We are going to move, the landlord says the new building will be ready December 1st. If there is anything we dislike to do, it is to move, but it must be done. Our present room has been leased from under us and we must get new quarters.

To make this job easy we have decided to enlist every man, woman, and child in Gresham and vicinity to help us.

We propose to pay you all for your services by giving you from 5 to 50 per cent discount from the regular price. Now you all need merchandise such as we offer at this time of year, and you are going to buy it somewhere.

You can positively save from 5 to 50 per cent on your purchases by buying during this sale, so don't delay. Come early and get first choice. Stay late, and get plenty, the more you buy the more you save. You will not have another chance to get good new dependable merchandise at these prices again soon.

We have purchased the new Dry Goods Stock of E. W. Aylsworth and are going to place it on sale without reserve. This entire stock is absolutely new Fall Goods; no old stock, no shop worn goods, every article new and fresh.
