C. H. Johanson has got his new silo finished and ready to fill. It will be a great benefit to him. He is putting extensive repairs on his residence.

A meeting of taxpayers was held in the school room on Monday to elect a clerk for the ensuing year. Mr. Charles Hunter was elected to the office unanimously.

Hana Takaki Kasai, a daughter of Jewel the Jap woman here, has just been married to a Jap boy by the name of Ogri. This is not Hana's first venture in the matrimonial market as three or four years ago she was married, which union ultimately found its resting place in the divorce court. It is marvelous how rapidly the colored people are becoming civilized and are marrying and divorcing just like the whites.

The Epworth League held a meeting on Thursday night at the home of Leonard Lauderback when there was a large attendance. Ice cream and cake were served and altogether a pleasant time was spent.

John Nelson has gone to the mountains for two weeks' hunting in the neighborhood of Larch mountain.

William Harris and Elmer Hawk are loading wood at the depot from the Japs on Carl Anderson's place.

Rev. Mr. Ware, from Oregon City, preached in the chapel on Sunday evening to a fair congregation. Mrs. Anderson presided at the organ. It is a pity that a resident preacher can't be got for this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell visited at the store last week-end.

Mildred Brower spent the week-end at home from Portland.

Frank McKinney has been cutting the oats on the Proctor place this week. This is the first in this district.

A Good Investment.

W. D. Magill, a well known merchant of Whitmound, Wis., bought a stock of Chamberlain's medicine so as to be able to supply them to his customers. After receiving them he was himself taken sick and says that one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was worth more to him than the cost of his entire stock of these medicines. For sale by Gresham Drug Co. and all Dealers.

Pleasant Valley

PLEASANT VALLEY, July 30.—Mrs. Elwood and daughter Miss Lora are spending a few weeks at Bar View beach.

Henry Restorff's mother and a brother from Lyle, Washington, spent a few days with him last week.

Theodore Schacht, of Portland, is looking after business interests in the valley this week.

A. W. Robertson was out one day recently, looking over his place.

H. A. Darnall, of Lents, attended garage here last Saturday.

J. C. Grow, of Arleta, was a valley visitor one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Uhlig entertained friends from the city last Sunday.

The hum of the reaper is heard on every side reminding us that another harvest time is here.

The Richey clan held their annual reunion in Glese grove at Cedarville last Sunday. A larger number than usual were in attendance. A short program was rendered and all sat down to an old fashioned picnic dinner. The clan decided to hold their next annual reunion at Crystal Lake Park next year.

Terry

William Sherwood called on old time friends one afternoon last week. Hanning Bros. have a fine new two-seated surrey.

Mr. and Mrs. George Schlatter spent a short time recently visiting at the home of Mrs. Coons.

Kim & Parks, who live on the Coons farm, are busy hauling their produce, going every night to early market.

The berry season is fast drawing to a close.

R. W. Calkins and son Lewis are busy ploughing and improving the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manary and daughter Maud were Portland visitors Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Craswell and son Lawrence and Miss Rose Wisbart were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brower Sunday.

Mrs. Fields, of Chicago, is visiting her daughter Mrs. Joe Caldo.

Rev. Mr. Taylor, of Portland, will preach at the Cottrell Baptist church on August 9, both morning and evening.

Mrs. Ella Schneider and daughter Alberta left Tuesday morning for Athol, Idaho, where they will visit relatives. From there they will go to Spokane and Cheney where they will spend a few weeks with old friends and neighbors.

Mrs. Sarah Jack and daughter Sudie, who attended Roelfson reunion, and then spent a few weeks visiting in the vicinity of Woodburn, turned home Tuesday.

Powell Valley

Powell Valley Gospel Tent Meeting. Pastor J. J. Westrup, of China, speaks Sunday, August 2 at 3 p. m. in Swedish and at 8 p. m. in English. Come and hear these most interesting discourses.

George N. Taylor, of Portland, field secretary of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, will speak in the Swedish Mission church next Sunday forenoon at 11 o'clock. Mr. Taylor is an able and interesting speaker and all are invited to be present. He will report on the past year, and state plans for the campaign the coming year. The address will be properly religious with regard for the day of God, the house of God, and the hour of worship. There will be good singing. This service will be in English.

There will be a mission meeting

LATE PAYMENT WINS THE DISHES

G. B. Kleppey, of Bull Run, was the winner of the dishes at the Pulfer drawing on Wednesday. The winning number was 13,765. Mr. Kleppey's ticket was 13,376. A peculiar circumstance is that he had a lot of tickets at home but forgot to bring them. As he owed the store a small bill he paid that so as to get tickets and was handed the winning ticket along with the others. He was the last person to get tickets before the drawing.

Labor Commissioner Hoff decided that the bridge crew on the Grants Pass railroad could not be employed over eight hours. The men got $3.20 a day and overtime, but were stopped by Hoff claiming it was public work, and that an emergency existed. The time was cut to eight hours.

RULES GOVERNING THE VOTING CONTEST

RULE 1. The Pulfer Mercantile Co. will issue votes as per following schedule, excepting as hereafter may be mentioned:

100 for $1.00 on cash sales.

200 for $1.00 in merchandise paid with due bills.

300 for $1.00 on payments of old accounts.

260 for $1.00 on due bills sold.

200 for $1.00 on bargain and clearance sales.

In reference to issuing votes on old accounts, they may be issued for the payment of old accounts, that were incurred prior to July 1, 1914. Votes will not be given on new charge accounts unless this particular account is paid within thirty days, then votes may be issued if the merchant is willing and so orders.

RULE 2. Votes will be issued with a time limit of two weeks, and must be cast in the ballot box, provided for that purpose, before the expiration of the time limit. Before casting votes, make a record for your own guidance.

In order to facilitate voting you are requested to place your votes in an envelope and seal it. Please write the number of votes the envelope contains and the name of the candidate you desire to vote for on the outside.

RULE 3. Employees, clerks and relatives of the merchants and newspaper publishers cannot participate as candidates.

RULE 4. Merchants shall in no instance issue votes until such votes have been properly stamped with their firm name. Customers should refuse them otherwise.

RULE 5. The soliciting of votes at the merchant's store, in front of store or on premises is prohibited.

RULE 6. A vote that is scratched or marked in any manner after it leaves the merchant's hands, shall be thrown out, providing this defacing should appear that a figure had been tampered with.

RULE 7. After November first no new candidates will be entered.

RULE 8. Everybody is invited to nominate candidates. All that is necessary is to send in the name of any young lady in the community. This will entitle her to 2000 nominating votes and she will be entered as a candidate.

RULE 9. Votes are not transferable after being cast.

RULE 10. Votes that are not properly stamped with the merchant's signature, or votes with the time limit expired, will not be accepted.

RULE 11. A committee selected by the merchants will count the votes each week, beginning with the third week and report the results in the Outlook. Committee will be announced later.

And votes will be given at the time sales are made only.
