Troutdale

TROUTDALE, Oct. 8.—The Sunday school club met with Mrs. C. I. Thomas Wednesday evening of last week to bid farewell to one of their number, Miss Helen King, who has gone to California to visit with her sister. The club also made plans for future activities. They contemplate giving an entertainment in the near future. The evening was spent in games, charades, etc. Light refreshments were served. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. I. Thomas, Misses Mabel Ingils, Alice Rasmussen, Meric Monahan, Gladys Goin, Nellie Goodwin, Helen King, Messrs. John Becklan, Cawi McCreary, Ray Mickle, Percy Forest and Clarence Parsons. Everyone present had a most enjoyable time.

Harry Osman had the misfortune to lose his prize winning weanling colt last week.

Mrs. Curtis Judd and sons, Norton and Walter, are here from Fremont, Oregon, to spend the winter with her mother Mrs. Mattie Tiller.

Rev. C. I. Brown was returned to Troutdale by the annual conference and as a result the congregation is very much pleased.

Miss Helen King left Saturday on the steamer Bear for San Francisco to visit her sister who resides there.

The Ladies' Aid met at the church September 30th and had an old-fashioned quilting bee.

J. Isell has moved with his family to Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Larsson visited the state fair at Salem last Wednesday. They report a fine display in all lines.

Mrs. A. D. Kendal has returned from her visit to her mother in Wisconsin.

The large dairy barn being built on the Sun Dial ranch by F. D. Axtel is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for use in about ten days.

Lusted

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton and daughter Irma and Mr. Wybill autted out from Portland last Wednesday to visit Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hamilton, Sr.

Wm. Boyle, Mr. Lewis and A. W. Hamilton, of Portland, came out on a hunting trip last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hamilton and family, of Sandy, visited their grandparents, and also their aunt and uncle, Ed. Hamilton, several days, returning home Monday.

A. C. Wilson is having a new well drilled on his place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson visited relatives in Portland several days last week.

Wallace Davies and Nelson Jackson went to Newport on a hunting and fishing trip. They will be the guests of Max Davies while there.

Eyes tested and glasses fitted.
Dr. Geo. Ingils.

Columbia Heights

We shall be looking forward with much interest to the report of the schools in the county by the superintendent Mr. Armstrong. Every school will expect to be the one that has done the best at least, it is sure to encourage the children to compete. We do think that District 39 has as good a chance this year as any. As many as fourteen visitors have already been to the schoolhouse which is a proof that the people are going to take more interest in the school work than usual.

The rainy weather has put a stop to the work on the highway and many of the men who have been employed at Camp Three have left for the south for the winter. This part of the road will be finished by 1915.

There were a good many at our grange hall Saturday night, but the boys were lonely as so many of the girls were absent. They have all gone back to school for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Rasmussen went by auto to the state fair at Salem on Saturday.

Mrs. Lottie Benfield and daughter Annie, were in the city on business Thursday.

Mrs. David Benfield entertained Mr. and Mrs. Gene Larsen, of Troutdale, on Sunday.

Mrs. Hunter and two little boys are guests at the home of Mrs. John Taylor.

Jos. Jackson, of St. Johns, is domiciled at his brother's ranch here for a short time.

The fall season for fishing in the Columbia has not amounted to much so far, only a few salmon are caught now and then. The fish are very fine for this time of the year.

Miss Grace Ferguson, the instructor at the Heights school, spent the week-end at her home at St. Johns.

W. Deaver came home on his new motorcycle Saturday to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Deaver.

B. Knieriem, who has been in the employ of A. Morgan, the owner of Chanticleer for the last year, has moved home on his place for the winter.

Mrs. Henderson, the hostess at the Falls Chatlet, was seen at the hall Saturday night at the grange hall.

Kelso

A prohibition meeting will be held in the Kelso schoolhouse, Sunday, October 11th from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. There will be a musical and literary program. Rev. A. J. Ware, of Oregon City, will speak at 2 p. m. There will also be local speakers and the meeting will be free for all. Bring basket dinner. Free barn room will be provided for your horses. Everybody cordially invited.

The Kelso school was awarded the prize for the best school number on the Sandy grange fair program, given at Sandy, Friday. The number consisted of a costume song "Three Maids of Lee" by Eunice and Dorothy Jonsrud and Hazel Dunn. The prize was $1.00 in cash and an interesting collecting of postage stamps, donated by Fred Proctor, for which accept the thanks of the Kelso school.

A reading table has been added in the principal's room at school, making an attractive work for recreation as well as usefulness, with a good supply of papers and magazines.

Mrs. Henry Eri and two young sons have gone to Denver, Colorado, for a month's visit with relatives. They visited also at Pocatello, Idaho, Mr. and Mrs. Hamby who used to live here.

