Miss Sarah Adams is reported on the sick list.

Just look at that long column of Want Ads!

PLEASANT HOME

The Ladies' Aid society of the M. E. church will meet at Mrs. Charles Hunter's home on the 11th.

Mrs. Rhyman has rented the Shinaman house and is moving in.

Mr. Wenner has leased the Johnson place.

W. H. Markell, of Portland, was visiting with his brother W. E. Markell on Sunday.

Mr. Fredson, of Cherry Grove, Oregon, has moved here and will start in business as a harness and shoemaker in a few days.

Mr. Anderson, our jeweler, who left a couple of weeks ago, has returned with his family. His stock of goods will be here in a few days.

Mr. Conner who was helping Mrs. Kennedy has returned home to Los Angeles, California.

J. S. Otis is very sick, his grandsons Jule and Archie Collins, are with him.

There was a big turn out to the election from Pleasant Home.

Pleasant Home is prosperous and a dry town. All the houses are full and more are needed. It would be a good investment for some one to build some houses for rent here.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Chas Hunter Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 11. All members and friends invited.

SANDY VOTES WET ON AMENDMENT

Sandy precinct lost prohibition, on the amendment, by three votes. There was no local petition on the ballot. It is stated that the question will come up again for decision in the city at the coming municipal election in December. The republicans carried all the county offices.

The voting contest is a trade builder and so helps the home merchant first. You help yourself by helping him. Keep the money at home and boost for the home trade.

ORIENT

A large crowd attended the sale of the Holstein herd of Chas. King at the Rook place on Saturday. Prices were disappointing and no great demand seemed to be for this class of cows.

The Baptist Chapel Ladies' Aid gave a luncheon at the sale on the Rook place on Saturday and as a result their treasury is $30 the better.

Robert S. Smith was a Portland visitor on Wednesday on business.

P. H. Rook has returned from a month's visit in eastern Oregon where he went to take in the Pendleton round-up and visit friends.

Clarence Jackson was a Gresham visitor on Tuesday.

Mrs. A. F. Chase is planning an extended visit back east in the near future.

William McAlpine and Freddy drove to Montavilla on Tuesday from there took the car to town.

Mrs. Roy Walters was one of the election clerks at Boring on Tuesday.

Mrs. Hale is still confined to bed since she returned from Gresham, where she had been undergoing treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Caddy left on Wednesday for a week's visit at Hood River with relatives.

Great satisfaction is felt at the result of the prohibition vote, but whether that will stop drinking still remains to be seen.

A. F. Chase has a crew of men cleaning out and cementing his well. Last summer he was pretty short of water.

James and John Burns, of the Melrose district, attended the sale of Holsteins on Saturday and took dinner at Mr. McAlpine's.

Mr. and Mrs. Hircia and family have gone to town for a few days.

The Halloween boys were out as usual and several gates were seen taking an evening walk.

Bert Cline is one of the election clerks at Powell Valley precinct.

Mrs. Ryman went to Portland on Monday to arrange for the removal of her furniture to the Shinaman home which she has rented.

A collector was in the district soliciting subscriptions for a new church building at Gillis but seemingly did not meet with much support in this district. There is already a church here and it can accommodate all the churchgoers nicely with seats for strangers at any time.

Potato prices are disappointing in the meantime, but the farmers will just have to exercise patience and wait for the improvement.

The afternoon train from town which the railroad company has put on and passing here to Bull Run at 5 o'clock is a decided benefit, more especially to the school children who had formerly to wait till 7 o'clock and the late evening train back to town is a great convenience to town visitors.

"Perils of Pauline"

Monday, Nov. 9
At the Scenograph

SECOND EPISODE.

SYNOPSIS OF PREVIOUS EPISODE.

Harry Marvin and Pauline, his adopted sister, have been left orphans by the death of their father, who left Harry one-half his fortune, the other half to Pauline, with the proviso that in the event of Pauline's death before marrying Harry, her share of the fortune was to go to his secretary, Owen. He also promises before he dies that Pauline should take a trip around the world under Owen's protection. Owen, a villain at heart, persuaded by his friend Hicks, decides to have some accident happen to Pauline so that he may obtain her fortune.

Owen, deeply in debt and desperate, decides to follow his friend Hicks' advice, and place Pauline's life in jeopardy. Reading of an aviation meet, they persuade Pauline to consent to take a trip with one of the aviators. After making the arrangements with the aviator to carry Pauline as a passenger, Owen at night sneaks to the grounds and weakens the aeroplane so that an accident will be almost sure to happen. At the race meet the next day we see the great accident, resulting in the fall of the airship and the death of the pilot. How Pauline escaped you will see on the screen.

Christmas Is Coming!

Also Seven Pianos!

And that will mean seven happy homes of contestants who as a result of a little forethought and personal effort win in the popular Voting Contest which will end about Christmas time.

Several contestants have been doing splendidly. They also are being rewarded for their trouble. The weekly prizes are valuable and should be widely distributed. The remaining weeks will be the very best opportunity of the contest period for both subscription work on the Outlook and trade boosting at the store.

"Nothing succeeds like success," and success in this contest is not limited to just one but is open to many. There is only one absolutely Free Piano, the first prize, but there are six others so nearly free that they are well worth striving for.

There are lots more subscriptions to be had for the asking. Get a list of names in your locality and start out now to get 25 new subscriptions. That will give you a good start. You can do it. Read the rules. Watch for the special offers of double votes, etc.
