Damascus

Mr. Carl House and bride just arrived from Medford, Oregon, a few days ago to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oran House. They were given a charivari Saturday evening by a few young folks of the neighborhood. A most delightful evening was spent. Refreshments were served, after which the company departed, wishing the bride and groom a long and happy life. Mr. and Mrs. House started on their honeymoon early Monday morning.

Nothnagel Bros., have started out balling for the season.

Marjorie Heacock, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Heacock, had quite an accident a few days ago, which might have proved fatal, but fortunately she escaped with little injury.

Powell Valley

Prof. and Mrs. Gerard Gerritson, of Bethany school Kansas, will be present at the Powell Valley school-house next Saturday night, July 25, at the meeting of the patron-teachers' association, and they will render several musical selections. Coffee and cake will be served by the ladies. A pleasant and instructive evening is expected. All are invited.

Pleasant Valley

PLEASANT VALLEY, July 21—Mrs. Paul Bliss was very much surprised when a company of her friends and neighbors walked in on her the 16th, the anniversary of her birthday, with a fine lunch of ice cream and cake. It was a jolly crowd and the day will long be remembered by all present but the hostess was not to be out done, she sprung on them a surprise that beat them all.

Birthdays were in order on Pleasant View avenue the 17th of July; Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Baker celebrated their birthday jointly as they occur on the same day. It was a grand surprise their friends gave them as they came in on them that evening with a goodly supply of good things to eat and drink. Ice cream and cake were much in evidence. The evening was spent with card games and music.

It is announced by Manager O. M. Plummer, of the Northwest International Livestock exposition that Montana is preparing to send a team of agricultural college students to the show, to be held in Portland December 7-12, to take part in the stock judging contest, and it is also expected that state will send a number of carloads of fancy livestock to the show.

Cottrell

The I. B. G. club met with Miss Pearl Ruegg on Thursday afternoon. A goodly number of the members were present. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Mabel Wagner when new officers will be elected.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craswell entertained Mr. and Mrs. Brower and family of Orient at dinner Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barr, of Portland, were guests of their uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manary on Thursday and Friday.

Ed. Andre and family spent Sunday and Sunday night camping at Bull Run.

Ernest Ball, of Portland, is painting G. H. Blackburn's house.

Mr. and Mrs. A. McPherson and son Irving and Mrs. Banks and son Alfred, of Portland, were guests at the home of Mrs. Ella Schneider Sunday.

The Misses Alberta and Eva Schneider entertained Saturday evening in honor of their guests Miss McPherson, of Portland, and Clara Schneider, of Buena Vista. The evening was spent with unique games, and light refreshments were served. Those present were the Misses Rose and Eva Beers, Mabel Wagner, Pearl Ruegg, Hazel Goger, Rose Wishart, Elva Andre, Beulah Caplinger, Miss McPherson and the Misses Schneider and Messrs. Lawrence Craswell, Fred Wagner, Ike Foster, Walker and George Proctor, Burleigh Spiers, Guy Wood, Walter Metzger, James Hillyard, Harvey Schneider and Clifford Schneider and Clifford Jack of Portland.

Alonzo Radford, who has been quite ill, is slowly recovering.

Why is a Book Like a Shoe?

Because they are both made to fit all sizes. There is no one else in the world just like you. The first book you pick up may be written for some one very different from yourself. Some books are worth their weight in gold and others are fit only to be burned.

Troutdale

TROUTDALE, July 20—A meeting of the quarterly conference will be held at the M. E. church on Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock a. m. Luncheon will be served at noon.

Those present at Mrs. H. F. Parsons to enjoy the delightful lunch served by Mrs. Parsons and her daughters were: Mrs. Weller, Mrs. Crawford, Mrs. C. I. Thomas, Mrs. A. D. Kendall, Mrs. J. F. Burns, Mrs. C. I. Raker, Mrs. Newt. Parsons and children, Mrs. Shank, Mrs. Knarr, Mrs. D. Riche, Mrs. Kummer, Mrs. J. A. Larsson and Miss Gladys Lumsden. The ladies have started a new quilt to sell for the Aid, among other of the good doings and we are very proud of them.

After spending several days in Portland with her daughter Hazel, who is very busy entering and receiving lovely presents for her future happy life, Mrs. Murray gave a picnic for some of the little folks in the Murray grove. Those present were: Marguerite, Leona and Leo Bailey, Gladys and Mabin Parker, Evelyn, Margery and Annie Kendall and Katherine Murray. They praised the goodies and splendid day as only children can.

Mrs. John Larsson spent several days with her mother at Latourell Falls.

Miss Tempest Jennings and Miss Lula Mae Mickle were guests of Miss G. Lumsden Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. G. P. Lumsden left Thursday for Albany, Oregon, in search of more milk cows for the Sun Dial ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Raker and son Ellsworth and Miss Emma Johnson spent Sunday afternoon at the city park in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Larsson enjoyed the Sunday afternoon at the Oaks park.

Miss Helen King is spending a week or two with Miss G. Lumsden.

Mrs. Emmons and daughter Mrs. McGrew visited Mrs. Joe King Wednesday.

Services will be held at the M. E. church next Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

E. W. Welch returned from Spokane Monday.

Columbia Heights

The high school meeting at the new Christian church last Wednesday was very well attended and everything points in favor of the much needed institution. County Superintendent Armstrong presided at the meeting and will aid us all he possibly can to get the school started some time this fall.

C. Latourell, of Gresham, was at Columbia View farm last Wednesday driving a new Maxwell. Mr. Latourell has sold six cars the last few months and has more orders coming right along.

Several of the Heights young people went up to the mountains on a picnic last Sunday and on their way were overtaken by a heavy thunder and rain storm. We are glad to know that they are none the worse off for their soaking.

W. Knight, of Corbett, and a friend from Portland went fishing last Sunday and while engaged in bagging the spotted creatures, got separated from each other up in the mountains. When Mr. Knight reached Columbia View farm he was "all in" and was not able to carry all the fish he had in his bag, but was greatly relieved when he found his friend had safely reached Corbett.

Mr. and Mrs. Jennings, owners of the big Jennings' furniture business in Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Illidge last Sunday. Mrs. Jennings is Mr. Illidge's sister.

Mrs. Maud Kingston, of Salem, is here for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Deaver.

Mr. Spybrock has purchased a fine new auto. Who is next?

The ranchers have been busy in the hay fields here lately and most all of the hay is in shelter now and in fine shape. The grain looks splendid everywhere and so do potatoes. The owners of the threshing machines are busy overhauling their machines as the time is drawing near when they start out again to fill the bins with the golden harvest.

Miss Ruth Jackson is at present with her aunt, Mrs. W. Evans.

R. P. Rasmussen and several friends motored to the city Thursday evening and took in the show.

Jimmy Udy has once more taken charge of the telephone station at Corbett.

News has just reached us here that Mr. Puren, of Hurlburt, who went to Alaska in May, has arrived at Ruby in best of health and had a splendid trip up the Yukon. He reports a fine summer there now.
