A Good Investment.

W. D. Magill, a well known merchant of Whitmond, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.

P. H. Rook visited Sandy for the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Anderson and family also spent the 4th at Sandy.

Hay harvest is now general in the district and the good weather is being taken advantage of in getting it secured.

Peter Larson visited Gresham on the Fourth and took in the dance at the evening.

Mrs. Swanberg has removed to a house in Powell Valley.

Corbett

There will be a Sunday school rally and basket dinner at the Corbett Christian church, July 19. Mrs. Es-son, state Bible school superintendent, will conduct the morning and afternoon services. Revival meetings will begin at 8 p. m. July 19, by Elder M. Howard Fagan and wife of Eugene, Oregon.

Several from the Corbett Sunday school expect to go to Latourell next Sunday afternoon to organize a Sunday school at that place. Rev. Mr. Reeder left for Seattle Monday to visit friends a few days before going to the state convention. The entertainment at the church Thursday evening was well attended. The proceeds from the sale of cake, ice cream and lemonade were about thirty dollars. Our merchants, R. M. Dodson and W. R. Knight were in Portland Monday.

Miss Anna Benfield and Bertha Reed were in Portland Thursday.

Hazel Smith, of Montavilla, visited relatives and friends here the last of the week.

Lewis Benfield, of Portland, spent Sunday with his mother on the ranch.

Fairview

FAIRVIEW, July 9.—Mr. and Mrs. J. Luscher and daughters Misses Rosalie and Lillie have had as guests Mr. and Mrs. John Hofer, H. Ganser, O. Huserman, O. Luscher, S. Hafner, all of Portland, and the Misses Alice and Ruby Rasmussen, of Corbett.

No services will be held at the Presbyterian church on Sunday, July 12, as Rev. Thomas Robinson, the pastor, is attending the Synod of Oregon which meets in Eugene this week. Sunday school will meet at the usual time.

Mrs. D. P. Shepard and daughter Thelma, of Walla Walla, and her sister Mrs. George Snyder, of Portland, are the guests of Mrs. C. Shepard and Mrs. C. G. Fancher.

Harland Shute, of Antelope, Oregon, is the guest of his brother Herbert Shute.

A. Needham, of Boise, Idaho, is the guest of A. L. Stone and family and Mrs. Eliza Stone and family.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Inglis.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN

"Confess that you were wrong yesterday; it will show that you are wise today."

The city of Gresham demonstrated last Saturday that saloons and drunk men are not essential to a successful 4th of July celebration. Very early in the morning all misgivings of disaster on account of local prohibition were thrown to the breezes, as the streets filled up with teams and autos from the surrounding country.

One of the largest, jolliest, most enthusiastic Fourth of July crowds ever in Gresham, and not the slightest evidence of the liquor traffic to mar the day!

People appreciate the clean dry town, notwithstanding the claims of the wets to the contrary. Gresham is a good place to celebrate, and a good place to live. Good schools and no saloons.

Register in time so you will be prepared to vote for state wide prohibition November 3d, 1914.

The Oregon Dry Petitions.

At the time of writing this item fully 35,000 signatures have been secured to the Oregon dry petitions. Of this number over 8000 have been turned in from our State Headquarters. Added to this are about 6000 signatures secured by our White Ribbons and sent to the headquarters of other organizations which bring the total signatures secured by the members of the Oregon W. C. T. U. up to about 14,000. As but 10,100 signatures are necessary to put the measure on the ballot we have accomplished this by our own work. We must not let our efforts stop for a moment. Those who are indifferent must be aroused, every voter must be registered. "The battle thickens, on ye brave!"—Review.

Kansas' Great Progress Under Prohibition.

You have but to come to Kansas to see the cheering effects of Prohibition; no saloons, but happy homes, contented people—no sweatshops—no child labor—but fine schools, churches and good roads. Practically no state indebtedness, and a visible increase of state wealth every twelve months that runs into the millions. We boast of no millionaires, though we have billions of wealth, but a cleanly earned wealth more equitably distributed than the wealth of any other state.

