IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Mrs. Jesse Stafford of Bridal Veil and children are spending the week at the home of her brother Harry Crenshaw and visiting the fair.

Mrs. Emmett Kelly is entertaining her mother Mrs. Minnie Studebaker of Castlerock, Washington, during fair week.

Miss Esther Eiford has been employed by the school board to teach sewing in the school one day in the week. According to present plans the work will be done on Saturday.

Lester Spencer started this morning for Bickleton, North Yakima and Walla Walla to look after property interests and visit relatives and friends. He was accompanied as far as Bickleton by Arza Smith, who has gone for a brief visit.

H. E. Davis returned yesterday from a trip to Culver, Crook county, Oregon, where he visited Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thompson. Earl is installing a hydraulic engine and pump of his own invention to pump water from the Crooked river canyon up 845 feet to the town. Mr. Davis did a little fishing on the side, catching some fine trout weighing as high as five pounds. They ran 9 to 14 inches long.

The funeral of Mrs. Lena Donahue, wife of Emmett Donahue of Cottage Grove, was held at the Baptist church in Gresham Thursday. Mrs. Donahue was formerly of Boring and the funeral was in charge of the Rebekah lodge of Boring. Mrs. Donahue died in a Portland hospital where she had been taken for treatment. She leaves her husband and one child.

Fire drill was held on the fair grounds this morning. There was found to be splendid pressure, the water being thrown over the big pavilion. The hose cart stationed on the grounds near the band stand is connected to the hydrant all the time.

The hoppers going from this locality have about all returned home and report varying success. Some barely made expenses while others returned with good sums for their work.

The Gresham library will begin on Monday the schedule followed during school months. The library will be opened on school days from 12 m. to 5:30 p. m. and Saturday from 2 to 5:30. It will be opened every evening from 7 to 9.

A. R. Lyman is assisting at the Outlook this week, in charge of the Fair Daily.

Ross E. Read is an assistant this week at the Outlook office.

George A. Wolf, of Sandy, was a visitor in Gresham on Thursday. He sold his hotel to Louis Bigman, of Portland.

Mrs. Geo. Leslie, who has been ill for the past two weeks, is reported a little better but is still confined to her bed.

Mrs. Chas. M. Watson, of Portland, formerly Miss Ruth Winters, visited relatives in Gresham Thursday and attended the fair.

Mrs. D. E. Vinton and granddaughter, of Grass Valley, are the guests of Mrs. Carl Dahl.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Parsons took dinner Thursday with Rev. and Mrs. Melville T. Wire at the M. E. parsonage.

Lawrence Parker left this week for Mt. Angel where he will attend school during the coming year. Mrs. Parker accompanied him to Mt. Angel to help him get settled.

George Parker won the set of dishes at Pulfer's drawing Wednesday. Mr. Parker was within five of the winning number which was 22882.

Harry Osman won grand champion on Dan Hal for standard-bred Morgan. Mr. Osman won five blue ribbons on three horses.

Thirty-one babies were entered at the eugenics contest at the library in connection with the fair. Four doctors and a number of assistants were kept busy nearly all day measuring and weighing and judging the little folks. Dr. Mary Madigan was in charge. She was assisted by Drs. Mabel J. Doring, Myers and W. C. Belt.

Ray Frohman, reporter for the Oregon Journal, is spending the week here covering the fair for his paper.

Mrs. Jennie E. Nash of Canton, South Dakota, and Mrs. D. R. Hetlesater of Garden Home, Oregon, were guests on Wednesday of Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Fuller and incidentally visited the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Milne, who have spent the summer on their farm at Gillis, are returning to Portland for the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Carman, of Portland, formerly of Gresham, visited the fair yesterday. They took supper with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hoss.

County Commissioner Rufus Holman and Road Engineer McMullen were visitors at the fair today.

The baby show will be held at the fair pavilion tomorrow at 3 p. m.

