

Death of Mrs. Martha Johnson.

Mrs. Martha J. Johnson, 69, died Sunday at her residence, 498 18th street, and will be buried in Multnomah cemetery from the P. L. Lerch undertaking parlors, East Eleventh and Clay streets, at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Mrs. Johnson was born in Washington county, Arkansas, and came across the plains with her parents, Thomas and Nancy J. Lee, settling in Clackamas county in 1853.

Mrs. Johnson's father was a cousin of General Robert E. Lee. Eight children survive, they are: Wynn W. Johnson, of Tacoma, Washington; J. J. Johnson, Mrs. Mary M. Lent, H. L. Johnson, Mrs. Arminia Zinsler, Charles E. Johnson, Miss Jennie A. Johnson, of Portland, and Mrs. Annie E. Clark, of Alaska.

Funeral of Wm. Lusted.

The funeral of William Lusted, who passed away last Friday, November 13, at the home of his son George Lusted, was held on Saturday at the Pleasant Home Methodist church on Saturday afternoon, Rev. J. H. Wood officiating.

William Lusted was born in Sussex county, England, April 14, 1824. He came to America with his parents at the age of 14 years. He was married to Elizabeth Humphrey at Cape Vincent, New York, January 2, 1849.

Mr. Lusted is survived by his widow, now 89 years of age, one son, George, six grand-children and one grand-child. The grand-children are: Mrs. Goff and Arthur Lusted of Portland; Mrs. Margaret Clark of Newberg; Harry Lusted of Lents and Walter Lusted and Miss Inez Lusted of Gresham.

IN GRESHAM AND VICINITY

Mrs. Atkinson, from Juneau, Alaska, is here to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Osman.

The Gresham high school has been placed again in the Lower Columbia debating district, which includes Astoria, Tillamook, Scappoose, St. Johns and Gresham.

R. B. Belt and wife, who are the new proprietors of the former Townsend confectionery store, have taken housekeeping rooms on the second floor in the same building.

I. N. O'Maria, recently from Juneau, Alaska, was a caller last week on Harry Osman and family. He attended the Odd Fellows lodge here last Saturday night and was given a good time.

M. M. Squire has been figuring on the problem of getting up to Stayton, in Marion county with an automobile at this time of the year.

W. H. Hamilton, the well known undertaker of Montavilla, was seen in Gresham last week. He wore a broad smile and his usual business suit which relieved the public considerably.

Jack Brown, the man who represents the McMinnville fire insurance company, et al, was seen talking to a granger yesterday. They were telling each other that business is dull, but Jack has another policy sky-hooting this way from McMinnville and winked at himself when the confab was over.

George W. Stapleton must feel quite lonesome running for mayor all alone. Someone tried to nominate Highline just to give him company on the ticket but Charlie Cleveland put a kibosh on the scheme because Highline is needed to polish our shoes next summer—a duty which would be incompatible with the dignity of a man who had been a candidate for mayor.

The Monday crawfish, which is the little ally of the big Oregonian, appeared six pages ahead of time yesterday. One more spurt like that and it will be entirely off the front page.

Lewis Shattuck, who will soon be ex-mayor in Idaho, but is now rusticated at Sunnyside when he is not selling Fords, was a Gresham caller yesterday.

The fire of Dr. Thompson's fine residence burned out on Sunday afternoon at a convenient hour for the whole town to be present. No damage was done to anything about the house but some of the firemen were caught with their Sunday clothes on.

The agricultural demonstrations on the fertile Gresham gridiron last Saturday were productive of 7 tallies for the Franklin high and 2 tallies for Gresham; all of which shows that intensified soil disturbances are more intensely understood in the city than out here.

James Hillyard, who road supervises most of the time when he is away from home and who lives at Gillis, was a business visitor in Gresham yesterday.

John Larson, husband of Mayor Larson of Troutdale, paid Gresham a social visit yesterday. He was accompanied by the mayor.

The Maccabees, their families and invited guests, will have a reunion and entertainment in the Maccabee hall at Rockwood on Saturday night next.

Mr. J. Quick spent Sunday at the home of E. C. Lindsey.

A faint tinkle of wedding bells is heard on the Base Line somewhere between the Twelve-Mile House and Rockwood.

"The Piper's Pay" is a short, interesting comedy to be given by local talent at Fairview November 27, for the benefit of the work of the Presbyterian church.

"East Lynn," as given at the Gresham theater on Friday night last, was the very best of all traveling performances ever given in Gresham.

The promised auto service car under the management of B. F. Roberts and Jake Rau went into commission on Friday last between Gresham and Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cover have been spending a week at Seaside. Date for the operetta "Plymouth Rock," at the Terry schoolhouse has been set for Wednesday evening, November 25—Thanksgiving eve.

L. C. Dooley sold his pool room on Saturday morning and with his wife left for Portland where they will remain for a few days before going to Salem, where they may remain permanently.