Robert Jonsrud sold two colts and three head of young stock last week. Mrs. Barnum and Miss Erickson spent the week-end in Portland.

Do not forget to register before October 15th.

Sheridan has opened a cannery to care for product of 250 fruit farms.

Pleasant Valley

PLEASANT VALLEY, Oct. 7.—Chas. Kennedy, of Lents, was out Wednesday looking after his farm. Otto Ruedy was a valley visitor last Sunday.

E. E. Merges and Mr. Crow, of Portland, were callers at the Campbell home Tuesday.

Rev. J. T. Hoey, of St. Johns, spent the week visiting friends in the valley.

Wm. Congdon, of Gresham, was a valley visitor one day recently.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Harrison have returned from a trip east where they have spent the past several months visiting with relatives and friends in Illinois, Indiana and Missouri.

J. S. Donaldson had the misfortune to lose one of his horses one day this week.

Pleasant Valley grange will hold a session next Saturday evening.

Only six more days in which to register. Don't forget about it.

TWO MONTHS AGO

fending France against an aggressive neighbor, especially when the said neighbor's policy is dictated, or suggested by Rome.

The Local Situation.

Here in Saint-Jean-du-Doigt—(name means the finger of Saint John, so-called because said finger is said to rest in the Sacristy of the church here—bosh), we are safe and peaceful. The name of the department—Finistere—means, "the end of the earth," and there certainly is nothing to call the Germans here, and they could not if they would for England blocks the channel—it is honey-combed with mines, and Gibraltar blocks the Mediterranean.

The United States being neutral, Americans are welcome to remain here, but must conform, to martial laws, or take the consequences. For instance, foreigners are not allowed to travel on trains until after August 21st as all railroad service is reserved for the war department. We cannot leave this village of St. Jean-du-Doigt not even to go to Plougasmeau—a town two miles distant where the P. O. is located—unless we have a "lasser passer" (pass) from the mayor good for one day only.

This is done in our interest, for a foreigner must give satisfactory evidence of his identity and neutrality at all times, when asked, otherwise he will be considered a spy, arrested, and shot without trial; so we remain here, where we are known, and where the people are exceedingly kind to us. We are required to declare where we were born (and why?), to find out if we were Germans, and state if we wished to remain in France; if not, to designate our choice of Port of departure. Again, you see, a means to ascertain whether we would go to Germany or not. No German is allowed to leave France now. He is imprisoned.

Fortunately, France has a law which makes it a penal offense to raise the price of edibles in war times. Here in Brittany farm produce has dropped 50 per cent caused by impossibility to ship to market. Mind you, conditions here are not at all like war times in America. Here every man under 45 must go at once, and a law made last May (note the prophetic move) will call out all men up to 50—if needed. Oh, say, the priests have to go, the same as mortals. This is the first time in history that priests are not exempt.

Think of what the conditions would be in America if you had no R. F. D., now that many post offices are abolished, and no street cars, no newspapers, no trainmen; no clerks on trains, and in post offices. Telegraph operators, bankers and bank clerks already gone—all must go and at once. We have one postman on an R. F. D. route left in Finistere. He will go only on special call of the postmaster general. You can see why there can be no business done, as in America—no one to do it, and no one seems at all interested in business, only so far as it pretains to crush Germany.

News has just come (August 9) of the French taking Mulhouse, a large city in their beloved Alsace. Frenchmen here are frantic with joy, for they see victory. To get Alsace and Lorraine back into French territory has been their dream for 44 years, and now it seems a possibility and almost a reality.

Money is held tight by banks. The government has ordered them to pay depositors only fifty cents per day—just enough for existence. No bank will cash an American Express check. With the aid of a powerful magnifying glass, the cashier of the American Express bank at Paris discovered a credit balance in my name. Fortunately I have enough cash in my stocking to last till the war is over—everybody counts on that very soon; for it won't take long to get "William" on his back, and then his pockets will be easily and quickly depleted.

Today, Germany reports that they have taken Liege, Belgium. The French say Liege is intact and free. Do you wonder that I want the American newspaper of view. There are at least fifteen Americans here who are penniless. Their checks, letters of credit, etc., are worth nothing. Civil law is entirely set aside for martial law. Tenants are freed from their leases if they wish it so. Notes falling due are not collectable until peace is declared. Its mighty exciting here I assure you; but we are safe, happy and very, very busy.

This religio-political war could have been avoided if the spirit of Altruism and not Might had impelled the Rulers. It has no equal in history as to scope, and this is the 20th century. When one thinks that one man, the Kaiser, could have put an end to it all, the situation seems appalling. If the triple-entente accomplishes the downfall of such despotism, a step in advanced civilization will have been accomplished.

