of Stomach Trouble.

When you have trouble with your stomach or chronic constipation, don't imagine that your case is beyond help just because your doctor fails to give you relief. Mrs. G. Stengle, Plainfield, N. J., writes: "For over a month past I have been troubled with my stomach. Everything I ate upset it terribly. One of Chamberlain's advertising booklets came to me. After reading a few of the letters from people who had been cured by Chamberlain's Tablets, I decided to try them. I have taken nearly three-fourths of a package of them and can now eat almost everything that I want."

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Mrs. W. L. Townsend and daughter Marie have returned to Ashland for the summer on account of the ill health of Mrs. Townsend.

Thos. Ginder was taken seriously ill at his mountain home at Brightwood and was hurried home Saturday night where he has received medical attention. He is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Oscar Erickson and children, of Warren, who have been visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lindsey, left today for their home. Miss Helen Metzger, who came to spend the Fourth in Gresham, returned with her aunt to Warren to remain the rest of the summer.

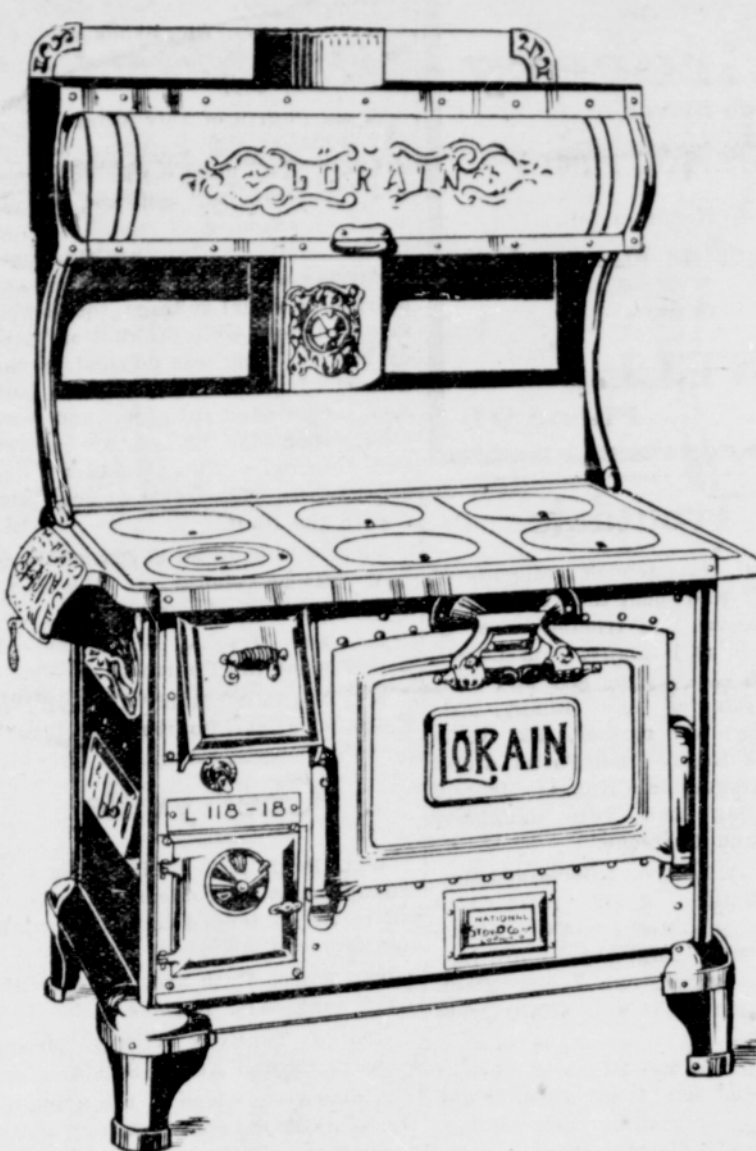

Lipman & Wolfe's baseball aggregation is somewhat peeved at Gresham over the one to nothing wallopp they got here two weeks ago and are looking for revenge. So insistent are they that they have issued a defl for $50 a side. They will probably be accommodated and it will be an interesting game.

Two hand-decorated gardeners belonging to Mrs. George Leslie were taken from the flower display at the fair grounds on the afternoon of the Fourth. They were probably taken by mistake and their return would be appreciated.

The first quarterly conference of the Free Methodist church, which closed Sunday evening, was a splendid meeting. Rev. F. L. Burns, the district elder, preached Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings and Sunday morning to good congregations. Rev. Mr. Burns expects to go the latter part of the week to assist Rev. J. A. Hopper in tent meetings near Sycamore station.

The lawn of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hevel on Powell street was the scene on the Fourth of a pleasant basket dinner at which those participating were Hon. C. N. McArthur, the speaker of the day, Mr. Hevel's family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Stapleton and daughter Georgia, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Kern and Mrs. Little, Mrs. H. L. Wostell and family and Mrs. Ida Williams.

Mrs. Fritz Stocker was laid up for a few days with a sprained ankle but is now able to be about.

Rev. M. B. Paroungian greeted old friends at the M. E. church last Sunday morning, taking part in the Sunday school and morning service. He was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Rusher.

Word has been received from Rev. F. M. Burch of Arco, Idaho, of the death of his grandmother Mrs. Page, who lived with the Burch family in Gresham for several months.

A gathering which included several families joined with the families of Geo. E. Towle, W. F. Honey and Geo. F. Honey in singing around a huge bonfire in Mr. Honey's grove last Sunday evening. The company gathered late in the evening and spent about two hours in the singing of sacred and patriotic songs to the accompaniment of flute, cornet and violin. Miss H. B. Honey of Portland favored the gathering with a reading from "The Sky Pilot."

Mrs. Bertha Green and Miss Lella Ruby, who live near Gresham, rode ponies in the Fourth of July parade in Gresham, which attracted considerable attention. Mrs. Green's pony is a trained animal which will kneel for her mistress to mount and dismount, and will sit down and perform many other interesting tricks.

Help Appreciated.

On behalf of the Women's club of Gresham, I wish to thank the business men of the city for their generosity in furnishing prizes for the flower show. The club is also indebted to Mr. A. Clark of Clark Bros., Portland, who acted as judge, to Mr. E. L. Thorpe who took charge of the entries and to the Bank of Gresham for the use of their window for displaying the prizes. I wish to personally thank the flower show committee and all others who contributed toward the success of the show.

MRS. CHAS. CLEVELAND,
Pres. Women's Club.

During the past week petitions for twenty initiative measures were completed, and eleven other measures are referred to the people by legislative action. Twelve measures failed to get completed petitions. Thirty-one bills will be voted upon in November.