L. L. Paulson was called to Etna, Wash., on Sunday to attend the funeral of the wife of his brother, W. N. Paulson who died suddenly on Saturday. She leaves four children. Her age was 36. The funeral was said to be the largest in attendance ever held at that place.

WANTED—Experienced lady book-keeper. P. O. box 87. Gresham.

POMONA TO MEET WITH PLEASANT VALLEY

Multnomah County Pomona grange will meet next Wednesday with Pleasant Valley grange. An excellent program is being arranged for which will include a discussion of some of the measures to be voted on at the coming election. An interesting and profitable day is anticipated.

H. G. Starkweather, one of the members of the Rural Welfare commission, will give a detailed discourse on the rural credit system.

Master H. E. Davis will discuss the proposed 8-hour law from the standpoint of the farmer.

Master J. J. Johnson will give brief analysis of several of the proposed measures to be voted on November 3.

Capt. J. E. Perry will give selections from J. Whitcomb Riley and other authors. All patrons and friends are welcome.

STRONG COMPETITION IN POULTRY DEPARTMENT

Owing to the large number of exhibits of poultry entered this year and the quality of the birds the premium awards are numerous and the competition in some cases very close.

The following are a few of the awards as gathered on the grounds. More complete and accurate lists will be published later when the secretaries books can be consulted.

C. M. Lake won on White Wyandottes, best solid colored bird, first pullet and second pen. On Am. Dominiques first and second pullet, first cockerel, first and second pen and first pen of that class. On Rose Comb Rhode Island Whites, first and second pullets, and first on pen. On Columbia Wyandottes; first cockerel and first and second pullet. On light Bamas; first and second hen, first and second pullet, first cockerel and first pen.

J. H. Lake won second place on pen of Wyandottes.

Keith Lyman won first cock and first hen in pen of White Wyandottes and this pen also won over all other breeds and classes as best pen in the show.

Crystal Springs Farm won second pen on Single Comb White Leghorns.

Florence Taylor won first and second on White Leghorn cockerel, first and second on pullets and first on pen.

Woods' White Wyandotte cockerels won first and second places.

Elliott won on Single Comb R. I. Reds, first and second cockerel; first and second pullet, first and second cock and first pen.

Langendorf Bros., who exhibited about 25 varieties of poultry won in first and second more than fifty prizes. These birds came from Vancouver, Wash., and are carefully bred.

This exhibit came into competition with a large number of Multnomah county birds and home exhibitors who won over them have something of which to be proud.

Death of Mrs. J. S. Bates.

The death of Mrs. J. S. Bates of Springdale, member of the M. A. Ross W. R. C. and an old and respected resident of eastern Multnomah county, occurred at the family home last Tuesday. The funeral occurred Thursday afternoon at the new church at Springdale. Rev. J. H. Wood preached the funeral sermon.

THE SINS OF THE FATHER.

Tommy came home from school very morose.

"Well, my son," observed his father cheerfully, "how did you get on at school today?"

Tommy said that he had been whipped and kept in.

"It was because you told me the wrong answer," he added. "Last night I asked you how much was a million dollars, and you said it was a 'hell of a lot.' That isn't the right answer."

ENCOURAGEMENT.

A gang of laborers was employed digging a mysterious ditch across the street. It was a sewer or a place to put a gas-pipe, or something. One man in particular was working as if he were a chorus man in a play, just going through the motions and pretending to dig a ditch. The foreman came along and spoke to him.
"Don't be afraid," he said, with rich sarcasm. "Lean on th' shovel now an' thin. If it breaks I'll pay for it."

Gravel and Sand.

I am prepared to furnish gravel and sand in any quantity from Bell pit. Also teaming, grading and excavating. J. H. Hoss. Telephone 79x.

Mr. Farmer:—We want potatoes, apple, green corn, chickens, butter, eggs, plums, prunes. We are making special cleanup price on Field Fence. If you intend using any soon it will pay you to see us. Metzger Bros.
