LATEST WAR BULLETINS

FRIDAY.

Report comes from St. Petersburg that Russia has seized 73 German and twelve Austrian ships.

The French government announces it will cover war risks on importations and exportations in vessels under the French flag to the amount of $9 per cent of their value.

Four infantry regiments of Winnipeg have been called on to mobilize at Quebec.

Italy has massed between 200,000 and 250,000 troops on the Swiss and Austrian frontiers for defensive measures.

Sixty thousand Dutch troops have been gathered on the frontier, and large areas of land have been flooded.

The Dutch government gave renewed assurance of its neutrality.

The German cruisers, Goeben and Breslau have arrived in the Dardanelles and are flying the Turkish flag.

SATURDAY.

Announcement is made that Japan will declare war on Germany.

A war newspaper is planned by the French to keep the men in the field informed concerning events of war and loved ones at home.

The censor of war news in Great Britain is very complete. The whole nation it is said has enlisted into a conspiracy of silence. Lord Kitchener has put the ban on war news.

It is proposed to put through congress speedily a measure providing for government insurance against war risks of American register ships and their cargoes. Sixty-two representative business men of the country including J. J. Hill, J. P. Morgan and Seth Low, met in conference at Washington, presided over by Secretary McAdoo.

SUNDAY.

Japan issues ultimatum to Germany demanding that she surrender Kiau-Chau, China, and withdraw her cruisers from those waters. This she says is in order to preserve the peace of the Far East, to protect China in her neutrality and fulfill her treaty obligations to Great Britain. Germany is given till August 23 to accept or reject.

It is believed Germany will refuse to comply with this demand and Japan is preparing to force her, and will probably capture her forts which are said to be strongly fortified.

MONDAY.

A Japanese cruiser has left San Diego to follow the German cruiser Leipsig and there may be a clash if Japan becomes involved in the war.

The Belgians have moved their capital to Antwerp as the Germans approach Brussels, and a great battle is impending.

French warships sank four Austrians in the Adriatic.

Commodity prices are still going up. Sugar has reached the $8.05 mark. There is an advance in nearly all kinds of food. No one can predict the end.

Federal Appropriation for Oregon Agriculture.

Eleven thousand dollars has been appropriated by the United States Department of Agriculture for extension work in Oregon agriculture and domestic economy. Announcement has also been made that all federal extension work will be carried on in connection with the state colleges under the direction of the extension divisions. The Oregon apportionment will be expended for the following purposes:

Special field work in dairying $2500; supervision of county agricultural work, $3440; support of girls' and boys' industrial clubs, $2700; farm efficiency survey, $1500; and clerk hire, $860.

The work in dairying will be maintained as at present, while an assistant will be provided for the state leader of county work and for the state agent of club work. The farm survey will be conducted by a federal expert who will determine the degree of efficiency with which a number of farms is operated. Methods of conducting the surveys will also be taught to the county agents in order to extend the survey work throughout the state.

Announcement of the government's policy and appropriation were made in a recent conference at Denver, the federal department being represented by Dr. A. C. True and C. B. Smith, and the state interests by President W. J. Kerr, director R. D. Hetzel, and State Leader H. T. French.

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by Gresham Drug Co., and all Dealers.

Cottrell

Miss Hamberry and Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Portland, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Manary Sunday.

A fire, the origin of which is yet unknown, started early Saturday morning in the wood belonging to some Japanese, about three miles south of Cottrell. It spread rapidly and soon destroyed about five hundred cords of wood for the Japanese, then spread to property belonging to Mr. Beers. All wood and gravel teams were transferred to the timber to help move the wood belonging to Mr. Beers, Mr. Hutchens and Mr. Newell to places of safety. It is hoped that the fire will not do any more damage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hall, Miss Crissy McPherson and Clifford Schneider, of Portland, were guests at the Schneider home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Duke will leave for California Tuesday. They expect to make their home there.

Joe Caldo, Alec. Browning and

Fred Radford are now east of the Cascades fighting fire.
