Columbia Heights

The home of G. Knieriem of the Heights was a merry scene on last 4th of July, when about 25 of their kin assembled for a family reunion. Mr. and Mrs. G. Knieriem are the parents of a large family and have been residents of this community for many years, all of the children and grandchildren were present, but one son, who is in Idaho and the oldest daughter Mrs. Bellruth of Portland were absent. W. Knieriem, who has been in California for some years, came up with his wife and two children and will remain for a month with the folks. As the day was perfect, the family gathered under the Lambert cherry trees and no doubt did justice to all the good things spread before them, which was declared a grand feast. Mr. and Mrs. G. Knieriem are charter members of our grange which was organized about twenty years ago, and have always been a great help in the grange. Mr. Knieriem is also a member of the G. A. R. and served in the civil war. We all wish them many more happy reunions.

The Sunday school pupils and members of the new Christian church went in a body to Latourell Falls on Sunday for the purpose of helping organize a Sunday school at that place. They took their lunch baskets along and stayed all day.

Miss Grace Ferguson has signed a contract to teach the Heights school for the next season.

The committee appointed to make arrangements for the Columbia grange exhibit at the county fair at Gresham held a meeting Sunday at G. Knieriem's and it was decided to visit the ranchers east of the Sandy river and urge them to take an interest in the fair. The committee consists of the following members of the grange. Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. Henkel, Mr. and Mrs. P. Anderson.

Mrs. Thomas, of Hurlburt, called at Columbia View farm on Sunday. Mrs. Taylor is entertaining friends from the city this week.

Scenic

The Misses Minnie Shriner, Lilly and Lula Nystrom, of Gresham, and Frank Townsend, Bertha Albel, Will Elmer, Carl and Hilda Beyers and Hazel Goger, of Scenic, had a most delightful outing at Bull Run Park Sunday. They enjoyed the entertainment given by the Elks, which consisted of music and races, etc., had lunch on the river banks, and altogether spent a day long to be remembered.

Mr. Burchelt, who bought acreage recently of Umbdenstock & Larson, is improving his property. Already he has erected a large chicken house and filled it with thorough bred White Leghorn chickens and is now building a barn to be followed by an up-to-date residence.

D. D. Jack and family, who attended the Kollofson clan meeting at Woodburn, Oregon, report a very pleasant meeting and large attendance.

Dr. Geo. Inglis.

A Good Investment.

W. D. Magli, a well known merchant of Whitmound, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.
