

SANDY DISTRICT FAIR
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

Sandy's annual district fair will be held next Friday and Saturday. The premium list has been published and is a good one, embracing almost every class of farm life, with a parade, horse racing and other sports thrown in to enliven the occasion. Quite a number from Gresham are expecting to go to Sandy on one or both days and some of the judges will be from here. The Outlook will have a full report of the fair in next Tuesday's issue, including the premium awards.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted. Dr. Geo. Inglis.

HEAD BLOWN OFF TAMPING DYNAMITE

Charles Wilson, an expert dynamite operator was instantly killed on Friday last while charging a blast on the Columbia River Highway. He had placed the explosives in a hole already drilled in a rock and was tamping it with dirt preparatory to setting off the blast, when it went off prematurely. His head was taken completely off and his body was blown quite a distance. Wilson was about 40 years of age and had only been employed ten days. 1500 votes for each renewal of yearly subscription to Outlook. Send in cash and name of your candidate