Should the war continue after Nov. 1st we will return to America as we do not care to live in Paris during such times. The advantages that Paris offers in its normal condition are absolutely void in times of war for all men under 45 are gone, and worse still, the Americans; also—our Clientelle.

Orient

Miss Edna Burtch, who gave "The Shepherd of the Hills" under the auspices of the Chapel Sunday school, will give "Polly Anna" at the Chapel on Friday evening, October 16th, at 8 o'clock. We can assure all who come to hear Miss Burtch a rare treat.

Mrs. William McAlpine and son Laurie drove to Sandy on Saturday to the fair and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Lennartz.

Miss Nelson, the evangelist, who is conducting the meetings in the Chapel this week, is staying with Mrs. A. F. Chase. Good attendances are at the meetings.

On Tuesday night three young men broke a valuable disc harrow on the Robert Smith place. The hoodlums left their tracks behind them and as the sheriff's office has been notified, no difficulty will be experienced in fixing the blame. Perhaps this is one of the results of some of the young boys in the district being seen the worse for drink lately.

Mrs. Miles returned to Salem on Tuesday after a few days' visit with her sister Mrs. A. F. Chase.

C. H. Johanson was a visitor at Sandy Ridge on Tuesday.

William McAlpine and son Freddy went to Portland on Saturday.

John Cunningham has started a crew of woodcutters on the Clark and Abernathy places for the winter. Additional students are being enrolled for the high school and the success of the venture is now assured.

Messrs. Nelson & Johanson had a carload of feed arrive at the depot on Monday.

The evangelistic services now being conducted will be in Cottrell Chapel on Sunday at 11 o'clock forenoon and in the Chapel here at 7:45 evening. Miss Nelson will conduct both services and as these are of special interest, a large attendance is looked for.

Mrs. Grant Sloop was an Orient visitor on Sunday on her way back from Gresham.

Corbett

Fred Reed was in Portland on business Saturday.

St. Joseph Leland started for Lake county Sunday to do some work on his claim. He expects to return in about two months.

Miss Helen Coulter spent the week-end in Portland.

Mrs. Chauncey Clark visited relatives at Camas, Washington, the first of the week.

The rock crusher at tunnel No. 1 has ceased operations and will be closed for an indefinite time, thereby throwing several men out of employment.

This section of the county was visited by a very severe electrical storm Friday.

Columbia grange held its monthly meeting Saturday, October 4th with a fair attendance.

George Hurlburt, of Portland, was out to do some surveying for Horace Reed at Rooster Rock, last week.

Miss Emma Hanky returned from Collins hot springs one day last week.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value. Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says, "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all Dealers.

A blow at one of our sacred institutions is a proposed tax of 4 per cent on chewing gum. The new voters will surely take revenge.

RULES GOVERNING THE VOTING CONTEST

RULE 1. The Pulfer Mercantile Co. will issue votes as per following schedule, excepting as hereafter may be mentioned:
100 for $1.00 on cash sales.
200 for $1.00 in merchandise paid with due bills.
300 for $1.00 on payments of old accounts.
200 for $1.00 on due bills sold.
200 for $1.00 on bargain and clearance sales.

RULE 2. In reference to issuing votes on old accounts, they may be issued for the payment of old accounts, that were incurred prior to July 1, 1914. Votes will not be given on new charge accounts unless this particular account is paid within thirty days, then votes may be issued if the merchant is willing and so orders.

RULE 3. Employees, clerks and relatives of the merchants and newspaper publishers cannot participate as candidates.

RULE 4. Merchants shall in no instance issue votes until such votes have been properly stamped with their firm name. Customers should refuse them otherwise.

RULE 5. The soliciting of votes in the merchant's store, in front of store or on premises is prohibited.

RULE 6. A vote that is scratched or marked in any manner after it leaves the merchant's hands, shall be thrown out, providing this defacing should appear that a figure had been tampered with.

RULE 7. After November first no new candidates will be entered.

RULE 8. Everybody is invited to nominate candidates. All that is necessary is to send in the name of any young lady in the community. This will entitle her to 2000 nominating votes and she will be entered as a candidate.

RULE 9. Votes are not transferable after being cast.

RULE 10. Votes that are not properly stamped with the merchant's signature, or votes with the time limit expired, will not be accepted.

RULE 11. A committee selected by the merchants will count the votes each week, beginning with the third week and report the results in the Outlook. Committee will be announced later.

RULE 12. On October 19th all contestants showing no gain in votes up to that date will be dropped from the published list. Their votes will be held to their credit, should they desire to re-enter.

And votes will be given at the time sales are made only.

The Gresham Outlook will give 2000 votes for each dollar on new and 1000 votes for each dollar for renewals or back subscriptions.
