

SOMETHING NEW

The First State Bank has something new in calendars this year. The Thos. D. Murphy Co., famous calendar makers of Red Oak, Iowa, is furnishing with three American subjects: "Daphne of the Roses", "Phyllis" and "Innocence", each one handpainted, for distribution among its customers. Samples of these calendars may now be seen at the bank and to make sure that you receive one you should call at the bank, select the one you desire and register your name and address or telephone the bank and they will select and reserve for you the one they deem most appropriate. These calendars are costly and the risk of breakage in the mail is too great for the calendars to be mailed, consequently you must call at the bank for same where it will be reserved for you if you so request. The Thos. D. Murphy Co., has also made arrangements with the First State Bank to furnish to the customers of the bank, through the bank a beautiful picture 18x24 inches, without advertising of any kind, entitled "The Sweet June Bride," the original painting of which cost the Thos. D. Murphy Co. $100,000, for one dollar each which is much less than they can be purchased in any other way. This picture is now displayed in the window of the First State Bank and any one desiring one should leave their order for same as early as possible with the First State Bank. No more appropriate Xmas present could be found.

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

About 150 people took part in the social gathering at the Methodist Episcopal church last night. The expression "took part" is used advisedly, as that is exactly what everyone did. There were no wall flowers and everyone from the oldest to the youngest had a good wholesome, social time. The arrangements were in charge of a committee of the official board appointed some time ago for the purpose. The committee consisted of Mrs. Myrtle Myers Mrs. C. M. Zimmerman and Mrs. Elia Aton.

Word has been received by Miss Struggles, of the high school, of the serious illness of her mother in Illinois.

Students of the high school have been quietly working during the past few weeks to give the school representation in the debating league. The tryout has resulted in the selection of Misses Mabel Shipley and Marguerite Volbrecht for the affirmative team and Stanley Stinson and Miss Ellen DeHaven for the negative team. Keith Lyman is alternate. The subject for debate will be on the Government ownership of railroads. The schedule has not yet been made public.

Miss Alice Brown, daughter of Dave Brown of Heppner, who has been visiting with the family of John Brown, her uncle was sent to her home yesterday in charge of the conductor of an O. W. To all our friends who gave us their assistance and sympathy during the sad days of affliction and bereavement, in the loss of our son Raleigh, we extend our most heartfelt thanks and gratitude.

HIGH JINKS TONIGHT IN ADAMLESS EDEN

Somewhere between thirty and forty young ladies of the Gresham high school have arranged to give a private party tonight in the grange hall which will border on the Adamless Eden, and no serpents admitted. If a bunch of boys or men were going to hold a revel it could and would properly be called a "stag" party, but with a bevy of girls it's different. While it would be a party of dears it wouldn't be one of deers and so the modern Eves of the high school are up against the proposition of giving their function a name or going without. It has been suggested that "doe" or "ewe" or "chicken" would be appropriate but for this article it will be nameless.

There are going to be some peculiar features, one of which will be about fifteen girls in boys' clothing. Those who have brothers will find it easy to get the duds, but some of the others will have to depend on somebody else's brothers who have an over supply of glad rags available for the occasion.

To guard against the intrusion of "Peeping Toms" the girls will have the doors locked and a sentry on duty fully equipped with a feminine scream ready for any emergency.

The program will be rather impromptu but it has leaked out that a mock wedding will be rehearsed in view of future conditions which may arise after the classes have graduated. Dancing to piano music will be one of the sports and there will be eats, quantum sufficient, as the Latin grammar says.

Considerable sympathy is going out to the boys, who will have no part in the feminine jinks, but then it is said that they are planning some sort of revenge on the girls for being ignored on the present occasion.

The Outlook is not supposed to know anything about the affair and will not have a representative there, hence it is telling all about it in advance, so that no confidence is violated, even though it may not have an authentic report of the "proceedings" in the next issue.

A Few Words About Prescriptions

Your doctor fights disease with medicine. If the medicine is not right, he cannot conquer disease. If the druggist does his duty the medicine will be right, and your doctor will stand a fair chance of winning the victory.

In no other branch of the Drug Business should the details receive more care and attention than in the Prescription department. Every detail there is important.

We realize this fact and make thoroughness a feature of our prescription case.

Every Prescription dispensed at this store has the personal attention of the proprietors.

We use only the PUREST and BEST DRUGS obtainable and our prices are guaranteed lower than any place in the city.
