ORIENT

A clearing out sale has been on for two weeks at the store and good bargains have been given. The firm of Nelson & Johanson is going out of business.

John Nelson has purchased a large tract of timber near Bull Run and is going shortly to have it cut to cordwood.

Walter Johanson has purchased an interest in a grocery store on Hawthorne avenue, Portland, and takes up his duties about the beginning of the year.

William McAlpine has gone to Portland to attend the law classes and is studying for the L.L. B. degree.

The Parent-Teachers' meeting was held on Friday and was largely attended.

J. D. Kellogg came out from Portland on Wednesday to his place here and stayed until Thursday.

Robert S. Smith was a Portland visitor on Wednesday.

P. H. Rook and R. J. Anderson were Portland visitors on Monday.

Geo. Anderson from Sandy has rented the J. D. Kellogg place next to his father, and is going to run a chicken ranch.

The basket ball team went to St. Johns on Friday evening to play the team of that place and returned defeated by 32 to 12.

A Mr. Clauson from Portland has purchased the business of Nelson & Johanson and takes possession shortly. We all regret the present firm leaving but Mr. Clauson hopes to see all the old customers at the store.

Preaching took place in the chapel in Sandy.

Executor Estate of J. S. Otis,
Deceased.

MIL0 C. KING,
Attorney for Executor.
Date of last publication Dec. 22, '14.

Answer the other fellow's Want Ad. and he'll answer yours.

POWELL VALLEY

The funeral of Olof Brandberg was held on Tuesday, December 8, at the Swedish Mission church of Powell Valley. Rev. H. E. Sandstedt of Portland, an old time friend of the deceased, spoke interestingly from the latter part of the 20th chapter of Revelation. Rev. Jonas Johanson spoke on the resurrection from 1 Cor. 15:19-23. Beautiful floral tributes covered the casket. The pall bearers were J. J. Johnson, N. E. Heylander, Jonas Nelson, Magnus Anderson and Swan Staffanson. Mr. Brandberg leaves besides his wife and daughter, Mrs. Wm. Peterson and four grandchildren here, a sister in Ordway, Colorado and a brother in Kansas City, Missouri.

FAIRVIEW

Fairview grange will meet next Saturday, December 19 for the election of officers and transaction of other business. This will be an all-day meeting with the usual grange dinner at noon.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church will hold a chicken pie supper and bazaar Saturday, December 19 at the city hall. The sale will begin in the afternoon and continue during the evening. Supper will be served from 5 to 7 after which a program will be rendered. All are invited to attend.

The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society will hold a business meeting on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. W. McKay.

The State Fish and Game commission that collected and expended $160,000 this year wants no change in the law. It sent agents on trips to Europe to find new game birds.

The Booth-Kelly mills have been put on an 8-hour day for the winter.

Sick Headache.

Sick headache is nearly always caused by disorders of the stomach. Correct them and the periodic attacks of sick headache will disappear. Mrs. John Bishop of Roseville, Ohio, writes: "About a year ago I was troubled with indigestion and had sick headache that lasted for two or three days at a time. I doctored and tried a number of remedies but nothing helped me until one of those sick spells a friend advised me to take Chamberlain's Tablets. This medicine relieved me in a short time." For sale by all Dealers.

PLEASANT HOME

The Womens' Christian Temperance Union will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Lauderback. A large attendance is desired.

A baby girl was born on Friday last to Mr. and Mrs. Laudaauer.

Preaching services will be held next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Rev. Mr. Smith, the pastor, will preach.

Mrs. J. A. Stephens, who has been visiting with relatives and friends in this vicinity, has returned to Portland.

BORING

BORING, Dec. 14.—The entertainment for Saturday evening promises to be good and good order is assured as the young people have selected Mr. Morand, Mr. Meyer, Mr. Siefer and Mr. Telford as a committee to keep order and any one getting rough or noisy will be asked to leave the hall or do what is right.

The new piano has arrived at Boring hall. A large payment has been made on it already and the proceeds from the basket social Saturday evening will also go towards paying for the piano. Boring people are awake.

Basket Social Explained.

In explanation of the misunderstanding that seems to be among the ladies of Boring in regard to the basket social, Saturday evening and the way the baskets are to be sold, we wish to say, every ladies' basket will be numbered on the outside by a girl at the door. The basket will contain the ladies' name and weight. These with the number will be copied in a book by an acting secretary. No one else will know the ladies weight except the secretary and the one buying the basket. The gentlemen will come and ask the secretary for any number he desires. He will be told the necessary amount 1 cent a pound, pay it, and be given the basket with whose owner he is to eat supper. 84

ROCKWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bliss entertained a few of their neighbors Saturday evening with music, and at midnight a delicious luncheon was served. Those that partook of their hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhodes, Misses Marie Schantz and Bertha Anspach, Messrs. Tony Schantz and Hilmer and Herman Anspach.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Sales of Terry entertained at Sunday dinner in honor of Mrs. Sales' birthday. Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Bacon and Miss Irene and Nan Triplett, of Portland, and Mrs. Frank Dickenson of Rockwood.

RULES GOVERNING THE VOTING CONTEST

RULE 1. The Pulver Mercantile Co. will issue votes as per following schedule, excepting as hereafter may be mentioned:

100 for $1.00 on cash sales.

200 for $1.00 in merchandise paid with due bills.

200 for $1.00 on payments of old accounts.

200 for $1.00 on due bills sold.

200 for $1.00 on bargain and clearance sales.

In reference to issuing votes on old accounts, they may be issued for the payment of old accounts, that were incurred prior to July 1, 1914. Votes will not be given on new charge accounts unless this particular account is paid within thirty days, then votes may be issued if the merchant is willing and so orders.

RULE 2. Votes will be issued with a time limit of two weeks, and must be cast in the ballot box, provided for that purpose, before the expiration of the time limit. Before casting votes, make a record for your own guidance.

In order to facilitate voting you are requested to place your votes in an envelope and seal it. Please write the number of votes the envelope contains and the name of the candidate you desire to vote for on the outside.

RULE 3. Employees, clerks and relatives of the merchants and newspaper publishers cannot participate as candidates.

RULE 4. Merchants shall in no instance issue votes until such votes have been properly stamped with their firm name. Customers should refuse them otherwise.

RULE 5. The soliciting of votes in the merchant's store, in front of store or on premises is prohibited.

RULE 6. A vote that is scratched or marked in any manner after it leaves the merchant's hands, shall be thrown out, providing this defacing should appear that a figure had been tampered with.

RULE 7. After November first no new candidates will be entered.

RULE 8. Everybody is invited to nominate candidates. All that is necessary is to send in the name of any young lady in the community. This will entitle her to 2000 nominating votes and she will be entered as a candidate.

RULE 9. Votes are not transferable after being cast.

RULE 10. Votes that are not properly stamped with the merchant's signature, or votes with the time limit expired, will not be accepted.

RULE 11. A committee selected by the merchants will count the votes each week, beginning with the third week and report the results in the Outlook. Committees will be announced later.

RULE 12. On October 15th all contestants showing no gain in votes up to that date will be dropped from the published list. Their votes will be held to their credit, should they desire to re-enter.

And votes will be given at the time sales are made only.
