Mrs. Ora Hollingsworth of Portland visited over Sunday at the home of Mr. Wood.

L. H. Wells, the Outlook's Portland correspondent is taking his annual vacation in southern Oregon. A postal card from him on Saturday is dated at Roseburg the day before.

Mrs. L. S. Osborne and Miss Bessie Osborne have returned from a visit of several weeks with Mrs. Portia Laver at Carlton, Oregon.

Mrs. Ella Aton is at Melrose nursing Mrs. J. H. Wood through a spell of sickness. Mrs. Wood is reported to be improving.

John Roberts, who with Mrs. Roberts is visiting their son Ed. Roberts at Welches, came down Monday but expects to return in a few days.

A special meeting of the Gresham Fire department will be held in the fire hall Wednesday evening July 29. All members are expected to be present.

Mrs. Claude Smith, who has been seriously ill for a few days, is improving.

Glenn Davidson and Dell Grigsby started Monday for an outing at Corvallis and Newport. They will camp for two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Barber and family and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Wells, of Portland, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. W. Brown.

Miss Isabel McGregor, a Sherman county school teacher, is visiting with her cousin, J. A. Davidson and family.

E. H. Kelly and family and S. M. Webber and family have gone by auto to the mountains for a vacation trip.

Miss Emma Langworthy of Newberg is spending the week with her aunt Mrs. C. M. Oliphant.

Mrs. H. E. Davis and daughter Laura are enjoying an outing at Welches. Mr. Davis will go for a short stay as soon as the berries and hay are cared for.

Mrs. Robert Sittling and two children, who have been spending the past three weeks visiting with Mrs. A. J. W. Brown, returned Thursday to their home in Kootkia, Idaho. Mrs. Sittling, who is an English woman, was delighted with western Oregon. Portland reminded her of London.

Mrs. Harriet Barrow, of Lewiston, Idaho, Mrs. Anna Looney of Oregon City and Ellis Dorothy of Kenniwick, Washington, were the guests last week of the Arza Smith and Lester Spencer families. The ladies are old friends of the families and Mr. Dorothy is a nephew of Mr. Smith and Mrs. Spencer.

The Baptist ladies will have a food sale at Mrs. Squire's dressmaking parlors on Saturday afternoon, August 1.

Maynard and Stanley Stinson, sons of Mrs. T. W. Cross, have returned from a trip to Honolulu on the United States Cruiser Milwaukee. The young men are naval reserves.

W. T. Cross is suffering from a carbuncle on his neck.

Mrs. Geo. Parker and Georgina Hamlin returned the latter part of last week from an outing at Rockaway beach.

The address in Honey's grove by Mrs. Lillian Michner last Friday night was enjoyed by a large number of people. Several automobiles were put in requisition to carry the crowd to and from the grove. Mrs. Michner gave an interesting and convincing talk on "What prohibition has done for Kansas."

Henry Latourell's threshing outfit will begin work next week, making its first stand in Powell Valley, then working eastward. A long run is expected, as the grain crop this year is good all over this section.

Bert Hoss returned home from Carlton on Saturday last, leaving the Wilkinsons there. He found the work too dangerous for the pay there was in it and decided to give it up.

A benefit performance will be given at the picture theater on Friday evening, for the Gresham fire department. Five reels, singing and other amateur stunts will comprise the program.

Charles Latourell and wife left this morning for Tillamook in their auto. They will go through Forest Grove and then to the coast over the Wilson route, returning within a week.

Elmer Deets, of Macksburg, came down on Sunday and held down third base for the Athletics in their game with the colored giants. He made good at the bat as well as on the base. He is one of the Macksburg team that carried away the trophy at the Chautauqua games.

Latourell & Son have recently sold three Maxwell automobiles, one to Mr. Hunt of Damascus; the other two to Ola Bodine of Latourell Falls. They are expecting a consignment of the new models within a few weeks.

BOB BURDETTE ON BEER AND PROHIBITION

Bob Burdette never says a dull thing, and his unique way of stating an old truth makes it shine with a new light. Even a subject as well worn as the temperance cause takes on a new sparkle when "Bob"—excuse us, the Rev. Robert J. Burdette—tackles it. Here he pays his compliments to beer:

My dear boy, men have fought, bled and died but not for beer.

Arnold Winkelried did not throw himself upon the Austrian spears because he was ordered to close his saloon at nine o'clock.

William Tell did not hide his arrow under his vest to kill the tyrant because the edict had gone forth that the freeborn Switzer should not drink a keg of beer every Sunday.

Freedom did not shriek as Kosciuszko fell over a whisky barrel.

Warren did not die that beer might flow as the brooks murmur seven days a week.

Even the battle of Brandywine was not fought that whisky might be free; not by a jug full.

No clause in the Declaration of Independence declares that a Sunday-concert garden, with five brass horns and one hundred kegs of beer, is the inalienable right of a free people and the cornerstone of good government.

Tea—mild, harmless, innocent tea, the much-sneered at temperance beverage, the feeble drink of effeminate men and good old women—tea holds a higher place, it fills a brighter, more glorious page, and is a greater figure in the history of this United States than beer.

Men liked tea, my boy, but they hurled it into the sea in the name of liberty, and they died rather than drink it until they made it free. It seems to be worth fighting for, and the best men in the world fought for it.

The history of the United States is incomplete with tea left out. As well might the historian omit Faneuil Hall and Bunker Hill as tea. But there is no story of heroism or patriotism with rum for its hero.

The battles of this world, my son, have been fought for grander things than free whisky. The heroes who fall in the struggle for rum fall shot in the neck, and their martyrdom is clouded by the haunting phantoms of the jimjams.

Whisky makes men fight, it is true, but they usually fight other drunken men. The champion of beer does not stand in the temple of fame; he stands in the police court. Honor never has the delirium tremens. Glory does not wear a red nose, and fame blows a horn but never takes one.

The Best Medicine in the World.

"My little girl had dysentery very bad. I thought she would die. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured her, and I can truthfully say that I think it is the best medicine in the world," writes Mrs. William Orvis, Clare, Mich. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

The Banking Habit is universally conceded to be a good habit, and a good habit has been defined by someone as

"YESTERDAY'S ACHIEVEMENTS TAKING THE STING FROM TODAY'S TOIL"

This definition states the exact truth, based upon the experience of thousands of depositors throughout the world.

While you are forming this exceptionally good habit, you are accumulating a fund for future use. Life is worth living when you have money in the bank—it gets monotonous when you are broke.