We hear of other states that point with pride to the opportunities that were theirs. We are proud of Kansas—the state that is now the land of opportunities—opportunities that are but now in their infancy. Too much cannot be said of our commercial, educational and moral advancement. Something has contributed to our wonderful prosperity. Something out of the common run of affairs has given us a 15 per cent increase in our population in the past few years, while older, middle western states have practically stood still. We have analyzed ourselves and we are satisfied that Prohibition is largely responsible for only the mere handful of the insane we have in Kansas. We balance 2,900 prosperous, self-supporting citizens against every one pauper in the state. The proportion of only 1 feeble-minded person to every 3,000 self-possessed Kansans, gives our state a reputation for rare intelligence. Ours is an admixture of peace, prosperity and contentment, a citizenship loyal, true, free from guile, prejudice or discontent—a citizenship that invites you to a state that is as fertile as the valley of the Nile, as full of possibilities as the Garden of Eden, and as beautiful as an all-wise Creator could fashion it.

Kansas, after thirty-four years of Prohibition pioneering, has demonstrated to its entire satisfaction and has proven to the world that whisky, houses of prostitution and gambling dens are a commercial liability of the heaviest sort; coupled with their attendant evils of crime, divorce, murders, paupers, untold suffering and ignorance. Mankind realizes that not only is the liquor traffic a moral and commercial evil, but that no city state or nation needs to submit to it longer. The people rule. The majority of the people are against the liquor traffic, and the whisky evil is necessary only so long as men who believe in Prohibition sit supinely by, and by their dormant, drone-like inactivity, lend color to the statement that these twin crimes committed by society against itself are to be countenanced. Any evil is a necessary evil to just such an extent as those who are opposed to it think it necessary.

What Kansas has done, you can do! What Kansas has done, will you do?—Governor Geo. H. Hodges, in White Ribbon Review.

COUNTY TREASURER PAYS STATE TAXES

Receipt of $205,000 from County Treasurer Lewis of Multnomah county by State Treasurer Kay gave temporary relief to the financial stringency in the general state fund, which had become exhausted. Mr. Kay said this amount would last until about the end of this month. He is sending letters to the other county treasurers urging them to make additional payments of state taxes, and said he hoped to get in enough tax money to obviate the necessity of stamping warrants unpaid for the lack of funds, such warrants drawing 6 per cent interest. He said he appreciated the promptness of County Treasurer Lewis. Multnomah county still owes $570,000 of state taxes, which, however, is not due until November 1.

Damascus

Haying is well under way and the crop seems unusually heavy this year.

Wm. Dallas has returned from Newport.

Rev. J. A. Hopper, the Free Methodist minister preached an excellent sermon Sunday morning.

Everyone enjoyed a safe and sane Fourth, and many were the happy outing and picnic parties. The only really serious accident of which we have heard was the drubbing and goose-egg handed the Damascus baseball nine by the Gresham Athletics. This is the second similar sad accident which has happened since we so recklessly called attention to the superiority of our local nine, without knocking on wood.

Mrs. A. Fordes and children, of California, are visiting friends and relatives in town.

Miss Clara Bock, our popular telephone operator, is being assisted in the office by her sister. The week day hours are now from 6 a. m. to 8 p. m. continuously.

Mrs. Geo. Kummer, Jr., left last week for an extended visit with her parents in San Diego, California. Geo. Kummer, Sr., is in Seattle attending court.

Mrs. Steve Brewster entertained Mrs. Emily Popejoy, of Portland, and young daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Tatham, on Wednesday.

Road workers have finished grading below Schmidt's. When this has settled, and has crushed rock on top, we shall have a really fine road, and one which improves with age. All the roads in and about town are in excellent condition.

Cedarville

The people seemed to be out for a good time Saturday and no doubt had it. Ice cream found a ready sale.

On Thursday Mrs. J. S. Cogswell entertained the Give-and-take club at her home, the Cedars. All reported a good time. Owing to warm days and a busy time the club has not met for some weeks.

Monday, Merle Cogswell moved to Portland, he having withdrawn from the Cedarville Mercantile company. The business will be carried on by J. V. Cogswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Giese, Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Jones, Mrs. Dr. Cathey, D. J. Culy, Miss Hope Anderson and Guy Fieldhouse spent the Fourth at Miss Giese's and enjoyed the day with a picnic lunch in her grove. Later on they were joined by Miss Echo Jones, Miss Cathey and Miss Kirkpatrick.

Louden Hay Carries, Double Harpoon Forks, Steel Track Pulleys, Rope, etc., at Sterling & Kidder's.

Causes of Stomach Troubles.

Sedentary habits, lack of out door exercise, insufficient mastication of food, constipation, a torpid liver, worry and anxiety, overeating, paraking of food and drink not suited to your age and occupation. Correct your habits and take Chamberlain's Tablets and you will soon be well again. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.