T. J. Kreuder, deputy state master, was an official visitor to Gresham grange on Saturday. Mr. Kreuder announced that he would make an official visit to Rockwood grange on Wednesday evening, December 2, at which time the annual election of officers will take place.

J. Gould whose family was taken care of by charitable persons last week, mention of which was made in the Outlook, writes that he and his wife went to Latourell to bring their girl home but were detained by the sickness of his mother, living there. Mr. Gould came home and stayed two days and then returned for his wife and daughter. They are all at home now.

Carl Shattuck arrived in Gresham this morning from Maupin, where he is engaged in the mercantile business with his brothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton Kelly, of Portland, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kelly.

Miss Mabel Arthur, teacher of the eighth grade, has been detained at her home in Portland on account of injuries to her knee received last week at the skating party.

Miss Hazel Goger of the high school is teaching the grade during Miss Arthur's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Clark, of Newberg, attended the funeral of the latter's grandfather William Lusted last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Jones and son Hallie returned Saturday evening from Riddle, Oregon, where they have been greatly benefitted in health by the change.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartley went last Wednesday to Walla Walla to live with their daughter Mrs. R. A. Stockdale.

Miss Geraldine Hall, of Portland, spent the week-end with Mrs. E. A. Pomeroy.

Little Vernon Lucile Kelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kelly recently received from the state fair a silver cup on which is the inscription "Oregon State Fair. Second Premium. Girl over 3 and under 4."

The little girl scored 96.7 in the eugenics contest at the state fair in Salem, which was only .3 of one per cent below the winner of first place in her class.

Advertisement for Portland Stove Works featuring a cast heater with nickel trimming, handsome, durable, and convenient. Includes a diagram of the heater and contact information for Sterling & Kidder's Hardware Store.

STERLING & KIDDER'S Hardware Store Gresham, Ore.

Advertisement for GRESHAM MEAT MARKET, A. J. W. BROWN, Prop. Best Quality Meats, Home-Made Lard and Sausage, Hams and Bacon. Highest Prices paid for VEAL and HOGS.

Among the county officers recently elected for Cowlitz county, Washington are Clark Studebaker, sheriff, who is a brother of Mrs. E. H. Kelly of Gresham and Miss Lucia Jenkins, superintendent of schools, a sister of Mrs. C. H. Lane of Gresham who was re-elected by a large majority.

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair last Saturday evening, which was in celebration of the fourteenth birthday of their daughter Miss Winifred.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. McKinney entertained a party of friends with a card party last Saturday evening.

Robert Claxton, of Salem, returned after a few days' visit at the home of his uncle D. E. Towle.

E. D. Dewey, mailing clerk for The Oregonian, spent the week-end with his sister Mrs. S. T. Crow.

Miss Edna Vogel, of Portland, was the guest of her mother Mrs. M. Vogel over Sunday.

Floyd Metzger came to Portland from Corvallis to witness the Oregon-Idaho foot ball game. He spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Metzger.

Mrs. Ella Aton is nursing E. C. Lindsey whose condition remains about the same. He is entirely helpless.

A reception will be given Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Honey to the teachers of the Gresham public and high school by members of the Womens' Christian Temperance Union and the Gresham Council of Women Voters.

A meeting for the organization of a chorus choir for the Methodist Episcopal church will be held Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. St. Clair. Mrs. Ellen A. Pomeroy will have charge. All who will assist in the work are invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Orma Karney and children of South Gresham were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. McLain on Sunday.

Gresham Time Table LEAVE GRESHAM (daily) O. W. P. Depot. Table with columns for North Bound, South Bound, and MT. HOOD DEPOT, listing departure times for various routes.

Advertisement for Louden Barn Equipment, featuring tubular stanchions, steel wood-lined stanchions, litter carriers, Oliver chilled and steel plows, and Hessel's Farm Machinery.

Advertisement for GRESHAM DRUG CO., The REXALL Store, Gresham, Ore. A Few Words About Prescriptions. Your doctor fights disease with medicine.

Advertisement for Metzger Bros. EVERYBODY HAS HIS 'HOBBY'. Our desire is to have our Store excel in QUALITY AND SERVICE. But first to have goods of a QUALITY that we can feel is sure to please and bring you back again and again.

Advertisement for Metzger Bros. Service and Quality Store. Lists various products like Mince Meat, Raisins, Citron, Boiled Cider, Currants, Orange, Cranberries, Popcorn, Lemon Peels, and Mixed Nuts, Walnuts. Includes phone number 661.

Advertisement for "A FRIENDSHIP" and First State Bank. Founded on business is a great deal better than a business founded on friendship. We are basing our friendship on well defined business methods. A DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE recently said: "A country banker promotes the development of his community in the proportion, and only in the proportion, that he employs his money through loaning it to farmers for constructive work and improved methods—not for food or for stock feed."